

INTRODUCTION

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE LITTLETON FAMILY

The Littletons and their descendants in the 17th and 18th centuries on the Eastern Shore of Maryland and Virginia were, as they had been in England, among the landed gentry, i.e. the well-to-do Colonial aristocracy. Though the name Littleton died out by 1720, the descendants in other families - Robins, Whittington, Savage, Tazewell, Eyre, and others - perpetuated the Littleton traditions. Some heads of families owned thousands of acres of land and upwards of a hundred or more slaves. By the time of his death in 1654 Col. Nathaniel Littleton owned more than 5700 acres of land. His son Southy (A-2) died leaving over 7300 acres. Severn Eyre (H-9) in 1773 bequeathed eight plantations, plus £2000 to his wife, £1500 to a daughter. As late as the mid-nineteenth century John Upshur Dennis (whose wife was a Littleton, G-38) died in 1851 leaving six plantations and 157 slaves. Some men were merchant-planters, with large plantations and their own vessels, engaging in trade with New England, the West Indies, even overseas. Some imported their own slaves. There were inevitably casualties among seafarers. Thomas Winder (M-1:6), not yet 18, reportedly died at sea in Sep 1771. Peter Handy (M-4:6), 20, was lost at sea Sep 1802.

Members of the family resided in fine homes, larger than most early houses, some of which still survive, for instance, Bowman's Folly, Cherry Grove, Elkington, Eyre Hall, Kendall Grove, Kerr Place, and Mount Custis in Virginia, and Arlington, two Beverlys, Kingston Hall, Pemberton, Tudor Hall, Westover (or Clifton), and Workington in Maryland. Numerous family wills and estate inventories list many items of silver (spoons, goblets, boxes, bowls, candle sticks), fine furniture, often imported, portraits, pistols, swords, silk stockings, sometimes large sums of cash. (All the lists presented herein are the merest sampling of a great many of their kind. There are usually many others not mentioned.)

There is evidence that some fathers provided doweries for their daughters: in his 1769 will William Burton (J-9) declared that son-in-law Robt. Bolling was to receive no more than the sizable £600 he received upon his marriage "to my dec'd daughter"; in his 1796 will Lyttleton Savage (J-23) mentioned slaves and money given to his son-in-law Thomas Lyttleton Savage (F-3) and prayed that "he will give to each of my said Grandchildren on their coming of age or marriage, a fortune equal to one third of the sum so given him." Some men fought duels. John Tazewell (H-7) c1758 was paralyzed in a duel and spent the rest his active life in a wheelchair. John Harman-son, Jr. (J-25:1) began his 1783 will by declaring that he was "dangerously wounded." Some wealthy landowners became horse breeders with their own race tracks.

In closed or isolated societies it is not uncommon for men and women to marry their neighbors who are often their relatives, but among Littleton descendants there seems to be an unusually high rate of cousin marriages, as in a royal family. A random check shows that in one Savage family (F-3) of 8 children (out of 11) who married, five married cousins. In the Winder family a father (M-2) and son (M-11) each married two cousins as first and second wives. In the Purnell family three brothers married cousins (P-2, P-3, P-5) and the son (P-10) of one married a cousin. Of course, after the second or third generation, one usually loses track of remote relatives, but in these families remote relatives often kept in close touch and sought to marry cousins; in any case, consciously or unconsciously, probably 500-600 of the family married cousins of all degrees. One of the Dennis men moved from the Shore to Frederick, Md., before the Civil War reportedly because he wanted to avoid the likelihood of marrying a cousin.

Several had portraits painted by celebrated American artists. Benjamin West (1738-1820) painted a portrait of Severn Eyre (1735-73, H-9). Charles Wilson Peale (1741-1827) painted portraits (now in the Smithsonian Institute) of Gen. John Cropper (1755-1821) and his wife Catherine (1772-1855, J-71). William Robins (1774-1828, J-29:4) was painted by Gilbert Stuart (1755-1828).

It has been observed that in the early Colonial period in Maryland and Virginia many magistrates and other public officials were of noble origin or belonged to English heraldic families, members of an aristocracy that for generations in England had governed and were accepted as governors. When Nathaniel Littleton arrived in Virginia about 1635, he was almost immediately pressed into public service, as if it were his birthright, and he continued to be one of the foremost citizens up to the time of his death. A 1651 English map by Farrer of London, of the English colonies along the Atlantic seaboard, shows on "The Eastern Shore or Accomac" only two names: "land Squire Year[d]ly plants" (son of former Gov. Sir George Yeardley) and "Col. Littleton's Plantation" (a portion printed in Paul Touart, Along the Seaboard Side, p. 11).

FAMILY PROFILE. The profile of Nathaniel Littleton himself and his descendants in the New World closely resembles that of the family he left in England. His father and grandfather Walter were judges; four of his six brothers to grow to manhood were lawyers (three of them also judges); and of course his father's great-grandfather was a famous jurist. Nathaniel's grandfather Littleton was a lawyer turned divine. Nathaniel's eldest brother Edward, a Member of Parliament, Lord Keeper of the Great Seal for King Charles I, and a member of the King's Privy Council, was created a Baron in 1641 (and as Colonel raised troops for the Royalist cause.)

The legal profession and public service have attracted a great many Littleton descendants. A very large number have practiced law, and many have become judges. Nathaniel himself was a justice, and both he and his son Southy were members of the Governor's Council at Jamestown. During the Colonial period descendants were frequently elected to the Md. House of Delegates and to the Virginia House of Burgesses. John Tazewell (H-7) in the 1770's succeeded Geo. Wythe as Clerk of the House of Burgesses. And many played a prominent roll in many other capacities. Down to the present day they have continued to be elected to state legislatures and to the U.S. Congress, both House and Senate. Five (two of them in-laws) have been elected governors: Levin Winder (M-6) was Governor of Maryland (1813-15) when Ft. McHenry was bombarded and Francis Scott Key wrote our national anthem. Littleton Waller Tazewell (H-19), Governor of Virginia 1834-36, faced with an irreconcilable conflict between his moral principles and political reality, resigned. Gen. Francis Tillou Nicholls (whose wife was a Littleton, M-67) was twice elected Governor of Louisiana 1876-1880, 1888-92. Two other Governors of Maryland were John Walter Smith, Jr. (B-191), Governor 1900-4, and Phillips Lee Goldsborough (N-74), Governor 1912-16. But many others have filled other more modest posts, such as: Sheriff, Clerk of the Circuit Court, Register of Wills, District Attorney, Mayor, Commissioner.

The profile of American Littletons also reflects that of the English family in education. Nathaniel's grandfather Littleton and three of his six brothers were university men; his father and three brothers (including one of the university graduates) were all admitted to the Inner Temple (one of England's "law schools"). Nathaniel's granddaughter Esther's (J-1) husband, John Robins, had appropriately been sent to England for his education (in the 1650's). As early as 1702 Nathaniel Littleton 2nd (A-3) in his will desired his wife to keep their son Southy, aged 10 "at Schoole" four years at "the Colledge, or longer if he then desires it." In his 1736 will Thomas Savage requested that his wife Esther (F-1) give son Thomas, aged 8, four years of schooling "here" (in Virginia) and four in Philadelphia. The girls, too, were sent to private academies or seminaries on the Shore or, for instance, in Philadelphia (as often mentioned by Rev. Handy in Handy Annals.) In his 1750 will Littleton Waters (G-5) provided the means for his wife Sarah to educate "my three youngest daughters." Long before most Americans had any thought of college, as early as the mid-18th century Littleton boys were being sent to college. The favorites were William and Mary, Princeton, and Yale. In 1752 Severn Eyre (H-9) was a student at Wm. & Mary. In the 1750's John Tazewell (H-7) was a student at Princeton. Thomas Lyttleton Savage (F-3), a student at William & Mary in 1779, was one of the original signers of the charter of Phi Beta Kappa. And of course many have become teachers (public school, drama, music) and college professors.

Law was only the chief profession entered by the Littletons. Many became clergyman, including two women pastors, and one became a bishop. Many others have gone into medicine, and some have become prominent physicians and surgeons. Doctor Henry Parke Custis Wilson of Baltimore, M.D. 1851 (Q-54) was one of the founders of gynecology. Doctor Richard Bayly Winder, d. 1894 (M-35) was one of the founders of the Baltimore College of Dental Surgery. There are in the family optometrists, clinical psychologists, obstetricians, nurses, dermatologists.

A random selection of the family's other achievements may be worth noting. Naval officer and astronomer James M. Gilliss (L-66) was founder of the Naval Observatory in Washington, D.C. (1844). Three Handy brothers who were journalists merit some notice. Frederick (L-143) was at the bedside of Pres. Garfield when he died 19 Sep 1881 from an assassin's bullet; the literary agency of Egbert (L-145) is credited by novelist Theodore Dreiser with discovering him; Moses (L-144) was publicity director for the 1892 Columbian Exposition in St. Louis, and his son William introduced color comics in newspapers. Another son (L-202) was an Olympic swimming champ, 1904. Inventor Thomas Robins III (J-207) invented the conveyor belt (1890's). On the Eastern Shore Norman T. Whittington (B-262) pioneered in raising broiler chickens and became one of the largest poultry raisers in the country; William F. Allen (B-318) pioneered large scale commercial production of vegetables. Recently one of the family's female members became the first woman trustee of Princeton. For this family with baronial ancestors perhaps the most unusual, and ironic, achievement is that of Thomas Ellis Robins (J-268), who became a British subject and, for his services in Rhodesia, in 1958 was created Baron Robins, totally unaware that his ancestry included many barons.

To observe that the early Littletons were wealthy aristocrats who went into the professions or filled important posts of public service or made some notable achievement is not to minimize the fact that the vast majority of descendants have for three centuries been everyday citizens who have made considerable and essential contributions to the American economy and culture. A random sampling will illustrate. Probably a majority, of course, have been planters and farmers. In the financial field we find bankers, bank tellers, stock brokers, tax collectors, tax assessor, accountants, fund raisers, commodities traders, IRS agents. In real estate we find the real estate agent, land developer, architect, building contractor, carpenter, house painter, interior decorator, and surveyor. Retailers (in former times simply called storekeepers, shopkeepers, or merchants) include the antique dealer, auto dealer, camera dealer, drug store proprietor, florist, furniture dealer, jeweler, pharmacist, seafood dealer. The field of science embraces: archaeologist, bacteriologist, ornithologist, geologist, computer programmer (and also inventor and operator), NASA aero-space technician.

In law enforcement we find jailers, prison guards, sheriffs, police officers and chiefs, detectives, a CIA agent and an FBI agent. In the arts and media we have author, poet, concert pianist & teacher, actor, artist (painter, ceramics, sculptor), TV announcer, vaudeville performer, puppeteer, publisher, editor, correspondent, printer, pressman. In maritime enterprises we find: charter boat service (for tourists), yacht captain, tug boat operator, sailor (seaman, waterman), ship carpenter, ship chandler, naval architect, lobsterman, grower of oysters and soft-shell crabs.

And finally we find a handful of miscellaneous occupations: airline pilot, ambassador, archivist, boxer, cabinet maker, candy maker, canner, casino operator, chef, chopper pilot, consul, consultant, cotton merchant, drag strip owner and operator, electrician, engineer (chemical, civil, electrical, mechanical, nuclear), engraver (bank notes), factory worker, fire fighter, forester, furniture mover, heating and air conditioning contractor, hospice director, greenskeeper, hotel owner and operator, huckster, insurance agent (fire, life, and farm), inventor, librarian, lobbyist, mail carrier, mechanic, mortician, photographer, pipe-fitter, plumber, postmaster, RR man (agent, conductor, engineer, brakeman), tailor, teamster, tobacco roller, truck driver, veterinarian, waiter & waitress, welder, zoo keeper, not to mention a host of prominent and successful business men and women, and serious and dedicated environmentalists working to save our environment.

AMERICAN REVOLUTION. Littleton descendants (besides governors and others in public office) have also played an active role in our history, especially military. Col. Nathaniel Littleton himself in 1639 was appointed commander of "the plantation of Accawmacke," and his son Southy was appointed Capt. of the local militia. Shortly before the outbreak of the American Revolution John Harmanson (J-37) was a Burgess in 1765 when the House of Burgesses assembled in Williamsburg expressed indignation over the Stamp Act (which went into effect 1 Nov), and he no doubt heard Patrick Henry, in his famous impassioned speech, offer his resolutions against taxation without representation, which the Burgesses adopted to send in a petition to Parliament (Turman 125).

On 11 Feb 1766/7. at a session of the Northampton Co. Court, with Justices Littleton Eyre (H-4) presiding, John Bowdoin (J-35), Nathaniel Savage (F-2), and others in attendance, the Court responded to the Stamp Act by adopting a resolution that the Act was not binding on the colony because it was "unconstitutional," and the Court would not prosecute any who did business without using the stamps on legal documents. "This appears to be the only recorded case in American history of a small County Court having presumed to act as a supreme tribunal to declare an Act of Parliament unconstitutional" (Whitelaw 40-41). Later that month the Accomack Co. Court followed suit with a similar resolution offered by Scotsman Edward Ker (J-38), setting forth in more detail the principle of no taxation without representation. Because of mounting complaints from English merchants, Parliament repealed the hated Stamp Act in Mar 1767 (see Turman 125).

John Tazewell (H-7), as Clerk of the "Revolutionary" Convention in Williamsburg, signed the Virginia Resolutions for Independence, 15 May 1776.

In the Revolutionary War itself, William Christian (J-64) served as Lt. in the Virginia Navy. Lt. Col. Levin Handy (his wife Nancy a Littleton, Q-11), Capt. of the 5th Md. Regiment, distinguished himself at the battles of Brandywine (11 Sep '77), Germantown (4 Oct '77), Saratoga (7 Oct '77), received seven wounds at the "Battle of the Barges" 1782. Brig. Gen. John Cropper (his wife Catherine a Littleton, J-71), a friend of Geo. Washington and Lafayette, was wounded at Brandywine, fought at Germantown and Monmouth (1778), was with Washington at Morristown 1779-80, fought in the battle of the Barges. In Feb 1779 he barely saved his home and family in Accomack Co. from a raid by a British landing party, which destroyed furniture and carried off 30 slaves. Others also suffered losses. On 6 Feb 1781 Thomas and Eleanor Sudler (G-12) in Somerset Co. were plundered by the British; in fact, neighbors helped the British carry off silver, brandy, a gun, etc. William Whittington (B-12), a Colonel of militia, had his home in Md. burned by a British raiding party. About 1781/2 the British bodily carried off Southy Littleton Whittington (B-4:1), and he was never heard of again. Capt. George Handy (wife Nelly, L-6), overseas trader and shipbuilder, had four of his ships burned by the British, one practically at his door near Salisbury, Md. He made loans to the Continental Congress, provided ships to the Committee of Safety, imported large supplies of much needed salt, which had to be hidden in various places to protect it from frequent Tory raids.

WAR OF 1812. In the War of 1812 Capt. Arthur Emmerson (H-15), with his vessel, was captured in 1798 by the French, and he was detained in France a year. At the start of the war James H. Handy (L-46) lost a vessel sent to the West Indies, captured by the British. In 1813 the home of John Fassitt (N-13) on Synepuxent Bay was bombarded by a British naval vessel. William M. Robins (J-29:4), a Lt. in the U.S. Navy, fought with distinction in the battle of Lake Champlain 11 Sep 1814, a U.S. victory. Governor Winder's nephew, General William H. Winder (M-12), on 14 Aug 1814 was in command at the Battle of Bladensburg (Md.) against a smaller British force, when he ordered a retreat and allowed the British to enter Washington and burn the capitol and other buildings.

MEXICAN WAR (1846-48). Brothers Walter and George Gilliss saw service (L-28:8 & 9) in Navy and Army, John H. Winder (M-37) in the Army, Edmund Bradford (H-27) in the Army of Occupation. Murray Winder (M-24:2) was killed in battle Sep 1847. After the war Charles N. Handy (L-81) was instrumental in nominating Gen. Zachary Taylor for President, Apr 1848.

CIVIL WAR. In the Civil War too many Littletons were involved, mostly in the Confederacy, to identify adequately. Since many were Southerners, they naturally joined the Confederate service, but even in Maryland, a border state, most served the Confederacy. A very few fought for the Union, among them Col. George R. Dennis (G-55) of Frederick, Md., who served in the Grand Army of the Republic, as did Thomas Long (B-211) of Somerset Co. Gen. George Bayard (M-44:2) fell leading his troops at Fredericksburg Feb '62. Southy Sterling (B-119:3) was killed at Gettysburg July '63. Capt. James Gilliss (L-116) had a horse shot from under him May '63, was taken prisoner Oct '64. Lem Goe (L-122) was a secret service agent. Though Sydney C. Long (Q-53) was not involved in military action, he felt effects of the war. In 1864 Southern supporters in Princess Anne ejected him from his post as Register of Wills.

A variety of experiences met Littleton men who served the Confederacy. Dr. Wickliffe Dashiell (M-80) was a medical director. Dr. Isaac Costen (L-119) of Worcester

Co., Md., was a blockade runner. Moses Handy (L-144) was a courier. General John H. Winder (M-37) became notorious as director of Confederate prisons. Rev. Isaac W.K. Handy (L-80), for indiscreetly expressing his Southern sympathies, was imprisoned at Ft. Delaware in 1863-64. Many others fought; some were wounded, some died. Fred Handy (L-143) served in both Army and Navy. Gen. Arnold Elzey (Q-20:4) of Md. had success at the first Battle of Manassas, but was later seriously wounded, was finally captured at Macon, Ga. 1865. Thomas S. Smith (B-190) and George W. Purnell (P-22), both of Worcester Co., Md., left Princeton University to join the Confederate Army; George was taken prisoner. Van Garrett (M-70), a cadet at V.M.I., fought in the Battle of New Market (now re-enacted each year), May '64. All three sons of Mary Handy McCoy (M-56) of Baltimore served in the Confederate Army. Four sons of Isaac Whittington (B-31: 10) of Ky. fought; one died in action, another in a Union prison. Brig. Genl. Charles Winder (M-24:5) led the assault on, and capture, of Cold Harbor June '62, but was slain in battle Aug '62. William S. Wilson (Q-12:6) died from wounds at Antietam Sep '62. William Wailes (L-53:2) was badly wounded at Chickamauga Sep '63, where Capt. Ason Madeira (M-43I:1) fell. Felix Winder (M-26:7) was killed during the siege of Vicksburg May '64. Francis Nicholls (M-67) lost an arm before Winchester May '63, a foot at the Battle of Chancellorsville May '63 the night "Stonewall" Jackson fell. The battle of Franklin, Tenn. (Dec '64) was fought right in the yard of the McGavock home (M-62), which served as a hospital; Mrs. McGavock and others nursed the wounded.

Major General Littleton W. T. Waller (H-44), called "Father of the Marines," led American Marines into Egypt in 1882 & in 1900 in the Boxer Rebellion in China, where "Willie" Horsey (B-290:6) also served. Two (M-86:2 and L-149) served in the SPANISH AMERICAN WAR (1898): Glen Harcum (M-86:2) was a bugler, and Joseph B.U. Handy (L-149) was Capt. of U.S. Volunteers and fought in the Philippines.

WORLD WAR I. J. Wallis Bishop (O-96) was a pilot in the Canadian Air Force. Margaret N. Robins (J-202:1) was a Red Cross Nurse in the combat area in France. Arthur V. Savage (F-10:3) was killed at Chateau Thierry 18 July 1918. Dale Riggin (B-616) survived the 2nd Battle of the Marne and the Meuse-Argonne campaign Sep-Nov 1918. His brother Ericil (B-617) served in the U.S. Navy Feb 1918-Mar 1919, and Lt. Thomas Robins (J-273a) commanded a squadron of 110-foot sub chasers in the Irish Sea.

WORLD WAR II. Of the many who served their country in this devastating war, Thomas Hickman (N-92), in the U.S. Coast Guard, patrolled Atlantic beaches on horseback. Virginia Hornsby (J-244b:1) served in the W.A.A.C. Dr. William P. Maddox (G-69a) worked with OSS, became chief of the intelligence branch in London 1942-44. Of those who served in the U.S. Navy, Wilson Compton (G-116) was at Pearl Harbor when the Japs attacked 7 Dec 1941. Dabney Tunis (Q-100) was a radio man. Miles Riggin (B-685a) served aboard food supply ship USS Antigua in the Pacific. Elijah Ayres, Jr. (M-133:2) was lost aboard the USS Dorchester, which was torpedoed Feb 1943 in the North Atlantic. Herbert Lentz, Jr. (B-649) served in U.S. Navy aboard the USS Lexington, which was sunk in Battle of the Coral Sea 7 May 1942; later he was on the USS Currituck in the Battle of Leyte (Oct 17 -Dec '44), finally on the flagship in the capture of the Philippines under General MacArthur. Of others who served in the Pacific, Sam Robins (J-333) was a Flight Engineer in B-29's. One nurse was subjected to the Bataan death march; Bill Ruark (G-92) lost an arm in the Philippines, and Dr. John Crawford (G-89), in U.S. Navy Medical Corps, was aboard the St. Louis 1943-5, at Okinawa, Spring '45.

In the European Theater, Howard Handy (L-245) was Flight Engineer and top turret gunner on B-17 bombers, flew 68 combat missions, was wounded in action in '44. The ship of Lawrence Kerns (O-75) was the first to land on the Normandy beaches on "D" Day, 6 June 1944, then made 23 landing trips to the beaches. Lt. Col. Woodrow Wilson (E-37), in the (regular) U.S. Army Infantry, saw action as a company commander in Normandy, the Ardennes, Central Europe. Tom Hickman (N-121) was in the Normandy invasion at Omaha Beach, was involved in the Battle of the Bulge (fall 1944), and six other campaigns. For his action in Battle of the Bulge Jim Gelder (G-126), like many others, was awarded a Purple Heart. After this battle Lynn Pitcher (G-101) was killed in Saarbrücken Feb '45. Arlie Graham (D-47) was part of Gen. Patton's army, crossed the Rhine 27 March, and was among the liberators of Ohrdruf Concentration Camp 6 Apr, shook hands with a Russian soldier near Chemnitz. Col. (later Gen.) John K. Waters (G-107a:1), having served with Patton in North Africa, was captured by Germans Feb 1943, was wounded trying to escape from his prison camp, was among those liberated in April.

Bill Fontaine (G-66) in the U.S. Army Air Force served 2 yrs. in N. Africa, Sicily, Italy. Dr. (Lt. Col.) Edmund Laird was in N. Africa and Italy with the 8th Evacuation Hospital, in which his brother, Rev. William Laird (M-144), served as Chaplain. Lt. Frank Bowman (L-273), in the Army Corps of Engineers, served in the Italian campaign. Capt. Van Perkins Winder (M-93) was at Anzio Beachhead, Spring '45.

Among family members serving in more recent wars, Lt. James Robins (J-328) served in the KOREAN WAR as a platoon leader with the Marines. G.B. Ware (M-137:5) also served in the Marine Corps, as Sgt. Edwin Broyles, Jr. (Q-89:1), an airman in U.S. Navy, was missing in action. In the war in VIETNAM, Francis N. Young (M-138:1) served in U.S. Navy, Lt. Weldon Harcum (M-175:2) in U.S. Army, his brother Bill a helicopter pilot, as was David Craven (M-150:1). Lt. Pierre Hayward (M-151:4) was in U.S. Air Force (intelligence) at Danang. Lt. John Larson, Jr. (O-130) was also in intelligence (U.S. Army). Among those in the PERSIAN GULF WAR was Toby Miller (G-110:2a) aboard the USS La Salle. In operation DESERT STORM Donna Law Allen (B-687:3), a career service woman, served in US Air Force. Two brothers (L-280b) had duty there, Paul (as Sp/4) and David Besendorf (as U.S. Army Engineer). In fact, this family is unusual in that three generations of women have served in the military: Paul's and David's grandmother, Frances Gilliss Turner Parnell (L-225b), in 1954 enlisted in the U.S. Navy Reserves as a nurse. Her daughter, Minnie Turner Besendorf (L-280b), c1960 enlisted in the Women's Army Corps, and her daughter, Mary Besendorf Rosamund, served as a Supply Sgt. in U.S. Army.

FAMILY DISTRIBUTION. The Eastern Shore of Virginia and Maryland is a phenomenon which only natives or those with roots there can fully appreciate. When Nathaniel Littleton arrived about 1635 on the Eastern Shore of Virginia (the lower, narrow tip of the peninsula north of the mouth of Chesapeake Bay, and between the Bay and the Atlantic Ocean), the Virginia peninsula had been settled barely more than a dozen years. Only the year before his arrival, in 1634, Accawmack Co. had been created as one of the original "shires" and covered the whole lower peninsula; in 1642 the name was changed to Northampton Co.; and in 1663 it was divided, the southern part remaining Northampton Co., the northern part Accomack Co. During these early years there was no one but Indians on the Eastern Shore to the north (future Maryland), but in 1632 it was part of a grant made as a proprietary colony to Lord Baltimore, and colonization in what was soon known as Maryland began in 1634. In 1666 the area immediately north of Accomack Co. was set up as Somerset County, bounded on the east by the Atlantic Ocean, west by Chesapeake Bay, north by Delaware, and south by Virginia. In the early 1660's, at the invitation of Lord Baltimore, who offered religious toleration, colonists from Virginia had already begun to settle there in considerable numbers. Somerset County remained intact until in 1742 it was split, and the part on the Atlantic Ocean side was set up as Worcester County. Most of the inhabitants of Somerset Co. originated on the Virginia Eastern Shore to the south.

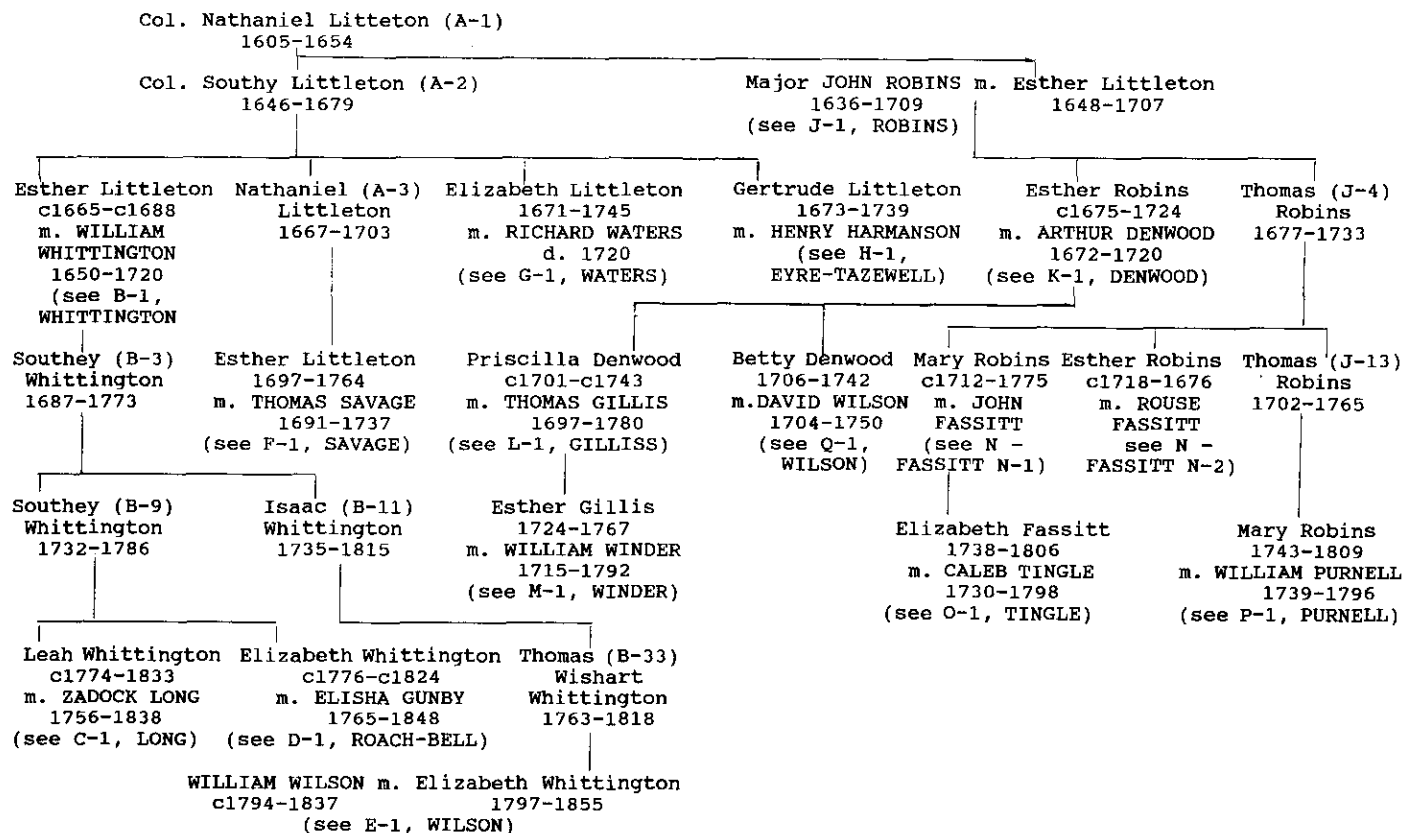

By 1700 three branches of the Littleton family had joined the exodus north into Maryland. (Reference may be made to the chart on the next page, below, which shows the branches of the family that have been set up for this family history.) The first of the family to move north was Col. William WHITTINGTON, whose second wife was Esther Littleton (B-1); by 1684 he had settled on the seaboard, in what was to become Worcester Co. His son Southy (B-3) removed to the Bay side (above modern Crisfield, first known as Somers Cove) in Somerset Co., where a great many of his descendants remain today, but son William (Jr., B-2) and his family alternated between Virginia and Maryland, where their father had settled. Next to move north were Richard and Elizabeth (Littleton) WATERS (G-1), who settled by the 1690's at Fairmount, in Somerset Co., on the Bay side, west of (future) Princess Anne. Arthur DENWOOD was already settled not far from there when he married Esther Robins (K-1) in the 1690's, for he had been born there. Two Denwood daughters were married in Somerset Co. to two other well-established natives: Priscilla (L-1) in 1720 to Thomas GILLISS, Betty (Q-1) in 1724 to David WILSON. The Gilliss daughter Esther (M-1) married William WINDER; the elder branch of the Winders tended to gravitate back to the Virginia Eastern Shore, then moved west to the Williamsburg area and south to Louisiana.

Although most descendants of Major John and Esther

(Littleton) ROBINS (J-1) remained on the Virginia Eastern Shore, where a great many still reside, their son Thomas (J-4), brother of Esther Robins Denwood, by 1728 also moved north and settled in the northeastern corner of Somerset (future Worcester) Co., near the seaboard and the Delaware state line. Two Robins daughters, Mary (N-1) and Esther (N-2), married already established husbands, the brothers John and Rouse FASSITT. The families of their daughters, TINGLES (O-1) and PURNELLS (P-1), also became firmly established Worcester Co. families. The SAVAGE (F-1) and EYRE-TAZEWEELL (H-1) branches, like most of the Robinses, tended to remain on the Virginia Eastern Shore, but many were drawn to the Western Shore, especially the Williamsburg and Norfolk areas. Savages and others in time moved to Philadelphia. (For further details of family migrations, see Introductions to individual branches.) Of the known Littleton descendants, most live on the Eastern seaboard from Maine to Florida, but nearly half are still concentrated in Virginia, Maryland, and Delaware. However, others are also scattered in forty-eight states (all but the Dakotas) and in Canada, England, France, Netherlands, Switzerland, Denmark, and South Africa.

BRANCHES OF THE LITTLETON FAMILY IN AMERICA

A - LITTLETON FAMILY OF VIRGINIA

Few immigrants to the American colonies have left as much of a clue to their European origins as has Colonel Nathaniel Littleton, who came to Virginia about 1635. Evidence for identifying him with the Nathaniel of the family of Littletons in Shropshire, England, is found in the will (28 Oct 1656) of his widow, Ann Littleton. Near the end of her will she declared that "if all my children die without issue, the real estate shall goe to James Littleton, Esq. of Shropshire near Ludlow." Undoubtedly Nathaniel in his (lost) will had made such provision, and had instructed his wife to do likewise. One would wish that she had been more specific, that she had identified James as her brother-in-law, for there can be no doubt that James is Nathaniel's brother in England. (See the LITTLETON FAMILY in APPENDIX, Chart 1.)

James Littleton in his own will, signed 11 April 1657, half a year after the death of Ann Littleton, identified himself as "James Littleton of Aston in the county of Herefordshire, Doctor of the Canon Law." He is clearly the English brother of Nathaniel of the Shropshire family, for he named as an overseer of his will "my good brother Tymothy Littleton Sergeant at Laws," both named in their father's and eldest brother's wills. Though James resided in Herefordshire, Aston is practically on the Shropshire border and only four or five miles from Ludlow. It would not be unnatural for Ann Littleton to think of James as "of Shropshire," for Shropshire had been for a century the center of this Littleton family, and James's and Nathaniel's mother was buried at Ludlow. It would likewise not be unnatural for Ann to refer to James as "Esq.," for in early Colonial times it was a term of highest respect, since there were no titles in the colonies other than those of royal governors and other Crown appointees. A further piece of circumstantial evidence is that the Virginia Nathaniel named his first son Edward after his father and his eldest brother.

At least two notable early Littleton descendants did research on the Littleton family and left records. Governor Littleton Waller Tazewell of Virginia (1774-1860, H-16), grandson of another Littleton Tazewell (c1730-1760), both bearing the family name, was born barely a century after the death (1679) of Col. Southy Littleton, his grandfather's great-grandfather. His unpublished account (1823) of his family back to Nathaniel Littleton, among the Tazewell papers, which was made available by his great-grandson, Calvert W. Tazewell (H-85), combines research with recollections of family traditions.

A fuller, more scholarly account was prepared by Dr. Robert Patterson Robins (1857-1905, J-201), "A Tentative Pedigree of the Littleton Family of Virginia," published in New England Historical and Genealogical Register, XLI (Oct 1887):364-68. In it he refers to a manuscript History of the Littleton Family compiled c1835 by William Littleton Savage (F-7). Dr. Robins traced the Littletons in England back to Sir Thomas Lyttleton (d. 1481), the celebrated jurist, but concentrated on the American Littletons. He made one notable error: he perpetuated the "myth" that Sarah, daughter of Southy Littleton (d. 1679), married John Dennis (see A-4).

The most complete and professional account of the early Littletons in America, with sources cited, is found in Adventurers of Purse and Person, revised and edited by Virginia E. Meyer and John Frederick Dorman, 1987, pages 576-80.

The ancestry of Col. Nathaniel Littleton as son of Sir Edward Littleton of Shropshire and a descendant of King Henry IV of England is found in Weis/Shephard, Ancestral Roots (7th ed., 1993), Line 1A, p. 4 (in the Appendix herein referred to as AR). The lineage of Col. Littleton back through the Gray and Mowbray families to King Henry III and to King Edward I of England is found in The Plantagenet Ancestry of Seventeenth-Century Colonists (1996) by David Faris, pp. 196, 167-69. (For other references, see Appendix.) In 1993 Alf J. Mapp, Jr. (J-355) was inducted into the Order of the Crown of Charlemagne in the United States of America through his descent from Col. Nathaniel Littleton.

Though Littleton descendants are numerous, the name Littleton died out within eighty-five years and four generations after Col. Nathaniel Littleton arrived in Virginia. Except for the seven children of Nathaniel's son Southy (A-2), all the families were small. Of Nathaniel's descendants named Littleton (eight females seven males), five of the males married, but only three produced surviving offspring. The last of the male Littletons (Southy IV, see A-5) died as a child before 1720. All eight women married and six had children.

There are other Littleton families on the Eastern Shore who are not descended from Col. Nathaniel. Two women descended from Nathaniel within the last century happened to marry men with the surname Littleton; consequently there are today a few bearing the family name Littleton who are descended from Nathaniel, but not through the male line. Although "Littleton" appears many times as a given name among Nathaniel's descendants, many families, who have no connection with the Littletons of Virginia, appear to have admired the name so much that they have also used it as a given name for their sons, e.g. Littleton Dryden, Littleton Adams, Littleton Tyler, Littleton Townsend, Littleton Landon, Littleton Trader, Littleton Ward.

A-1 NATHANIEL LITTLETON, son of Sir Edward and Mary (Walter) Littleton of Hensley, Shropshire, England (see CHART 1 in APPENDIX), baptised at Hopton Castle, Shropshire, England, 22 Dec 1605; died Northampton Co., Virginia, ?Oct/Dec 1654; mar. (Northampton Co. before 23 Nov 1640) ANN SOUTHEY, widow of Charles Harmar and daughter of Henry Southey, born probably in Rimpton, Somersetshire, England, c1610; died Northampton Co. by 28 Oct. 1656.

In Ann Southey Harmar, Nathaniel found an heiress for a wife. Ann's father, Henry Southey, a gentleman from Rimpton, in Somersetshire (d. 1624/6) had ambitious plans for colonization, for he and his associates undertook to transport 100 settlers to Virginia, for which prospect he applied Jan 1621/22 for a patent "for a particular Plantacon in Virginia," which the Council of the Va. Company in London promptly granted (Dorman 576). With his wife, six children and ten servants Southey arrived in Virginia in 1622 aboard "the good shipp the Southampton," as a result of which the Council at James City in 1626 confirmed that Southey's "heyre Henry Southey shall have nyne hundred Acres of lande and to be taken in any place not already chosen and taken up" (Whitelaw 77). In the census of 16 Feb 1623/4 the widow Mrs. Elizabeth Southey is shown with a son and daughter. By the time of the muster of 1624/25 Ann's mother had lost all her children except Ann: she and daughter Ann resided in James City in quite reduced circumstances. In 1627 it was ordered that she receive a parcell of land in James City in right of her late son Henry as heir to her husband (Dorman 576). Upon her mother's death Ann became sole heir to her late father's estate.

Between 1625 and 1635 she married Charles Harmar, from Berkshire, England [b. 1600], whose uncle John Harmar and brother Dr. John Harmar were professors of Greek at Oxford Univ. In 1624/25 he was an overseer on the Eastern Shore of Lady Dale's vast estates. His patent on 4 June 1635 for 1050 acres of land on the Bay adjacent Maggoty Bay pond states that he received it for transporting himself, his wife Ann, 19 servants, & 8 Negroes. He died intestate by 1 June 1640, as shown in a North. Co. Court entry of 23 Nov 1640, in a claim of Nathaniel Littleton for 3500 acres of land "due [him]...for his own personal adventures and Anna his wife... moreover, 900 acres more properly were due and in right of an order of the Court dated at James City, 9 Mar 1626/7, whereby the said 900 acres were granted to Mr. Henry Southey, father to Mrs. Anna Littleton ... now due unto the said Nathaniel." A certificate was granted 20 Oct 1643 to Mrs. Anne Littleton (Dorman 577).

In 1644 Elizabeth Harmar, dau. & sole heir of Chas. Harmar, received a patent for 1200 acres, near Lady Dale's cattle plantation, which upon her death s.p. passed to her uncle, Dr. John Harmar, whose son Thomas in May 1654 sold it to Nathaniel Littleton. In 1678 another John Harmar sold his right to the land to Southy Littleton, and all the Harmar land thus became merged with Littleton land (Whitelaw 77). By the time of his death in 1654 Nathaniel owned more than 5700 acres of land, principally at Nandua, in present Accomack Co., and at Maggoty Bay, in present Northampton Co. near Cheriton.

Nathaniel Littleton, as a younger (6th) son, had two traditional options open to him, to enter the Church or join the army. He chose the latter, for at 19 he was in the service of the Earl of Southampton (1573-1624), who had been Shakespeare's celebrated patron in the early 1590's. The Earl and his eldest son had volunteered to fight in the Low Countries for the United Provinces (Netherlands) against Spain, but he had hardly landed when he died of a fever 20 Nov 1624, a few days after his son. As an active member of the Virginia Company the Earl may have had some influence on Nathaniel's decision to go to Virginia.

Nathaniel arrived in Virginia about 1635 and settled at Nandua, on a promontory jutting into Chesapeake Bay east of modern Pungoteague (Accomack Co.). In 1636 he patented this tract, "not for the immediate purpose of developing a normal plantation, but as an advanced post for trading with the Indians" (Whitelaw 675); in her will Ann Littleton bequeathed "Nandue" to son Southy, the patent "being granted in anno one Thousand six hundred thirty and six." Jenkin Price was an Indian trader for Littleton in 1636 (Whitelaw 677, 701). Col. Littleton's interest in and concern for the Indians (the Eastern Shore Indians were peaceable & friendly) is expressed in a Court order of 15 Dec 1640 to the effect that a patent be granted "unto the Indians of Accomack, for 1500 Acres of land...and that a new survey be made at the...discretion of Mr. Yearly and Mr. Littleton," and on 11 Jan 1641/42 another court order forbade anyone to "disturbe or molest the Indians formerly seated att Mattawomes Creeke," for "Nathaniel Littleton Esqr [ & 4 others] have taken an especiall viewe of the place & situacon thereof & doe finde that if the Indians be displaced of the two hundred acres...which...Mr Taylor doth laye clayme to they in noe wise can subsist" (Whitelaw 281).

Nathaniel became one of the outstanding community leaders. At a court at Accawmack 5 Sep 1636 he was nominated for Sheriff. He was chosen a commissioner (justice) for the monthly Accomack Co. Court as of 1 May 1637 and served continuously until at least Sep 1645, but presumably until his death. In Dec 1639 he was appointed Commander of "the plantation of Accawmacke" (i.e. Northampton Co.). He was appointed to the Governor's Executive Council 1642, served until 1652, was chosen a Burgess in 1652. On 25 Mar 1651/2 his name heads the list of those who signed the "Engagement to be true and faithfull to the Commonwealth of England, as it is nowe established without King or House of Lords" (Turman 35, 57; Dorman 578; Ames 1632-40, xxxv, 58, 71-168 passim, Ames 1640-1645 5-454 passim). In 1653 with Argall Yearley he was appointed by the General Assembly one of 5 commissioners of a special court to assure the Dutch settlers that they could qualify as citizens, the English Parliament being at war with the Dutch from May 1652 (Turman 55).

Declaring that he had made his will 12 Aug 1654 (it has never been found), Nathaniel on 4 Sep made a deed of gift of cows, sheep, and a mare to his daughter, Hester Littleton (Turman 56, Dorman 578).

Ann Littleton, "widow, wife & Executrix of ye last will and testament of Collonell Nathaniell Littleton Esq. of ye county of Northampton in Virginia at Accomacke," made her will ---- 1656 (prob. 28 Oct 1656), bequeathed to "younger sonne" Southy Littleton "all my land att Nandue"; also all cattle on the plantation; a trunk marked W.G. containing household linen etc., "as will be found mencioned in an inventory herunto annexed under my owne hand"; a silver tankard & 6 silver spoons with his name on them; all household goods at Nandue; & 7 Negroes; & she requested that he be kept at school until age 15 or 16, & she provided that her executor have use of the negroes until Southy reaches age 18.

To "my beloved daughter Heaster Littleton" she bequeathed 6 Negroes; a trunk marked E.M. containing household & childbed linen (much of it new); 3 feather beds, & other household items (listed in the inventory); a large new trunk marked N.L. containing "my best wearinge apparell"; a trunk marked G.L., containing "my wearinge Lyninge," rings, jewelry, 3 pairs of silk stockings, etc.; also cattle to be added to what her father ("my welbelovd husband") gave her by deed of gift; a silver tankard & 6 silver spoons with her name on them; also "the chamber over my usual Lodginge Room in Magothy Bay att the south end therof for her more proper use, And to have full Egress & Regress without the disbarment of any person...until ye day of her marriage." To preserve her children's goods, all the trunks containing them were to be kept in Hester's room, locked, the key in the custody of one of the trustees.

She made numerous other bequests, including 10 ewes to godson Littleton Scarburgh, to servant Susanna Price a heifer and suit of clothes. She requested that her daughter Heaster be with Mrs. Eyre until 10, then with "my kind neighbor" Mrs. Isabella Douglas until age 14. Southy and Heaster were not to sell any apparel etc. without consent of executor & trustees until Heaster "come to ye age of twenty & one years wch will be in ...1669." She appointed son Edward executor "of... every parte of the remaynder of my Estate. As...all my Land in Magothy Baye," & 10 Negroes, 3 Irish servants, and 1 English servant, & cattle, etc. As trustees & overseers she named her "lovinge friends" Col. Edward Douglas, [non-conformist minister] Francis Doughty, & Francis Pott to "councell my children" (North. Deeds, Wills, etc., No. 7, 1655-57, pp. 22-24).

Children (born Northampton Co., Va.):

1. Edward Littleton, b. c1640; d. North. Co. 30 May /26 June 1663; married 1st (1658) Sarah Douglass (aged 12), who d. in childbirth; 2nd (7 Mar 1660/61) Frances Robins, who mar. 2nd (by 1667) Francis Piggot. In his will Edward named wife Frances, with child, & dau. Grace (Marshall 72; Dorman 578-79).

Child (born Northampton Co., Va.):

- a. Grace Littleton, b. ?1659; died as a child; her uncle Southy Littleton inherited all her father's land that he had inherited from his father.

A-2 2. Southy Littleton, b. 1646; d. 16 Sep / 12 Oct 1679.

J-1 3. Esther (Heaster) Littleton, b. 1648; d. by Dec 1707; mar. Major JOHN ROBINS.

A-2 SOUTHY LITTLETON, second son of Col. NATHANIEL and Anne (Southy) Littleton, born Northampton Co., Va. 1646; d. Albany, N.Y. 16 Sep / 12 Oct 1679; mar. (c1664) Sarah Bowman, daughter of Col. Edmund Bowman of Accomack Co., Va. b. probably in England c1648; d. Northampton Co. c1677/79. In his mother's will (1656) she directed that Southy "bee kept at school until he shall arrive unto ye age of fifteen or sixteen years." On 12 Nov 1677 he deposited that his age was 31 (Dorman 579).

Major Edmund Bowman made a deed of gift to grandson Bowman Littleton 17 Mar 1679/80. In his will, signed 26 Feb 1691/2 (prob. 15 Mar 1691/2), Edmund Bowman of Accomack Co., Va. made bequests to grandson Southy Littleton and granddaughter Gertrude Littleton (Nottingham 16).

Southy Littleton was a very large property owner. On 25 Mar 1656/7 he secured a patent to the 2340 acre tract, "Nandua," bequeathed to him by his mother. On 12 Sep 1664 Southy patented 850 acres in Acco. Co (at Occocomson); he & Sarah sold 450 acres in 1668 (Whitelaw 1328). In 1671 a patent was issued to Southy Littleton & Edmund Bowman for 2264 acres; Bowman assigned his share of the tract to grandson Bowman Littleton, i.e. "Pharsalia," then willed it to Bowman (see Whitelaw 1372). In 1674 a patent for 1500 acres was issued to Southy; in 1678 a new patent for 2800, to include the first one, plus 1300 acres more at modern Keller. In 1679 Southy sold 600 acres (Whitelaw 736-37, 740). On 5 Oct 1674 Captain Southy Littleton secured a patent for 4250 acres in Northampton Co., combining most of his land and land inherited from brother Edward (Whitelaw 79): 1200 acres of Harmar land; 800 acres patented 1644 to Nat. Littleton (no record), which descended to Southy through his brother Edward, plus 2250 acres more. In 1683 his executors were charged with 7314 acres in Accomack Co., as well as land in Somerset Co., Md. (Dorman 579).

Southy was evidently a man of wealth and some learning. An inventory of his estate (10 Jan 1678/80) lists numerous personal items by room: parlor, parlor chamber, hall garret, porch chamber, porch chamber garret, hall, new room, the chamber, little room over kitchen, kitchen, milk house, ten rooms, an unusually large house for the time. The inventory also listed a library of some 17 books, rare for the time, including a book of "ye difference of sacraments," Aesops Fables in Latin, "one Booke of ye Body of ye common Lawe," a short introduction "of ye Gramer," "Sententiae" of Plautus, a history of the New England war, the printed Lawes of Virginia, Lucian, Ursine's Orations, London Dispensatory, the Doctrine of Triangles, "Coker's Copie Booke" ("Library of Col. Southy Littleton," Wm. & Mary Quarterly, VIII (1899-1900):230).

Gov. Littleton Waller Tazewell wrote of his ancestor (1823): "Family tradition has always taught me to consider this gentleman as the most conspicuous and meritorious of his name, who had lived in Virginia; in fact, he was one of the most respected men in the entire Virginia colony." Southy was reportedly early in life a member of the Royal Council. He was evidently a member of the local militia, referred to as Capt. in 1674, Col. in '77. In 1676 Southy was Sheriff of Accomack Co. (Whitelaw 703). In 1677 Littleton was one of the two Burgesses from Accomack Co. conferring over the division line between Accomack & Northampton counties (Whitelaw 3).

In 1677 "Col: Southy Littleton" was appointed by Gov. Berkeley a member of the court-martial, held aboard Capt. John Martin's ship in York River, 11 Jan 1676/7, to try adherents of Nathaniel Bacon after his death in 1676 and the collapse of his widespread rebellion (Whitelaw 677 & Dorman 579); the court condemned 6 to be hanged, an act which so shocked the English govt. that Gov. Berkeley was called home. Col. Littleton had been one of four "Ring-leaders" whom Bacon had demanded his followers on the Shore to deliver up, to be sent to England for trial. And Southy was listed as one of the five "Persons of Particular Eminency" [on the Shore] who were "grate sufferers" during the uprising since during the rebellion Governor Berkeley and his party had to take refuge on The Shore where "The Gentlemen of this Province were very Loyal to his Majestie and Faithfull and constant to the Governour" (Whitelaw 109).

Like his father, Southy was also involved with Indian affairs. In April 1674 Capt. Southy Littleton was one of 4 gentlemen ordered by the General Court to inquire into repeated Indian complaints that their lands were being encroached upon; in Sept. he and the others reported that though the titles of all claimants to the land were dubious, yet since the "Said Indians have alwise been in peace with us, it is necessary that they be Secured in their possessions," and arrangements were made to confirm the Gingsaking Indians in their land, which was done by a 1680 patent (Whitelaw 283; Dorman 579).

In Sept. 1679 Gov. Chichely commissioned Col. Littleton and Col. Wm. Kendall as agents to Albany to confer with Governor Andros of New York on Indian affairs (Dorman 579), particularly to renew and confirm friendship between Virginia and the Five Nations, which "had long caused great interruption of the tranquillity" of Virginia (Tazewell). Before the Indians had arrived, Southy took ill, made his will 16 Sep 1679 at Albany upon Hudson, evidently at the home of Robert Livingston (Secretary of Indian Affairs in N.Y.), who witnessed his will, and he died before 12 Oct 1679, when the will was recorded in New York; it was probated in Accomack Co., Va. 17 Dec 1679, not until 30 Dec 1681 in Northampton Co. The other witnesses were John Willet and Thomas Eares (Eyre), who had accompanied the agents from the Shore.

In his will (16 Sep 1679) Southy Littleton devised to "my eldest son" Nathaniel 4050 acres upon Maggative (i.e. (Maggoty) Bay in Northampton Co., to dau. Esther a neck of land at Gingoteek [Chincoteague] called Kings Neck; to "my youngest son Southy" my 2270 acre plantation at Nandowe [Nandua] in Accomack Co.; land in Somerset Co., Md., to daughter Guatruyd [Gertrude]; the remainder of Kings Neck to daughter Elizabeth Littleton. To his son Bowman Littleton all the rest of "my" land at Gingoteek in Somerset Co. To daughter Sarah Littleton he devised 600 acres at Pokamoak [Pocomoke], all remaining lands to "my four daughters, remaining personal estate to "my sevn children," sons to be of age at 18, daughters at 16. "My" daughter Esther was to be kept at my sister Robins', my dau. Sarah at Mrs. Bridgett Foxcroft's, my dau. Elizabeth at Mrs. Ann Jenifer's, my dau. Geartryd at (Major) Bowman's, my son Bowman at Mr. Richard Baylies, and Southy to be kept 4 years at his nurse Nicholas Tyler's wife, friends [Rev.] Mr. Thomas Teackle, clerke, (Col.) William Kendall, (Maj.) Edmond Bowman, (Capt.) John Robins, (Capt.) Daniel Jenifer, and Mr. Richard Baly to oversee "my" will. (North. Co. Wills, Deeds, etc. XIV No. 11 [1680-1692], p. 42; in Marshall p. 117; Accomack Wills & Deeds 1676-1690, pp. 171-174).

In his will, dated 2 May 1696, Bowman Littleton of Accomack Co., devised to "cousin" (i.e. nephew) William Whittington all Bowman's land in King's Neck, 50 acres; to "cousin" [not nephew] Edward Robins, son of Major John Robins, land on the east side of Poplar Branch; to brother Nathaniel Littleton and to brother-in-law Richard Waters "my" neck of land, "Farsalia," during their natural lives and the lives of their wives, then the land to return to the male heir of brother Nathaniel, with reversion to the male heir of brother Southy Littleton. He also named sisters [Sarah] Custis, [Gertrude] Harmanson, "cousin" [nephew] Southy Whittington. Nathaniel Littleton & Richard Waters were named executors. Witnesses were: John Purnell, John Jones, John Roussalle (Nottingham 20).

A-5 7. Southy Littleton, (II), b. c1677; d. c1703.

A-3 NATHANIEL LITTLETON, (II), son of Southy (A-2) and Sarah (Bowman) Littleton, b. Northampton or Accomack Co., Va. c1667; d. probably on his Maggoty Bay plantation, Northampton Co. 25 Jan / 1 Mar 1702/3; mar. (c1691) Susanna Andrews, dau. of Major William & Dorothy (Robins) Andrews, b. c1670; d. North. Co. by 20 Mar 1710/11. She mar. 2nd Stephen Maxfield; the inventory for Maxfield's estate was filed 13 May 1711 by Southy Littleton. In 1760 Nathaniel's daughter, Esther Savage, reported that her father died in 1702.

Nathaniel inherited from his father 4050 acres at Maggoty Bay in 1679. He served for a time as Sheriff of North. Co. & as an officer in the Eastern Shore Militia. In 1699 he and his brother-in-law John Custis III were the two Burgesses from Northampton Co.; after fire had destroyed the statehouse at Jamestown in 1698, the 1699 "session of the General Assembly enacted legislation to move the capital from Jamestown to Middle Plantation" and proceeded to plan Williamsburg, to which the government was transferred in 1700 (Turnan 91).

On 30 May 1692 "Capt." Nathaniel Littleton was security for the executor of the estate of Dorman Loughland; on 1 Nov 1694 "Capt." Littleton witnessed the will of Benoni Ward; on 28 Oct 1696 as "friend" he was named executor by Thos. Elligood. On 26 Mar 1696 he witnessed the will of Thos. Harmanson, Sr. On 28 Jan 1696/7 Capt. Nathaniel Littleton, Sheriff, and greatest creditor was appointed administrator of the estate of Thomas Clay. On 12 Aug 1700 Lt. Col. Nathaniel Littleton was named an executor of the will of Wm. Baker; on 12 Jan 1698/99 he witnessed the will of Thos. Norly. In the will of Major John Robins, 5 Dec 1707, he was named a legatee (as brother of "my kinsman" Bowman Littleton decd); Robins was evidently unaware that Nathaniel had also died, five yrs. earlier. All these actions occurred in Northampton Co. (Marshall 145, 149, 155, 158, 166, 169, 173, 185).

In his will, signed 25 Jan 1702/3 (prob. 1 Mar 1702/ 1703), Nathaniel bequeathed to son Southy mulatto man Jack, cattle, "my best Pistolls, my silver headed Cane & Rapier," bed & bedding, kitchen utensils, etc., the animals to be put on the plantation where Jas. Wilson lives. He desired his wife to keep son "at Schoole" 4 yrs. at "the Colledge, or longer if he then desires it: For which consideration...wife shall have his man Jack and all the rents of his Land during the time of his being there," upon his return his part of his estate to be turned over to him. To daughter Sarah Custis Littleton (when 18) he left 150 acres on Pitts Creek in Accomack Co., occupied by Wm. Merrill; if she d.s.p. to go to dau. Esther; Sarah also received cattle & a silver tankard. To daughter Esther (under 18) he left cash, cattle, silver.

To his wife he bequeathed a Negro man Sandy, all the remainder of animals on "my dwelling plantation," all remaining personal estate equally divided among wife & daughters. To his wife for life he left his plantation, at the mouth of Old Plantation [Creek] & at the mouth of Maggetty Bay Pond. If she should marry or disregard his requests, she should have instead "all my settled plantations on the Sea Side." If son disturbs wife by law etc., he would receive nothing by this will. To his wife for life he also left "my Land at Gingoteague," the land which his brother Bowman bought of Lawrence Crawford at Pocomoke in Somerset Co. to be sold to pay debt to John Harrison. He confirmed sale of land to Edmund Beebee. He appointed wife executrix, & if she dies, son Southy, then daughters to be executors. He requested friends Col. John Custis [his brother-in-law], Major Wm. Waters, Southy Littleton [his brother], and Robert Andrews to oversee his will. Witnesses: Leverett and John Clay, Mary Baker, and Daniel Neech (North. Wills 14:130-33).

Susanna [Andrews Littleton] Maxfield signed her will 22 Dec 1710 (prob. 20 Mar 1710/11), naming son Southy Littleton (executor) to share estate with her daughters Sarah Custis Littleton & Esther Littleton, Esther to be with "my friend" Ann Eyre until 18, "my friends" Wm. Waters & Robert Andrews to oversee. Witnesses: Ann Eyre, Eliz. Costin (Marshall 194). Children were born probably at Magoty Bay, near modern Cheriton.

Children (born Northampton Co., Va.):

1. Southy Littleton, (III), b. c1692; died North. Co. by 17 Feb 1712/13; mar. (c1712) Mary Eyre; no children. She mar. 2nd Edward Mifflin. In his will, signed 31 Dec 1712, Southy devised to "my loving wife" Mary his 4050 acres on "Magete" Bay in North. Co, also land & plantation at "Fursalia" (Pharsalia). To his two sisters (under 18) Sarah Custis Littleton & Ester Littleton and "my cozen" Leah Littleton he left his plantation at "Andua" to be equally divided. He also named mother-in-law Ann Eyre, and (half-)brother Joseph Maxfield, requested wife to pay 1000 pounds of tobacco towards building a meeting house (Marshall 201).
2. Sarah Custis Littleton, b. c1695; died Apr/Dec 1720; mar. ---- KING; no children. With her sister Esther she was bequeathed land in the will of their aunt, Sarah Littleton Custis (14 Apr 1720). In her Jan 1760 testimony concerning this land, Esther declared that she had been heir-at-law since 1720.
3. Esther Littleton, b. 1697; d. by 11 Nov 1764; mar. THOMAS SAVAGE. See F-1.

A-4 SARAH LITTLETON, daughter of Southy (A-2) and Sarah (Bowman) Littleton, b. ?Northampton or Accomack Co., Va. c1669; d. North. Co. 18 Apr 1720; bur. beside 2nd husband, at Taylor's Wharf, west of Machipongo, Va.; mar. 1st ADAM MICHAEL (d. 1689); 2nd [c1690] JOHN CUSTIS III (d. North. Co. 27 Jan 1713/14); no children. Col. Custis was one of the Council of Virginia, Commander-in-Chief of the Eastern Shore Militia (all on tombstone).

It was this Sarah who came to be traditionally but erroneously claimed by the Dennis family as their ancestress, wife of John Dennis, son of Donnach Dennis, but relationships clearly set forth in her will totally invalidate such a claim.

At the time of her death she owned, & bequeathed, 18 slaves. In her lengthy and detailed will, dated 14 Apr 1720 (prob. 17 May 1720), Sarah mentioned both husbands, made bequests of silver, negroes to Col. Custis's children and grandchildren. She then proceeded to name every possible legal Littleton heir: sister Elizabeth Waters (six chairs from New England), and her dau. Elizabeth Waters; sister Gertrude Harmanson (2 negroes) and kinswoman [niece] Sophia Harmanson (a negro girl); Littleton & Severn Eyre (sons of Severn [i.e. her grandnephews]) - 2 mulatto girls when Severn is 18; Leah Littleton (heir of Southy Littleton [i.e. niece] - 600 acres in Accomack Co. at Pocomoke, land originally given to Sarah by her father [Col.] Littleton, "taken up" by her former husband Adam Michael, who gave it to Sarah, and she & husband Custis then gave it by deed of gift to her bro. Southy).

In her will she also named two kinsmen [nephews] William and Southy Whittington; William Waters [nephew]; kinswoman [niece] Sarah Custis King (3 negroes and silver); kinswoman [niece] Esther Littleton (3 negroes & silver), in consideration of her having made over her right to a tract of land at Andua [Nandua] Creek in Accomack Co. lately possessed by "my late brother Southy Littleton," to my kinswoman [niece] Leah Littleton (Leah also to receive 2 mulattoes, 1 negro, silver). Sarah also left to Sarah Custis King & Esther Littleton "all my costs" in a suit in North. Co.: Sarah Custis King & Esther Littleton vs. Edward Mifflin. She made other misc. bequests, named as residuary legatees her sister "Garthrud" Harmanson, Sarah Custis King, Esther & Leah Littleton, Garthrud Harmanson to be executrix, but if she should die, then three kinswomen above to serve. Witnesses were Geo. Harmanson, William Tazewell, Andrew Ross, Sarah Michael, John Atkinson, Sorrowful Margaret Kendall, Eliz. Church, Wm. Waters, Eliz. Benthall, & others (North Deeds, Wills etc. XXIII-R, 81-84, from Marshall 231-32).

A-5 SOUTHY LITTLETON, (II), youngest child of Southy (A-2) and Sarah (Bowman) Littleton, born Northampton or Accomack Co., Va. 1677; d. probably at Nandua, Accomack Co. c1703; mar. Mary, dau. of Thomas & Susanna (Denwood) Brown of North. Co., who d. before Aug 1725. She married 2nd Hancock Custis, step-son of her late husband's sister Sarah Littleton Custis. In his will, signed 30 Aug 1725, with several codicils (prob. 7 May 1728) Hancock Custis of Accomack Co. named his daughter-in-law [step-daughter] Leah and her husband, Levin Gale, residuary legatees and guardians of his sons, among them Southy Custis (Nottingham 70-71).

By his father's directions Southy Littleton was "to be kept four years with his nurse, Nicholas Tyler's wife." He was then to be under the guidance of his father's "Hon'd and loving friends, [the Rev.] Thomas Teackle, clerk, Col. Wm. Kendall, Major Edmund Bowman, Capt. John Robins and Capt. Daniel Jenifer," who were overseers of his father's will and who were "entreated to look after the education" of his younger children.

By his father's will (1679) Southy was bequeathed the 2270 A. plantation at Nandua in Accomack Co. In 1700 his sister Sarah and her husband John Custis deeded to Southy a 600 acre tract just south of the Md. line, near modern Horntown. Southy left no will. He was living 25 Jan 1702/3 when he was named in his brother Nathaniel's will. His niece Esther Littleton Savage, in her 29 Jan 1760 testimony, declared that Southy d. about 1702. (Sources: R.P. Robins, Whitelaw 1311, Dorman 580).

Children (born ?Accomack Co., Va.):

1. Southy Littleton, (IV), born c1700; d.s.p. by 1720, the last male Littleton of this family.
2. Leah Littleton, b. c1702; mar. Levin Gale.

A-6 LEAH LITTLETON, daughter of Southy (A-5) and Mary (Brown) Littleton, born probably Accomack Co., Va. c1702; d. probably before 1742; mar. (c1720) LEVIN GALE of Somerset Co., who d. Som. Co. by 24 Apr 1744. In 1726 Levin & Leah Gals sold the 600 acre tract inherited from her father (Whitelaw 1311). In his will, dated 16 Feb 1742/4, Levin Gale named daughter Leah executrix with his 3 brothers (Som. Wills EB9:245). (Two other daughters Betty & Sarah & grandson George are based on hearsay.)

Child (born Somerset Co., Md.):

1. Leah Gale, b. c1721; mar. LEVIN GALE.

Child (born ?Somerset Co., Md.):

- a. George Gale, b. [c1740]; living 1793, reportedly died in Baltimore, Md.

B - THE WHITTINGTON FAMILY

Col. William Whittington (B-1), a leader in Northampton Co., Va., removed about 1684, presumably with his wife Esther, north into Somerset (after 1742 Worcester) Co., Md., taking up land along the seaboard, evidently east of present-day Snow Hill, but also extending north even into Delaware. William's elder son William's small family of descendants generally remained in Worcester Co., some to the present day. The second son Southey (B-3) removed in 1736 over to the Bay side, where he took up land at Annessex, near present-day Marion Station and Crisfield. Members of the family in the present century still hold some of that land in the Marion area. Some of the family began to migrate to Kentucky in the 1780's and 1790's.

This account of the Whittington family is based initially on the ground-breaking survey of the Whittingtons by Lt. Col. Woodrow T. Wilson in Thirty-Four Families of Old Somerset County, Maryland (1974), pp. 130-145. This valuable account has been supplemented from public records and a wealth of information from numerous family members.

An especially significant early primary source for the Whittington genealogy of the first generations, which is largely contemporaneous with those early events, is provided in an article by Mrs. M. C. Darnell of Frankfort, Ky., "William Whittington's Book," Register of the Kentucky Historical Society, Oct. 1949 issue, pp. 314-324. Mrs. Darnell's husband was a descendant of William Whittington (1759-1824), who c1790 migrated from Maryland and settled in Woodford Co., Ky. In "an old leather bound book, which is still treasured by his descendants," William recorded "from time to time various accounts and events of interest, and after his death these records were continued by members of his family." An asterisk and brackets indicate such additions. Excerpts from the years 1799-1801, 1812-13, 1817 are cited by Mrs. Darnell.

But most important is a chart of the first six generations of the family (the first five here), developed after William had made a return visit to his old home. He wrote, "Being with my wife in Somerset County on the Eastern Shore of Maryland in the Winter & Spring of... 1806, a curiosity, which I had a long time, prompted me to enquire into the Ancestry and present State of our family as springing from Old Col. William, which I found to be as herein arranged" (the chart followed.) William Whittington of Kentucky (B-31) identified himself as son of Isaac (B-11), who was still living in 1806 when William came east for his visit. William would have had extraordinarily invaluable access to his Whittington roots, for his father, Isaac, was a grandson of Col. William Whittington (1650-1720, B-1) and his wife, ESTHER LITTLETON, and son of the Southey Whittington (d. 1773, B-3) who was bequeathed cattle by his Uncle BOWMAN LITTLETON in 1696. The most remote Whittington family members living on the Eastern Shore in 1806 were second cousins to William (or their offspring), and there was a host of first cousins, as well as two of his younger brothers and two sisters and an uncle, William Whittington.

Since William of Kentucky had an ample opportunity in some four to six months to quiz relatives about the family, he can be considered an authoritative witness, and his testimony must be considered highly reliable. Nearly every piece of available evidence confirms the names and relationships on his chart; few if any contradictions have been found. Family details, therefore, for which no alternative evidence has yet been uncovered, may reasonably be considered accurate. He provided some names not found anywhere else.

He did not list family members in order of birth, and he provided few dates beyond his own and his children's; family members added some later. Indeed, absence of dates is a chief weakness. He supplied correct dates for his great-grandfather, Col. William Whittington (1650-1720), but the birth date of his grandfather Southey (1694) is certainly several years too late. And his sister Hannah was not born as early as 1756, for she was still living in 1850, when she gave her age as 80 (not 94). References to this primary source will be to "WILLIAM OF KENTUCKY." His identification of family members will be noted as they apply to the various individuals.

For recent family members the obituaries collected by Lt. Col. Woodrow Wilson from the Crisfield Times have been very helpful.

Two other very valuable sources have been Loula Allen Lentz, Our Heritage: A Genealogical History of the Allen Family, 1960 (see B-37) and Rev. Isaac W.K. Handy, Annals... of the Handy Family, 1992 (see B-36). Two further useful sources have been notes on the Ward family compiled by Major Carl Ward (B-202), and Albert Mack Sterling, Sterling Genealogy, New York: Grafton Press, 1919, which, however, contains some notable flaws. Dr. Robert S. Wilson contributed significant Bible records and extensive family material.

B-1 WILLIAM WHITTINGTON, son of Capt. William and Elizabeth (Weston) Whittington, b. Northampton Co., Va. 1650; d. Somerset Co., Md. between 1 Mar. 1719/20 and 11 Apr 1720; mar. 2nd (c1680) ESTHER LITTLETON, daughter of COL. SOUTHEY LITTLETON (A-2), and granddaughter of COL. NATHANIEL LITTLETON (A-1), b. Northampton Co., Va. c1665; d. presumably Somerset Co. c1687/8. That Esther and William were married by July 1683 is evidenced by a petition to the "worshipful justices" of Accomack (Acco. Records 6:345), "recorded at the request of Capt. William Whittington," on 16 July 1683, requesting that Col. Will Kendall, Coll. Dan'l Jenifer, and Maj. Edmund Bowman deliver his wife's part of her father's estate. Esther's father in his 1679 will had declared that his daughter be of age at 16, which she had arrived at two years previous.

William's age is proved by the following record: his father in his 1659 will declared that his son William should be of age at 18; on 29 June 1668 "whereas William Whittington being of age according to his father's will to receive his portion did declare in open Court that he accepts of Capt. Will. Spencer who married the Executrix and relict of Capt. Will. Whittington for the payment of it and discharges the Court thereof" (North. Co. Court 10:57). He reportedly attained the remarkable height of 7 feet, but there is a tradition that at birth he was so tiny that his nurse put him into a two-quart measure and closed the lid, as reported by his great-grandson, William Whittington of Kentucky.

Col. Whittington was married four other times. His first wife was Tabitha Scarborough, daughter of John and Tabitha (Scarburgh) Smart, and granddaughter of Col. Edmund Scarborough (1617-1671), b. c1656; d. c1679; they had a son, Smart Whittington, who d. as a child, and a dau., Tabitha Scarborough Whittington, who mar. Edmund Custis. He mar. 3rd (c1688/89) Attalanta, daughter of Mistress Ann Toft (probably the wealthiest woman on the Shore), step-daughter of Col. Daniel Jenifer, and widow of John Osborne (d. 1687); they had a dau., Attalanta Whittington, who mar. Stevens White (1679-1718). He mar. 4th (by 1703) Hannah, dau. of Samuel Hopkins, who in his 1703 will named dau. Hannah Whittington and son-in-law William Whittington; she was presumably mother of Hannah Whittington, who mar. Edmund Hough. William married 5th (by 5 Mar 1712/13) Elizabeth, widow of Wm. Rickards (Ricketts), who d. 1712. She d. in Somerset Co. 14 Jan 1734/35; no children. She married 2nd Rev. Samuel Davis, pastor of Snow Hill Presby. Congregation. Whittington signed an agreement with Elizabeth to convey to her her personal estate worth £247 and 3 slaves from his own estate. All five marriages are reported by William of Kentucky (see Torrence 337-362, 379-381).

He was a man of preeminence in both Virginia and Maryland, by 1703 referred to as "Esq.," by 1710 "Hon." He became a planter and merchant, extensively engaged in shipping tobacco to England, New England, and the West Indies. He owned the ship Hannah, which was captured by the French, 1703. Despite all his other activities, he was by profession a surveyor.

Col. William Whittington was a leader in Northampton Co., Va. He was Capt. of Horse in the Militia, 1680. He took the oath of office as a Burgess 11 June 1680, and he was in the Va. Militia May 1681/82, and Major 14 Mar 1695/96 (after he had moved to Md.) (Acco. Co. Records 11:210 etc.; Journal of the House of Burgesses, 10:120-122, 129-164).

He removed to Somerset Co., Md. by Sep 1684, when he is described as "of Somerset County, Merchant" (Torrence 379), but he remained a tithable in Virginia until 1687. He settled near the seaboard in present Worcester Co., Md., at Indian Town (Polk 235).

In Maryland he continued to be a leader. By a survey of the Maryland-Virginia line much Littleton-Whittington land was included in Maryland territory. As early as 1688 Col. (then Capt.) Whittington was active in the land affairs of Somerset County. In a report which he made in 1697 concerning the northern boundary of Maryland, a dispute about the Penn.-Md. line in which he represented Maryland, he stated that in 1688 he was Surveyor for Somerset Co. (Md. Arch. 23:167).

From 1688 to his death in 1720 Col. Whittington held nearly every important public office, with one early break. In 1689, at the time of the "Glorious Revolution," when William and Mary ascended the throne, he was violently opposed to a Revolution of Protestant Associators in the Colony, refused to serve under the new Royal Govt., was removed from office, but in 1694/5 was returned to appointive office by Gov. Nicholson. In the meantime, in 1691/2 he was made Lord Baltimore's Collector of the tobacco export tax in Som. Co. His removal as Sheriff in no way dimmed his popularity. He was elected to represent Som. Co. in the Lower House of the Md. Assembly 1692-3, 1694-5 (resigned to become Sheriff of Som. Co.), 1699, 1701-4; Upper House 1709-11, 1712-14, 1715, 1716-1717 (wrote a letter stating his inability to be present at that session). He was again Sheriff of Som. Co. 1695-98, 1704-6; Justice, Som. Co. 1694/5-1701, Chief Justice 1699-1701. In 1694-5 he was Treasurer of the Eastern Shore; 1701-4, Justice of the Provincial Court. On 26 Oct 1709 before the Gov. and Council in Assembly at Annapolis the Hon. Col. Wm. Whittington produced her Majesty's [Queen Anne's] letter directing that he should be sworn of her Council, which was done, and he took his place as a member of the twelve-man Governor's Council, served until 1717 (when he requested to be excused from attendance). He was at various times Capt., Major, Col. of local militia, in 1711-12 he was Commander-in-Chief of Somerset Co.

In 1694 when the Md. Burgesses were asked to contribute toward the establishment of a free school, (then) Major Whittington subscribed 1000 pounds of tobacco. In his will he bequeathed 400 acres for the care of the poor children in Som. & North. Counties. (Sources: Md. Archives 23:272; 25:319; 29:21,92; 223:244; Lentz 34-35; Papenfuse, Biographical Dictionary of the Maryland Legislature, 885-86).

In 1697 Whittington faced trouble again. Geo. Layfield & Thos. Dixon of Som. Co. complained to the Governor & Council against him, requesting his removal because of "misfeasance" in office (details not in Council records). The Grand Jury of Som. Co. came to his defense; he was finally vindicated & continued as Sheriff until July 1698. In 1699 it was said that he was always accounted a Jacobite (Lentz 34-35).

Col. Whittington acquired thousands of acres of land in Somerset Co., in what is now Worcester Co., Md., and Sussex Co., Del., mostly on the seaboard side. He had inherited over 3,000 acres in North. Co., Va., most of which he sold in the 1670's, 1680's. On 20 Jan 1687/8 he bought some 1200 acres "Choice" from Atlanta, widow of Captain John Osbourn, his future wife. On 1 May 1688 he patented 438 acres "Fair Meadow" and 400 acres "Spring Bank." On 26 July 1690 he bought "Cedar Neck" and "Diggs Point," and on 18 Nov. 1713 he had a resurvey for 760 acres, "Cedar Neck" and "Fenwicks Choice." In 1694 he bought 400 acres "Sandy Wharf." On 10 Oct 1702 he patented 1000 acres in Bogotenorton Hundred, "Baltimore's Gift" ("My Lords Gift"). On 5 May 1703, he acquired 325 acres at Nassawango Creek. On 18 Jan 1711 he patented 1000 acres "Ackequesanne," called "Indian Town," assigned it to the Indian Queen Wilcomconico, who repatented it in 1714; on 29 Feb 1711 patented 1300 acres "Assateague Beach"; on 8 Sep 1714 patented 456 acres, "Jericho," assigned to Wm. Whittington, Jr. On 25 Apr 1718 he patented 760 acres "Aquango" (Dryden Worc Land Rec. 113,215,608,101,178, 542,517,25-26,330,3). In 1705 he bought "Pemberton," paid tax on it to 1720 (Dryden Wico.Land 317). He was the first to acquire a grant on Assateague Island, eventually owned most of it; about 1715 he divided his holdings, most of present Natl. Seashore Park, into blocks of 110-500 acres, with names assigned to each tract (Truitt 30, 62-3, 77). Altogether he patented or bought nearly 8,000 acres, sold about 3000.

In his lengthy will, signed 28 Feb 1719/20 (prob. 11 Apr 1720) William Whittington, Esq., of Coventry Parish, Somerset Co., settled obligations by bequeathing part of "Cedar Neck" and "Middle More" [190 acres patented 1713], requesting that "Woodman's Folly," 150 acres at the head of Cedar Creek (patented 1713) be sold to pay debts. To Samuel and Nathaniel Hopkins, John Purnell, he left 400 acres in Cedar Neck, also "Sandy Wharf" in trust for the education of 6 poor children of Somerset Co. in perpetuity. To kinsmen Edmond and Whittington, sons of Richard Bayley of Accomack Co. by his wife Ursula he left "New Haven" at Roklawankin.

To his two sons William and Southey and heirs he left land and beach, 1000 acres "Baltimore's Gift," and 1300 acres more, taken up with Charles Carroll at Cape Henlopen, at the mouth of Delaware Bay, sons to pay to the justices of Northampton Co., Va., £12.10 to be distributed among the poor. To his son Southy and heirs he devised his dwelling plantation, 1200 acres "Choice," with 325 acres "Refuge" adjacent.

To his daughter Esther and heirs he left land and houses in Askimine Compson ["Ackequesanne"], Indian Town, "where my Quarter now is," patent to be issued in her name, his "dear & loving wife" to have use of the plantation during widowhood. To daughter Hannah he bequeathed 400 acres "Somerfield" (patent 1 Apr 1688), recently in the tenure of Thomas Waite; also "Upper Pines" (400 acres).

To his two sons and daughters aforesaid and heirs. equally, he bequeathed 6000 acres "Baltimore's Gift" at the beach, and 1300 acres adjacent, also all residue of his personal estate, including money in hand and that due him in England and elsewhere. Should either daughter die without issue, the survivor was to inherit her share. After his wife had received certain personal property, the residue was to go to daughters Esther and Hannah, they to pay to the justices of Somerset Co. £12.10 to be distributed among the poor of Pocomoke, Mattapony, Bogetenorton, and Baltimore Hundreds. The property (negroes, cattle, etc.) possessed by his wife was to be enjoyed by her & her heirs. He made many other bequests of household goods to his children, e.g. beds, pewter plates, silver spoons, etc., and other bequests to other friends and associates.

Near the end of his will Col. Whittington stated that a certain instrument in writing said to have been signed and sealed by him at marriage with his late dec'd wife, "Ester," and in possession of one of his sons, obligated him to performance of sundry matters; should either son insist or make claim to any other portion of estate, real or personal, said son was to be excluded from any benefit of the estate and portions bequeathed to him to be possessed by daughters Esther and Hannah and heirs. He bequeathed to his grandson, William, son of his son William, a negro girl, but in a codicil revoked it.

He appointed as executors his daughters Esther and Hannah, & as overseers to assist them, his brother-in-law Samuel Hopkins & friends John Caldwell and Francis Allen. Witnesses: John Morrogh, Peter Robinson, Samll. Derrickson, Littleton Bowin. In a codicil 13 Mar 1719/20 he added as executors sons William and Southy (Md. State Archives, Prerogative Court [Wills] 16:105-115).

His widow, Elizabeth Davis, of Somerset Co., left a will, signed 22 Nov 1734 (prob. 14 Jan 1734/35), naming William Whittington, Junr., Southy Whittington, Easther Whittington, and Betty Whittington, the sons and daughters of William Whittington, Senr., also Mary Whittington (no father mentioned), Isaac Morris (executor), Easther Morris, Hannah Hough, Edmond Hough, Mary Woodcraft, Bridget Gray, Dennis Hopkins (Md. State Archives, Wills 21:268).

Of the following three children, evidence clearly indicates that the sons are by his second wife, Esther Littleton, and daughter Esther was almost certainly hers also. It is uncertain who was the mother of Betty and Mary, not even named in their father's will.

Children (two youngest born Somerset Co., Md.):

- B-2
1. William Whittington, Jr., born probably in Northampton Co., Va. c1681; died by 25 Mar 1740.
  2. Esther Whittington, b. c1784; d. by Nov 1743; mar. 1st WILLIAM SKIRVEN, who d. Somerset Co. Md. 1720/21; 2nd ISAAC MORRIS, who d. Worcester Co., Md. 1772. Wm. Skirven in his will (13 Jan 1720/21; 21 Feb 1720/21) mentioned dec'd wife Margaret & four of his children by her. He named wife Esther executrix, named son William under 12 (Somerset Wills EB9:33). Isaac Morris and wife Esther in 1727 and 1728 joined her brothers and sisters in selling "Cedar Neck," "Diggs Point," "Assateague Beach," inherited from her father. In 1739 they re-patented "Acquango." On 6 Nov 1743 Isaac sold land alone. In his will, dated 7 Oct 1771 (prob. 2 Nov 1772) he named no children or wife, made bequests mostly to Houghs (Worc. Wills JW4:48).
Child (born ?Somerset Co., Md.):
a. William Skirven, b. c1711; ?d.s.p.
  3. Southey Whittington, born c1687; d. by 17 Mar 1773.

B-2 WILLIAM WHITTINGTON, JR., son of Col. William Whittington (B-1) and his 2nd wife, Esther LITTLETON, b. probably Northampton Co., Va., 1681; died Accomack Co., Va. by 25 Mar 1740/41; mar. (probably Accomack Co.

c1714) Elizabeth (Betty) Taylor, daughter of Elias and Comfort (Anderson) Taylor (Whitelaw 1246-7), b. c1696; d. Accomack Co. by 30 Nov 1762.

In the will of Elias Taylor, Accomack Co., dated 19 Apr 1717 (prob. 4 June 1717) he named daughter Elizabeth Whittington and son-in-law William Whittington (Nottingham 43). Elizabeth's mother Comfort Anderson was sister-in-law of the Rev. Francis Makemie (1658-1708), chief founder of Presbyterianism in America, and a granddaughter of John Wise (1617-1695), founder of the Virginia Wise family, and a great-granddaughter of Col. Edmund Scarborough (1584-1635/6). In 1733 William and wife Elizabeth participated in a division of land she had inherited from her grandfather Anderson (Whitelaw 1247).

William Whittington, Jr., was a planter. Before 1709 he removed to Somerset Co. (in what is now Worcester Co.), where he was elected a Delegate to the Lower House of the Md. Assembly 1712-14, 1716-18, 1722-24, and he was Justice for Som. Co. 1713-1725 (Papenfuss, Bio. Dictionary of the Md. Legislature, 886; this is in error in reporting his death as occurring in 1756). He appears as head of a household in the Somerset Co. Rent Rolls in Bogerternorton Hundred (in present-day Worcester Co.) in 1723 with 6 slaves, 1724 (5 slaves), 1727 (10), 1730 (5), 1731 (6). He was head of household in 1733 with 8 slaves and holding 1350 acres of land; his two eldest sons first appear with him, William, Jr., & Southey. He was again enumerated in 1734 (7), 1735 (6), but in 1735/36 he had apparently moved permanently back to Accomack Co., where he acquired 400 acres of land.

In his 1696 will William's uncle BOWMAN LITTLETON bequeathed to his "cousin" William Whittington 50 acres of his plantation "Pharsalia" at King's Neck, in Acco. Co. near the Maryland line, near modern Greenbackville (Whitelaw 1372). On 2 Aug 1709 William Whittington, Jr., of Somerset Co., "Gent.," sold for £20 the 50 acres in King's Neck "given to the said William Whittington by his 'uncle' Bowman Littleton 'as by his Last will and Testament bearing date May ye 2d: 1696' (Acco. Wills &c. 1692-1715, Part 2:416.)

From his father in 1720 William inherited 286 acres southwest of modern Keller in Acco. Co., which he and wife Elizabeth sold in 1735 (Whitelaw 743). In 1722 he had a survey of "Choice" at Nassawango Creek, 325 acres inherited from his father, "now known" as "Refuge" (Dryden Worc. Land 517). On 14 Mar 1722/3 William and Elizabeth Whittington sold the 900 acres, "Pemberton," in Wicomico Hundred (outside present-day Salisbury) inherited from his father, and the buyer in 1726 sold it to Isaac Handy; "Pemberton" became the Handy home plantation. At the same time they sold 300 acres "Whittingtons Chance," also in Wicomico Hundred (Dryden Wico. Land 317, 434). On 25 June 1728 with his brother and sister William sold "Assateague Beach" in Som. (present Worc.) Co. inherited from their father. In 1725 William patented 581 acres "Spring Garden" in Coulbourn's District, Somerset (now Worc.) Co., Md., which he and wife Elizabeth sold 19 Apr 1740. In 1726 he took out a new patent for 46 acres "Summerfields" inherited from his father, which he and wife Elizabeth sold 29 July 1728. On 23 June 1713 he bought part of "Durham House," and on 17 Aug 1726 he bought more of it; in 1735 and 1737 with wife Elizabeth he sold parts of 900 acres of it (Dryden Worc. Land 517, 34, 608-9, 618, 199). In 1720 William owned more slaves than any other slaveholder in Som. Co., 18 slaves working on his 5000 acre plantations in Bogerternorton and Baltimore Hundreds (Barry Neville & Edward Jones, "Slavery in Worcester County, Md. 1688-1766," Maryland Historical Society Magazine, 89 [Fall 1994]:320).

William died intestate in Accomack Co., Virginia, his estate administered 25 Mar 1740/41 by his widow Elizabeth, James Wishart (her brother-in-law) a security (Nottingham 86).

William's widow Elizabeth Whittington of Accomack Co., in her will, dated 25 Apr 1756 (prob. 30 Nov. 1762) left to grandson William Whittington, son of William (who must have recently died), half of her third of her deceased husband's estate, all the remainder to the children of "my son" Joshua Whittington, i.e. William, Esther and Elizabeth. She appointed son Joshua her executor. Witnesses were her nieces Elizabeth and Jacaman Wishart (who was Mrs. Mulligan by 1762). At probate Joshua relinquished his right as executor and William Whittington [her grandson] qualified as executor (Nottingham 164).

Although Elizabeth did not name son Southey, he was clearly William's eldest son, for he automatically inherited his father's land. All five children are listed as offspring of William and Elizabeth (Taylor) Whittington in the record of William of Kentucky (p. 320), who also reported William's birth year as 1681.

Children (born probably Somerset Co., Md.):

- B-4 1. Southy Littleton Whittington, b. c1715; d. by 27 Feb 1790.
- B-5 2. William W. Whittington, (Jr.), born c1717; d. before 25 Apr 1756.
- 3. Esther Whittington, b. c1719; mar. ---GIBBONS.
- B-6 4. Joshua Whittington, b. c1721/2; d. by 29 Aug 1766.
- 5. Betty Whittington, b. c1724; mar. ---DRAPER (or [JAMES] ARDIS?).

B-3 SOUTHEY WHITTINGTON, son of Col. William Whittington (B-1) and his 2nd wife, ESTHER LITTLETON, b. probably Somerset Co., Md. c1687; d. Somerset Co., probably at Annessex, by 17 Mar 1773; mar. (c1718) Mary Fassitt, daughter of Capt. William Fassitt, born c1701; d. after Feb 1770. (Their marriage is in the record of their great-grandson, William Whittington of Ky.; there is no evidence of a first wife named Frances Fassitt.) Two of Mary's brothers John and Rouse Fassitt married her husband's second cousins, Mary and Esther Robins (see N-1 & N-2).

Capt. William Fassitt of Worcester Co., Md., in his will, dated 23 Jan 1734/35 (prob. 30 May 1735) left "Goshen" to his daughter Mary Fassitt, alias Whittington, to go at her decease to her son, Littleton Whittington (Md. Wills 21:385). Capt. Fassitt's widow Mary Fassitt in her will, dated 30 June 1743 (prob. 23 May 1744) named daughter Mary Whittington (Worc. Wills JW2:11-12); an account of her estate (Md. Accts 22:31) shows a legacy to Mary Whittington & payment to Southey Whittington for his wife, a representative of the decd.

In 1696 Southey Whittington, identified as "cousin," received a legacy from his uncle, Bowman Littleton, "two ewes, three heifers & the cattle & sheep to run in my neck of land." Bowman had also made a bequest, of land, to Southy's brother, William, also identified as "cousin"; when William sold the land he stated that it was a legacy from his uncle, Bowman Littleton. Like his father, Southey was a surveyor and planter, in 1720 reportedly Surveyor for Somerset Co. In 1722 he did a resurvey of "Fathers Gift" for Wm. Eskridge. In 1725 Southy Whittington, "surveyor," laid out "Harris Adventure" for John Harris (Dryden, Som. Land 138, 157, 29). In 1733 he was overseer of roads for Somerset County.

Southy Whittington was a large landowner in Somerset Co. and in what is now Worcester Co. Merely a partial list of transactions follows. In 1720 he inherited extensive tracts from his father in present Worcester Co. On 25 June 1725 Southy with brother William and the other heirs sold "Assateague Beach," 1300 acres, left them by their father (Dryden, Worc. Land Records 26). On 19 Mar 1727 Southy, with other of his father's heirs, sold 265 acres "Cedar Neck" (Dryden Worc. 101). On 6 June 1737 Southy and wife Mary sold 300 acres, part of "Atkinsons Choice," on 6 Nov 1737 400 acres more (Dryden Worc. Land 29). On 21 Oct 1737 Southy patented 150 acres "Chance" on the south side of Indian River, which he and wife Mary sold 22 June 1739 (Dryden Worc. 104). In 1722 Southy had a resurvey of land left by his father, 1950 acres "Choice," part of which he and other heirs sold 13 June 1735. With wife Mary on 16 Dec 1735 he sold 200 acres to Whittington Johnson; in June 1737 Southy and Mary made separate sales of 400, 300, 450, and 210 acres more; on 6 June 1745 they sold 220 acres and 17 Aug 1746, 83 acres more (Dryden Worc. Land 113).

On 6 Mar 1744/5 Southy Whittington with wife Mary (of Som. Co.) quitclaimed to [her brother] Rouse Fassitt all her rights in 250 acres "Goshen" bequeathed to Mary by her father, after her death to pass to her son Littleton, but if he died, then to Rouse (Dryden Worc. Land 269).

In the 1723 Somerset Co. Rent Rolls Southy appears as holding "Snow Hill Landing," 2 A. in Mattaponi Hundred, in present Worcester Co., on the north side of the Pocomoke River, and "Hope Still," 220 acres, in Annessex Hundred, on the Little Annessex River (both patented 1722), the latter his earliest land purchased at Annessex on the Bayside, where descendants still reside, near modern Marion Station. Rent Rolls show Southy enumerated in 1723-1724 with 4 slaves, 1725 (5 slaves), 1727 (3), 1730 (2), 1731 (3), 1733 with 2726 acres of land and 4 slaves, and 1734 (4). In 1735 (3 slaves) listed with him is son William.

He moved over to Annessex in 1736, when his name first appears there in the Rent Rolls, with 1 slave. He is listed in Annessex in 1738 (4 slaves), 1739 & 1740 (5), and in 1744-1757 always with 6 slaves. In 1748 he is 6 doors from son-in-law Aaron Starling. With Southy in 1749 first appears Southy Jr. (a son would first turn up in tax lists when he turned 16). Son William appears with Southy Sr. in 1756. In 1753, 8 doors from Southy is listed Thos. Tull "in Condoekway."

In 1722 Southy patented "Goshen," 340 A. in present Lawson's Dist., and he continued to acquire more land there: by purchase in 1725, "Littleworth" and in 1737, 200 acres "Canaan"; in 1741 by patent 50 acres "Chance" nearby, of which on 25 Mar 1757 he and wife Mary sold 4 A. In 1752 he bought 273 acres "Recovery" (Dryden Som. Land 183, 260, 68, 76, 349). On 2 June 1763 Southy Whittington, Gent., conveyed to William Whittington, for £10 and love and affection parcels of land taken out of two tracts, "Recovery" and "Chance," 374 acres, and on the same date Southy, Sr., conveyed to Southy, Jr., tracts "Canaan" and "Goshen," parts of "Recovery" and "Chance" lying in Annessex, 280 acres (Som. Deeds 24:170,178). On 14 Apr 1763 he made a deed of gift of "Puzzle," 170 acres, to son William (Dryden Som Land 348) and a similar deed of gift to his son Stevenson.

In his will, signed 20 Feb 1770 (prob. 17 Mar 1773) Southy Whittington made bequests to sons Southy (executor) lands already in his possession, Stevenson, William, and Isaac ("Addition," marsh "Recovery," and all the remainder of a tract "Chance" not already given to sons Southy and William), and he also made bequests to wife Mary and to granddaughter Mary Cox. To a friend George Hayward of Worc. Co. he left "Choice" on the side of Nassawango Creek in Worc. Co. at Indian Town. Witnesses were Elijah Coulbourn, Jeffrey Long, & Samuel Long (Som. Wills EB4:171-72).

All twelve children (below) appear in the family record of William of Ky. (though Priscilla, Tabitha, and Sarah were later additions by other family members); these children are, after all, William's father and uncles and aunts.

Children (born Somerset Co., Md.):

1. William "Fitz" Whittington, born c1719; died 1735/36. He appeared in his father's household in 1735 but not thereafter.
2. Mary Whittington, b. c1722; mar. [WILLIAM] BRINKLEY. In 1783 a Wm. Brinkley paid tax on 33 acres "Bewdly," Nanticoke Hundred.
- B-7 3. Esther Whittington, b. c1725; d. c1757; mar. Aaron Starling (Starling).
4. Littleton Whittington, b. c1727; living Jan. 1734/5; d.s.p. before Mar 1744/45.
- B-8 5. Hannah Whittington, b. c1729; d. 14 Sep / 11 Oct 1799; married 1st John Cox; 2nd Joseph Starling.
6. ?Priscilla Whittington, b. c1731.
- B-9 7. Southy Whittington the Younger, b. c1732/3; d. by 29 Dec 1786.
- B-10 8. Stevenson Whittington, b. c1733/4.
- B-11 9. Isaac Whittington, b. c1735; d. by 27 June 1815.
10. ?Tabitha Whittington, b. c1738.
- B-12 11. William Whittington, b. c1740; d. by 11 May 1819.
- B-13 12. Sarah Whittington, b. c1743; d. after 1804; mar. Benjamin Polk.

B-4 SOUTHY LITTLETON WHITTINGTON, eldest son of William (B-2) and Elizabeth (Taylor) Whittington, b. presumably Somerset Co., Md. c1715; d. Accomack Co., Va. 3 Aug. 1789 / 27 Feb. 1790; mar. (c1754) his first cousin, Anne Wishart, daughter of James and Hannah (Taylor) Wishart. James Wishart's wife Hannah was a daughter of Elias Taylor; she was thus Southy's aunt (Whitelaw 1138,1245).

In his early life Southy apparently lived in Somerset Co., for it must be this Southy listed in the Somerset Co. Rent Rolls in Pocomoke Hundred in 1736 (with 4 slaves), the year his uncle Southy Whittington first appears in Annessex Hundred. In 1738 he was still there (with 4 slaves). Although Southy's mother, Elizabeth Whittington, in her will (1756; 1762) made no mention of a son Southy, the Anderson-Taylor land that she and her husband had secured by a division in 1733 descended to Southy, who bequeathed it in his will; the present village of Atlantic is located on it (Whitelaw 1247). Southy's full name is found in the will of his nephew, William Whittington (B-15).

In his will, dated 3 Aug 1789 (prob. 27 Feb 1790) Southy Whittington of Accomack Co. named wife Ann, son George (under 26), "my" three children, George, Gert-rude, and Arthur Whittington, daughter Elizabeth Nicholson & her daughters Ann and Arcadia Nicholson, also named daughter Hannah Blake (Nottingham 297).

William Whittington of Ky. recorded the marriage of Southy to Ann Wishart, listed all their children except son William; he recorded Southy's son Southy as Littleton, Betsy's husband as John Nichols.

Children (born probably Accomack Co., Virginia):

1. Southy Littleton Whittington, born c1755; d. c1782. It must be he, "now in Virginia," to whom William Whittington (B-15) in 1768 devised "Baltimore's Gift." It was probably this Southy referred to in a deed of 10 Nov 1798 who was carried off to the British, last heard of in 1782, presumed dead. According to Wm. of Ky. he "died abroad without issue."
- B-14 2. Elizabeth Whittington, b. c1757; d. 20 July/ 9 Sep 1823; mar. John Nicholson.
3. Hannah Whittington, b. c1757; married GEORGE ABBOTT; no children (report by Wm. of Ky.).
4. William Whittington, b. c1759; ?d.s.p. 1799/ 1800. Though not named in the will of his presumed father, William must have been the eldest surviving son, for in 1799 Wm. Whittington of Worcester Co., Md., gave a quitclaim deed to George Whittington for whatever interest he might have in the land in Va. which had belonged to his father, Southy L. Whittington (Whitelaw 1247).
5. Arthur Whittington, b. c1763; mar. Rebecca--- Between 1793 and 1796 he and wife Rebecca sold off in small parcels all the Virginia lands inherited from his father (Whitelaw 1247): in 1799 to brother William his right to "Baltimore's Gift," "Sandy Wharf" and "Sikes Island" in Worc. Co. (Dryden, Worc. Land 34, 542, 565).
6. George Whittington, b. c1766. He was involved in land sales 1789, 1790, 1792, 1798 ("Baltimore's Gift" & "Sandy Wharf" & "Sikes Island" (Dryden, Worc. Land 35,542,565). Wm. of Ky. reported that George was unmarried in 1806.
7. Gertrude Whittington, b. c1768.

B-5 WILLIAM W. WHITTINGTON, second son of William (B-2) and Elizabeth (Taylor) Whittington, b. presumably Somerset Co., Md. c1717; d. (intestate) Accomack Co., Va. shortly before 25 Apr 1756 (when his mother made her will); married (about ?10/15 Mar 1741/42) Elizabeth ("Betty") Martin, dau. of Robert & Mary (Downes) Martin, b. c1721; d. Worc. Co. by 8 Mar 1779 (Worc. Wills JW4: 417); she is identified as wife of William Whittington in a deed by their grandson William Whittington in 1794 (Dryden Worc. Land 534), and also in the record of Wm. Whittington of Ky. On 26 May 1756 William's estate was admitted to probate in Accomack Co., Southy Simpson administrator (Nottingham 130). His widow Betty mar. 2nd (before May 1768) Capt. Benton Harris (died Worc. Co. 1777), who served as Worc. Co. Deputy Commissary. William is identified as William W. in the will of his son William.

William was bequeathed personalty in the will of his grandfather, William Whittington, 28 Feb 1719/20, but his name was later removed in a codicil.

On 10 Mar. 1741/42 William Whittington, Jr., son of William, sold Lot #4 in Snow Hill to Edmund Hough [his uncle-by-marriage]. And on 15 Mar 1741/42 William Whittington with wife Elizabeth sold 180 acres of "Durham House," inherited from his father, to be called "Convenience" (Dryden Worc Land 580,199). On 15 Feb 1745/6 William Whittington, Jr., was named residuary legatee of plantation "Double Purchase" (on the Indian River) in the will of Hampton Hopkins, in which William's uncle Isaac Morris (identified as a Quaker) was named trustee & served as witness (Worc. Wills JW2:32). On 26 Aug 1748 William and wife Elizabeth, "now of Acco. Co." sold the 100 acres of "Repentance" to John Webb of Pocomoke (Dryden Worc. Land 517).

William's widow Betty Harris made her will by word of mouth 2 Sep 1778 (probated 9 Mar 1779) naming only Nancy Martin, witnesses Wm. Handy, Mary Wise, & Polly Martin (Worc. Wills JW4:417).

Child (probably Worcester Co., Md.):

- B-15 1. William Whittington, b. c1742/3; d. by 13 Dec 1769.

B-6 JOSHUA WHITTINGTON, third son of William (B-2) and Elizabeth (Taylor) Whittington, b. probably Somerset Co., Md. c1721; died Nanticoke Hundred, Som. Co. before 29 Aug 1766 (intestate); mar. (c1753) Elizabeth Marshall Nairne, daughter of Robert and Janet (Watts)

Nairne, b. c1732; d. Som. Co. 29 Sep /15 Dec 1788. She mar. 2nd (?1766) Huett Nutter, who d. in Somerset Co., Md. by 29 Sep 1788 (date of his wife's will). On 29 Aug 1766 Huett Nutter and Elizabeth his wife filed an account on the estate of Joshua Whittington.

Huett Nutter was an attorney. On 22 June 1764 he sold a negro to Esther Whittington (Som. Deeds 28:26). In his will, dated 5 Jan 1788, Nutter named wife Elizabeth executrix, named his daughter-in-law (i.e. step-daughter) Mary Whittington, god-son Huett Langsdale. Witnesses: Jas. & Jesse Weatherly (Som. Wills EB17:28).

In the will of her father, Robert Nairne, dated 21 Jan 1761, Elizabeth Marshall Whittington was bequeathed a debt of £20 she owed her father, plus £50 to her and husband Joshua Whittington (Md. Wills 32:13). Her brother John Nairne (Nearn) in his will, dated 21 Mar 1771 (prob. 11 Dec. 1771), devised "Cedar Hall" to nephew Southy Whittington, unless cousin (i.e. nephew) William, son of Joshua Whittington, should purchase it, & he named nieces Esther, Betty, and Molly, daughters of Joshua Whittington (Worc. Wills JW4:64-66). As a consequence of this will a three-way agreement was made in 1771 (Dryden Worc. Land 100-1) involving Janet (Nairne) Pitts, Littleton Dennis, John Nairne, Esther Whittington wife of Southy, and Elizabeth Nutter "now wife of Huett Nutter," concerning "Cedar Hall" land devised to their mother Janet Nairne by Drake Drummond. William Whittington of Ky. reports Joshua's marriage to Betty Nairne.

When his father moved to Accomack Co. in 1735/36 Joshua apparently remained in Somerset Co., for in the Som. Co. 1738/39 Rent Rolls he was in Manokin Hundred in the household of Joseph Holt, in 1744 & 1746 the HH of Capt. John Williams, Pocomoke Hundred. He lived for a time in Dorchester Co., working as a shipwright (Som. Deeds 22:303). On 8 Apr 1753 Joshua of Dorchester Co. bought from David & Jane Kirkpatrick 200 acres "Givans Security," in present Wicomico Co.; in 1783 his son William paid tax on it (Dryden Wico. Land 168). In 1753-59 he was head of his own household in Nanticoke Hundred, Somerset Co., with 4 slaves. On 12 Nov 1759 he witnessed the will of Robert Farrington.

Elizabeth Whittington in her will, dated 29 Sep 1788, named daughter Mary Whittington, executrix, with John Nelson, also named daughter Esther Langsdale, but not daughter Betty nor son William. Witnesses were John and James Weatherly, William Davis. Her will was probated 15 Dec 1788, the same date as her late husband's (Worc. Wills JW4:29). William of Ky. merely lists the daughters Esther, Betty, Mary, but without husbands.

Children (born probably Worcester Co., Md.):

- B-16 1. William Whittington, b. c1754; d. ?by Sep 1788?
- B-17 2. Esther Whittington, b. c1756; d. by 22 Dec 1807; mar. John Langsdale.
- 3. Betty Whittington, b. c1760.
- B-18 4. Mary Whittington, b. c1764; d. 18 Aug 1800; mar. William Bowland.

B-7 ESTHER WHITTINGTON, daughter of Southy (B-3) and Mary (Fassitt) Whittington, born Somerset Co., Md., probably in Pocomoke Hundred, c1725; died probably at Annessex, Som. Co. c1757; mar. (c1742) AARON STERLING (STARLING), son of John & Mary (Martin) Sterling, born Som. Co. 1716; died probably at Annessex 15 Mar / 15 Sep 1795. Aaron mar. 2nd (c1759) Alice--; 3rd Mary---. Aaron was reportedly 29 on 28 Oct 1745. Aaron's brother Joseph married Esther's sister Hannah.

Esther's nephew William Whittington of Ky. in his outline of the family identified her husband only as "A. Sterling." But Aaron had a son Littleton, evidently named for Esther's brother Littleton, who had died at an early age, and named Southy Whittington trustee for land left to son Littleton Sterling.

Aaron's father, John Sterling (1676-1741), in 1708 bought from John Cullen "Haphazard," 70 acres, in a neck of land between the Great Annessex River and Pocomoke Bay (Sound). In his will he bequeathed "Haphazard" to son Aaron (named executor), to son Joseph (under 21) "Cherry Hinton," 150 acres, & "Frustration," 40 acres (Sterling 13; Som. Wills EB9:221).

Aaron on 22 Mar 1743/44 bought from brother Joseph Sterling the land Joseph had inherited from their father near modern Crisfield, "Frustration" & "Cherry Hinton" (Dryden Som. Land 171), the latter near Watkins Point, with a house, on the south side of Annessex R. Aaron patented three other tracts: 20 Apr 1748 "Industry," 5 acres; 29 Sep 1749 "Choice," 20 acres, & 9 Sep 1761 "Sterling's Good Luck," 58 3/4 acres (Sterling 15). In the 1748 Som. Co. Rent Rolls Aaron was enumerated (with 1 slave) 6 doors from his father-in-law, Southy Whittington.

On 31 Aug 1762 Aaron Sterling, planter, made a deed of trust with Southy Whittington the Younger [brother-in-law] for 5 shillings, tracts "Haphazard" (6 acres), "Barnett," "Sterling's Good Luck," and "First Oration" (i.e. "Frustration"), for the use of Littleton Sterling, son of Aaron, after Aaron's death (Som. Deeds 24:135).

In the 1783 tax list Aaron Sterling, in Little Annessex Hundred, paid on "Haphazard" (70 A), "Industry" (5 A), "Sterlings Chance," (20 A), "Comicle Joke" (26 A), "Cabin Swamp" (10 A), "Exchange," (72 1/5 A), "Good Luck" (50 A), "Barnet" (30 A), "Troublesome" (50 A), "Marsh" (14 A), "Priviledge" (2 1/2 A), "Oak Hammock" (100 A), "Stansby Abbey" (40 A), a total of 490 acres, in what is now Lawsonia, adjacent to Crisfield.

In his will, dated 15 Mar 1795 (prob 15 Sep 1795), Aaron Sterling confirmed tracts he set up in trust for son Littleton by deed of 31 Aug 1762 "between me and Southy Whittington," held by Southy in trust, also gave Littleton a negro and £500. To son Aaron he left "Haphazard," "Sterlings Choice," "Johnson's Lott," "Comical Joke," "Barnet," tracts bought of Wm. Wheatley, a 5 A. tract near "Haphazard," 2 3/4 acre tract "Priviledge" bought of Richard Barnes. He also named wife Mary, left 5 shillings each to son Josiah, daughters Elizabeth Sterling, Nancy Miles, Hannah Ward, son-in-law Solomon Long (Som. Wills EB17:424-427).

Though in his will Aaron's name is spelled "Sterling," in his children's baptismal records in Coventry Episc. Church it is "Starling." By his wife Alice he was father of Nancy, b. 18 Aug 1760; Sarah, b. 14 Feb 1764; Josiah, b. 10 May 1764; and Elizabeth, b. 4 Jan 1765. The other children of Aaron baptised at Coventry were all children of "Easter" (Esther).

Children (born Little Annessex, Somerset Co., Md.):

- B-19 1. Hannah Starling, born c1743; living 18 Oct 1799; mar. (Coventry 7 Nov 1761) Thomas Ward.
- 2. Littleton Starling, b. c1745; d.s.p. He may have been an invalid; his next surviving brother, Aaron, Jr., inherited the land their father had set up in a trust.
- 3. John Starling, b. 5 Mar 1747; d. young.
- 4. Mary Starling, b. 7 Apr 1749; ?mar. Solomon Long (c1744-1798); it is impossible to determine which of Solomon's children were by each of his several wives.
- B-20 5. Aaron Starling, b. 10 Jan 1751/2; d. by 25 Aug 1835.

B-8 HANNAH WHITTINGTON, daughter of Southy (B-3) and Mary (Fassitt) Whittington, born Somerset Co., Md. c1729; died Worcester Co., Md. 14 Sep / 11 Oct 1799; married 1st (Coventry Anglican Church, Som. Co. 9 May 1748) JOHN COX, who died c1753/54; 2nd (c1755) JOSEPH STARLING (STERLING), son of John & Mary (Martin) Starling, born Som. Co. 1722; d. Worc. Co. 8 Feb / 24 Mar 1769. Joseph was 21 when he made a deposition in Somerset Co. 13 Jan 1743/44. Joseph's elder brother Aaron married Hannah's elder sister Esther Whittington.

Not yet 21 on 28 May 1741 when his father wrote his will, Joseph Starling was bequeathed "Frustration" and "Cherry Hinton" (Som. Wills EB9:221) near present-day Crisfield. On 18 Aug 1742 Mary Sterling, "daughter of Francis Martin, deceased," gave to her son Joseph Sterling the 40 acres, "Frustration" [near Watkins Point], which he sold 22 Mar 1743/44 to brother Aaron. In 1753 Joseph patented "Comicle Joke" (in Asbury Dist., near Crisfield) (Dryden Som. Land 82,171,91). On 12 Jan 1758 Joseph Sterling, cabinet maker, purchased from Britain Powell 266 acres "Cowley & Desire" in Pitts Creek Hundred (Dryden Worc. Land 148). The Starlings (Sterlings) evidently lived on the Pocomoke River below New Town (present-day Pocomoke City). In 1783 Hannah Starling paid tax on "Cowley."

Though Hannah's father, Southy Whittington, did not name her in his will of 20 Feb 1770, he did make a bequest to granddaughter Mary Cox, and in the account by her nephew, William of Ky. (B-37) recorded (p. 321) the name of Hannah's husband J. Sterling. A later addition to that record shows her first husband, John Cox.

Joseph Starling of Worcester Co., M., in his will, dated 8 Feb 1769, named wife Hannah and friend James Burnitt executors, made bequests to eldest son Southy, "all that part of my Land from the County Road the upper end joyning with Philip Adams"; to son John Sterling "my Plantation and all that part of my Land from the County Road next to the river." He also bequeathed 5 Negroes, 2 to my "well beloved wife Hannah," 1 to dau. Martha Sterling, 1 to dau. Hannah, 1 to son Joseph, and 1 to daughter-in-law [i.e. step-daughter] Sarah Cocks on condition that she make up to her sister Mary Cocks and brother William Cocks "what this Negro Girl shall be appraised at over and above her portion." Witnesses were Solomon Webb, George Melvin, Charles Wharton. After the will was proved widow Hannah "came...and relinquished the Several Bequests and Devises made to her in the foregoing Will and Electeth in lieu thereof to have the thirds of the said Deceaseds Estate Real and personal as by Law allowed" (Md. Wills 37:104-106).

On 17 June 1771 "whereas it appears by affidavits that the title of the slaves which Joseph Starling dyed possessed of belonging unto the children of John Cox; except the 1/3 part thereof...the commissary has taken the 2/3 of sd slaves out of Joseph Starling's estate and it is now agreed that...as a consideration of the natural affection which we...do bear our mother do give unto her for life" three negroes, "at her death to dispose of by her to her children as she sees fit," signed William Cox, James Jones, Mary Cox (Worc. Deeds O:252).

Hannah Starling, in her will, dated 14 Sep 1799, made bequests to son Southy Starling and youngest son Joseph Starling, to daughter Hannah Evans, but named no Coxes (there are other instances in which a widow did not name in her will her children by a first marriage). Witnesses were James Dickerson, Major and Mary Jones, Levi Pilchard (Worc. Wills JBR1:26).

B-9 SOUTHY WHITTINGTON the YOUNGER, of "Cedar Hall," son of Southy (B-3) and Mary (Fassitt) Whittington, b. Somerset (later Worcester) Co., Md., probably in Pocomoke Hundred, 1732/3; d. Worc. Co., Md., probably at "Cedar Hall," by 29 Dec 1786; married (c1755) Esther Nairne, daughter of Robert and Janet (Watts) Nairne, b. Worc. Co. c1734; d. probably at "Cedar Hall" by 2 Feb 1806. The marriage was reported by Southy's nephew, Wm. Whittington of Ky., in his account of the family. Esther's sister Elizabeth mar. Joshua Whittington (B-6), her husband's first cousin.

Esther's father, Robert Nairne, in his will, dated 21 Jan 1761, bequeathed to daughter Esther Whittington £40 (Worc. Wills JW3:88-9). Esther's brother John Nairne in his will, dated 21 Mar 1771 (probated 11 Dec 1771), made a bequest of "Cedar Hall" to "my cousin" (i.e. nephew) Southy Whittington, son of Southy, Sr., unless "cousin" William Whittington, son of Joshua, should purchase it. He named "my sister" Esther, wife of said Southy, Sr., cousin [niece] Esther, sister of William Whittington, also Betty Whittington and Molly Whittington, daughters of Joshua. "Cousin" John Marshall (named executor) was to have all the lands that descended "to me as heir to my mother." He also named Robert Marshall son of Esme, and his brother William Allen Marshall, friend Littleton Dennis & his children, and others (Worc. Wills JW4:64-66).

On 23 Dec 1772 Southy Whittington, of Som. Co., for £408 purchased from his cousin, William Whittington of Som. Co. (B-16), the latter's interest in "Cedar Hall" (Worc. Deeds I:222). "Cedar Hall" is 6 miles below Snow Hill on the east side of the Pocomoke River.

Southy Whittington served in the American Revolution (listed in the Directory of the Md. State D.A.R. as ancestor of D.A.R. member Ruth Conner Edwards).

In his will, dated 15 June 1785, Southy Whittington of Worc. Co. bequeathed to wife Esther the plantation "where I now live called Cedar Hall," 250 acres, during widowhood; to son John Nairne Whittington, after wife's widowhood, the plantation "Cedar Hall," and personalty; to son Southy, land and marsh in Somerset County, personalty, slaves, brandy, stills, etc. To his daughters Jeannet, Esther, Elizabeth, Leah, and Katherine Whittington he bequeathed as much as his married daughters, Mary Marshall and Sarah Gillett. He stated furthermore that if "any of my children should claim my estate by virtue of John Nairne's will," then son Southy was to pay them and he was to have what "I have left them." Son Southy was named executor. Witnesses were Henry Dennis, Samuel Handy, John Teackle, David Long (Worc. Wills JW13:107).

Southy's widow, Esther Whittington, in her will, dated 10 Sep 1805 (prob. 2 Feb 1806) freed two slaves at the request of her daughter, and made bequests to daughters Betsy Gunby (walnut table, waffle irons) and Catherine Powell, to sons John N. and Southy Whittington, and to grandchildren Elizabeth Gunby, Leah Long, John Nairne Whittington, George W. Powell, Levin Selby, Robert Nairne Marshall, Southy Whittington Gillett and James Gillett. Witnesses were James Merrill, Littleton Dennis (Worc. Wills MH4:4-5) (?or JBR6:4-5).

William Whittington of Ky. reported that of Uncle Southy's daughters, his cousin Mary married A. Gillett, Esther married L. Selby, & Catherine married J. Powell, but he mistakenly reported that Leah mar. "T. Long," and only that Elizabeth mar. "E." Children were all born probably at "Cedar Hall."

(c1758) Sarah Coulbourn, daughter of William & Sarah (Handy) Coulbourn, b. 8 Oct 1740 (bapt. Coventry). See will of Wm. Coulbourn (Som. Wills EB5:64).

Stevenson appears first in the Som. Co. Rent Rolls in 1750 in the household of his future brother-in-law Joseph Starling in Annessex Hundred, & in 1751, 1753. Stevenson and family moved to Dorchester Co. The only account of the family is recorded by Stevenson's Wm. of Ky. (323), Stevenson's nephew.

B-11 ISAAC WHITTINGTON, son of Southy (B-3) and Mary (Fassitt) Whittington, b. Somerset Co., Md. c1735; died Som. Co. by 27 June 1815; mar. (c1758) Elizabeth Wishart, daughter of James and Hannah (Taylor) Wishart. Her sister Anne had mar. Isaac's first cousin, Southy Littleton Whittington (see B-4). Isaac's son, William Whittington of Kentucky, records this marriage of his parents and lists all his brothers and sisters.

Isaac first appears in the Som. Co. Rent Rolls in 1751 in the household of Jas. Tull, Annessex Hundred, still there 1752, 1754. In 1756 he and brother Stevenson were with Chas. Cottingham. In 1757 Isaac had his own household in Annessex Hundred with 1 slave; bro. Stevenson was living with him. In 1759 with 2 slaves he was 3 doors from brother Southy, next door to Lazarus

Lankford, with whom brother Stevenson was living.

Isaac signed the Oath of Allegiance near the beginning of the American Revolution. Lt.-Col. Woodrow T. Wilson (E-37) was invited to join Sons of the American Revolution (SAR Natl. #132404, Md. #3004) as a descendant of Isaac.

In 1783 Isaac paid tax on 100 acres inherited from his father, "Addition," in Little Annessex, and on "Chance"; in 1818 he had a resurvey, to combine the two, 163 3/4 acres, into "Whittington's Conclusion," near present-day Hopewell. On 10 Mar 1796 he took a mortgage on lands of his son Thomas (B-33), 95 acres "Boston," "Eden," "Mumford" in Som. Co. (Dryden Som. Land 76, 419, 53, 144, 303).

In his will, dated 17 Nov 1813, he made bequests to daughters Nancy Cox (a negro girl), Hannah Handy (two negroes), and grandchildren Joshua Reece Handy, John Handy, Sally Handy (a negro each), sons Thomas (two negroes & all right to mortgage deed from Thomas), James (executor - 6 negroes, all lands not devised to Thomas after death of Isaac's widow, also all farm utensils, etc.). To wife Elizabeth he left the use of all lands during her natural life; after her death the residue of estate was to be divided equally between his children Nancy Cox, William, Joshua, & Littleton Whittington, & Hannah Handy. Witnesses were Elisha Gunby [his niece's husband, D-1], Southy Whittington [his nephew, B-29], Benjamin Conner (Som. Wills EB23:230).

Children (born Somerset Co., Md.):

- B-31 1. William Whittington, 14 June 1759-8 Aug 1824.

Som. 22 Nov 1819) ELIJAH CONNER, b. 22 May 1771; d. Som. Co. by 15 Jan 1833; no children. In his will, dated 18 June 1832, Elijah made bequests to wife Nancy, to six daughters (by previous marriage), to brother and step-son (Som. Wills JP4:208). Nancy Conner in her will, dated 29 Apr 1837, named nephew William Whittington, Hannah Ann Handy, daughter of William Handy, Elizabeth Wilson, sister Hannah Handy. Witnesses were Ann Elizabeth Cox, Thomas W. Long (Som. Wills JP5:27-18).

B-12 WILLIAM WHITTINGTON, son of Southy (B-3) and Mary (Fassitt) Whittington, born probably Somerset Co., Md. c1740; died Som. Co. by 11 May 1819; mar. (c1760) Priscilla Polk, daughter of James and Betty Polk, born 1740; d. Som. Co. by 1 Sep 1835 (reportedly aged 94). William's nephew William of Ky. reports this marriage. Priscilla Polk's brother Benjamin mar. her husband's sister, Sarah Whittington (see B-13).

William was known as Col. Whittington of "Chance." He served in Watkins Point Company, Somerset County Militia, first as Corporal, later as Col., during the Revolutionary War (Clement & Wright, Maryland Militia 223). During the Revolution a British war party burned the Whittington home. As they approached, Priscilla Polk Whittington mounted a horse and with one small child in front & another behind, rode 20 miles to the home of her brother William Polk (Polk 235).

On 14 Apr 1763 Southy Whittington gave son William 170 acres "Puzzle" and 125 acres "Recovery," and on 22 June 1763, 79 acres "Chance," all in Som. Co. (Dryden Som. Land 348, 349, 76).

It appears to have been this William Whittington (not the Judge, B-42) who, between 1798 & 1806, bought and sold several lots in Snow Hill, several bought at Sheriff's sale from Sheriff Levin Pollitt. On 13 Feb 1801 he sold to [his daughter] Polly Porter, formerly widow of William D. Allen lots 16, 17, 63, and John and Polly Porter sold him Lot 37. In 1801 he bought Lot 92 from Capt. David Wilson and Ephraim King Wilson (his cousins), executors for Levin Handy (Dryden Worc. Land 587, 589, 592, 595, 598, 602, 610).

In his will, dated 29 Dec 1815, Col. Whittington of Som. Co. made bequests to wife Priscilla, son James (executor), and to grandchildren Jane S., Nelly, Betsy, Henryetta, and Julianna Porter; Betsy, Mary, and Peggy Whittington; William and Thomas Whittington. Witnesses were Joshua Brattan, Benson B. Lowes, James Whittington, Elisha Gunby (husband of his cousin) (Som. Wills EB23:271).

His widow Priscilla, in her will, dated 28 Apr 1835, made bequests to [great-]granddaughter Mary Allen, property in the hands of Col. Joseph Stewart Cottman, and granddaughter Margaret Botham & her children, none to go to Thomas W. Botham; and to grandson William Whittington son of Isaac. Witnesses: William H. Whittington, William H. Lankford (Som. Wills JP4:248-49).

Neither William nor Priscilla in their wills named any of the following children besides James and Isaac. All of them appear in the family record of William's nephew, William Whittington of Ky. (pp. 323-24; see also Polk 239, Lentz 28-29).

Children (born Somerset Co., Md.):

- 1. Elizabeth ("Betsy," "Betty") Whittington, b. c1761; mar. (c1780) MITCHELL RUSSUM. Betty was named in will of her grandmother Polk. In the will of Joseph Venables, dated 15 Dec 1788, he made a bequest to Betsy Russum, daughter of Mitchell and Betsy (Som. Wills EB17:33-39). Child (born Somerset Co., Md.):
a. Betsy Russum, b. c1781; no further record
- 2. Margaret ("Peggy") Whittington, b. c1763; mar. WILLIAM PORTER; the family "came to Woodford Co., Kentucky" (according to her 1st cousin, Wm. Whittington of Ky.). Children:

B-13 SARAH WHITTINGTON, daughter of Southy (B-3) and Mary (Fassitt) Whittington, b. Somerset Co., Md. c1743; living 1807; mar. (?1766) BENJAMIN POLK, son of James and Betty Polk, b. 1738; d. Som. Co. by 26 Apr 1796. His sister Priscilla married her brother, Col. William Whittington (B-12). According to W.H. Polk, Polk Family and Kinsmen, 1912 (p. 215) their father, James Polk, d. in Frederick Co., Md. (will dated 30 Jan 1771; prob. 16 Apr 1771). His widow returned to Som. Co., where she died, leaving a will, dated 15 July 1779 (prob. 22 Mar 1780), naming sons William, Benjamin, Joshua, daughters Nancy, Leah, and Mary Polk, Priscilla Whittington, grandchildren Betty Whittington, James Polk son of William. Witnesses: William Strawbridge, Jesse Walston (Som. Wills EB1:135). Sarah's nephew, Wm. Whittington of Ky., records her marriage to Polk, says they had a large family, includes only dau. Sally, plus her husband & 3 children, but they appear to be a later addition by someone else in the family.

On 6 Apr 1756 William and Benjamin Polk bought 77 acres, "Derry," & took a mortgage on 150 acres, "Killmaynam." In 1783 Benjamin paid tax on 50 acres "Double Purchase," Revell's Neck, Manokin River (Dryden Som. Land 123, 242, 137).

In his will, dated ?1 May [?Mar] 1796 (prob. 26 Apr 1796) Benjamin Polk left lands on Shipways Branch to wife Sarah, named co-executrix with son Whittington. He bequeathed lands to son Benjamin and his wife Margaret, after their deaths to their son Southy Polk; to son Whittington Polk, and if no issue, to youngest sons David, James, Isaac, Joshua. He named daughters Mary Collins, and Betsy, Eleanor (Nelly), Jane, Sarah Polk. Witnesses: Wm. Davis Allen [husband of wife's niece], Jas. Polk, John Guillelt (Som. Wills EB17:519-23).

Polk (Polk Family) is somewhat confused on these children; he has 2 lists, on pp. 216 & 236. That on p. 216 is closest to Benjamin Polk's will; he claims that there were 13, lists the 11 named in the will, has Daniel instead of David, adds Southy & Nelly; the list on p. 236 contains 16 names.

Children (born Somerset Co., Md.):

- B-40 1. Benjamin Polk, born c1767; d. by 7 June 1835.

Robert Jenkins Henry (d. Som. Co. by 14 Nov 1766) and his wife, Gertrude Rousby, b. c1747; d. 1788/99. Col. Henry was son of Rev. John and Mary (King) Henry, Mary being dau. of Col. Robert King (d. 1717); in his will signed 21 July 1764 Col. Henry left to daughter Mary King Henry the tract "Golden Lyon" on Morumsco Creek (Som. Wills EB4:119-121). She mar. 2nd (c1770) Capt. William Handy (d. 1790); William and Mary King Handy of Worc. Co. sold "Golden Lyon" 17 June 1785 (Dryden Som. Land 178). In his will (29 Mar / 12 Apr 1790) Capt. Handy made no bequests to wife Mary, mentioned Mary King Handy as mother of son Robert Jenkins Henry Handy (Worc. Wills JW13:252). (Handy Annals 79-80 is in error in identifying her as relict of John Rousby Whittington, "for many years an associate judge of the First Judicial District" of Md.) The family record compiled by Wm. of Ky. shows William and Betty (Martin) Whittington as parents of William, who mar. Mary Henry.

William was a principal legatee in the will of his grandmother Elizabeth Whittington, 25 Apr 1756 in Acco. Co., Va., and on 30 Nov 1762 he qualified as executor of her will, replacing Uncle Joshua. William in Worc. Co. witnessed the will of his great-uncle, Edmund Hough 14 Sep 1760. On 11 Jan 1766 Henry Selby of Worc. Co. dictated his will to William. On 14 Feb 1763 William patented 12 acres "Addition to Double Purchase,"; on 7 May 1763 he patented "Whittingtons Meadow," 30 acres (Dryden Worc Land 187, 669).

In his will, dated 14 May 1768 (prob. 13 Dec 1769) William named wife Mary King Whittington executrix, bequeathed her one third of his lands, including plantation in Indian Town, "Double Purchase Addition" adj. "Double Purchase," and "Whittingtons Meadow." To son (not yet baptized) John Rousby Whittington, he left the balance, and if he dies under age, then to step-father Benton Harris and mother Betty Harris. To cousin [not nephew] Southy Littleton Whittington or Littleton Whittington, son of [uncle] Southy Littleton Whittington, now residing in Virginia, he bequeathed "Sandy Wharf," "Baltimore's Gift," part of "Sikes Island." And he mentioned his father, William W. Whittington. He also made bequests to Martin cousins, and named "Friends" Benton Harris & I Geo. Hayward as guardians to his son (Worc.Wills JW4:7-8).

Nine years later his step-father, Captain Benton Harris, in his will, dated 5 Feb 1777 (prob. 1 Feb 1777) named wife Betty executrix, bequeathed her a third. To "friend" William Whittington's son William, who was born after his father's death, he left 700 acres, "Swamp Timber Grove"; he identified "friend"

William as his son-in-law (step-son). To John Rousby Whittington, son of William, he left plantation of 200 acres east of Pocomoke River adjacent Bowhouse Landing; if he should have no issue, to Harris's sisters. He appointed Major Samuel Handy & Wm. Handy to assist his wife (Worc. Wills JW4:351-52).

In July 1799 Parker Martin agent of John Martin of Northampton Co., Va., decd. and guardian of Jas. Parker Martin, Thos. Littleton Martin, sons of John, sold to William Whittington, posthumous son of Wm. Whittington, deceased, parts of "Double Purchase," etc. in dispute, William Whittington died Nov 1769, leaving John Rousby Whittington who died 1788 and son William who was born four months after his death (Dryden, Worc Land 187-8).

Both sons are in the family record of William Whittington of Kentucky, who reported that John d. single. Children (born probably Worcester Co., Md.):

1. John Rousby Whittington, b. cMar 1768; died Worc. Co. ?Dec 1788; unmar. On 24 Dec 1771 John (son of Wm.) bought 400 acres "Armenia" in Indian town on Pocomoke River. On 2 Apr 1772 he bought lot #7 in Show Hill; in 1783 Capt. Wm. Handy paid tax on the lot for Whittington's heirs (Dryden Worc Land 23, 581). Co., who had been bequeathed part of "Cedar Hall" in Worc. Co., on the east side of the Pocomoke River, by his great-uncle John Nairne, conveyed it to his cousin, Southy Whittington (Dryden Worc Land 101). On 9 Apr 1803 Henry Langsdale, son of John, executed a deed to Esther Langsdale, widow of John, his interest in his father's land. John had died intestate, seized of "Woodstock," resurveyed as "Langsdale's Victory," 270 3/4 acres, which will not bear division, worth 52 shillings 6 pence per acre. John left issue William, John, Henry, Eleanor, Eliza, Joshua Whittington Langsdale, James, Huett, and Robert Langsdale (Som Deeds 35:270). Esther Langsdale in her will, dated 25 Nov 1806 (prob. 22 Dec 1807), made bequests to daughter Elizabeth Langsdale; son Joshua Whittington Langsdale; son James Langsdale (1/2 of "Langdales Victory," where "I now live," if he returns, but may be dead); to son Huett Langsdale, named executor (other half of "Langdales Victory," or all if James does not return); to son Robert (under 21); to granddaughter Sarah Langsdale, dau. of Elizabeth, to Ann Langsdale, widow of William (Som. B-18 MARY ("MOLLY") WHITTINGTON, daughter of Joshua (B-6) and Elizabeth (Nairne) Whittington, born probably Worcester Co., Md. c1764; d. Som. Co., Md. 10 Aug 1800, 4 a.m. (Bible); mar. (c1790) WILLIAM BOWLAND, son of William & Elizabeth Bowland, b. c1760; died Som. Co. 16 Aug 1801 (Bible). Joshua Huffington of Som. Co., in will dated 18 Mar 1800, named "friend" William Bowland executor. On 4 Aug 1804 Isaac Dryden, son of Joshua & Sarah (Bowland) Dryden & a 1st cousin of Wm. Bowland, filed an acct. for his estate (Som. Accts EB27:5).

Since Mary Whittington was still unmarried when her mother named her executrix in her will (29 Sep 1788), there is no direct evidence that William Bowland's wife Mary was a Whittington; however, the habit of giving children family names provides very valuable evidence. William & Mary named their son after her uncle, John Nairne; Mary's aunt & uncle had a son John Nairne Whittington (B-9). Although the Bowland family Bible does not identify the maiden name of Mary Bowland, her son John N. Bowland gave most of his children family names, most significantly his eldest son, William Whittington Bowland, after his father and his mother's brother. (Dates from family Bible, printed in 1814, owned by Dr. Robert S. Wilson, Sanford, N.C.)

Child (born Somerset Co., Md.):

- B-51 1. John Nairn Bowland, b. 16 Feb 1791; died 18 July 1850.

B-19 HANNAH STERLING, daughter of Aaron and Esther (Whittington) Sterling (B-7), born Little Annessex, Somerset Co., Md. c1743; living 18 Oct 1803; married (Coventry 7 Nov 1761) THOMAS WARD, son of James and Rachel (Sterling) Ward, born Annessex 11 Oct 1728 (bapt. Coventry); d. Annessex 23 Apr / 7 June 1796.

In the 1783 tax list Thomas Ward in Little Annessex Hundred paid tax on "Prices Vineyard," (50 acres), "Jamestown" (100 A), "Quarter Agreement" (53 A), "Apes Hole" (8 A), "Mickle Meadow" (75 A), a total of 286 A in present-day Asbury District, Crisfield, Som. Co.

In his will, dated 23 Apr 1796, Thomas bequeathed to his wife Hannah his dwelling house and 1/2 his dwelling plantation, 3 negroes, and 1/2 his movable estate during her natural life or widowhood. Son James was to receive the other 1/2 of the plantation, all land after the death or marriage of wife Hannah, James to pay "my son" William £15 when he arrives at 21. To sons Noah, Thomas, William, Aaron (under 21), John (under 21) and daughter Milley Ward he left each a negro, the residue to be divided among his eight children: Southy, Jesse, Noah, Thomas, William, Milly, Aaron, John, son Jesse to be executor. B-20 AARON ("HICKORY") STERLING, JR., son of Aaron and Hannah (Whittington) Sterling (B-7), born at Little Annessex, Somerset Co., Md. 10 Jan 1751/52 (baptised Coventry); d. Little Annessex by 25 Aug 1835. Albert

Mack Sterling (p. 16) confused this Aaron (Jr.) with Aaron "Crow" Sterling; on p. 20 he identifies the Aaron who d. 1835 as Aaron "Hickory" Sterling, b. May 1738, son of Henry. In the light of the recurrence of the name Southy in the family, & (of greater significance) the fact that "Haphazard" and other tracts in 1798 were held by Aaron Sterling "of Aaron," it is evident that Aaron "Hickory" was son of Aaron (Sr.) and Hannah.

In the 1798 Somerset Co. tax list Aaron Sterling (of Aaron) was paying on most of the tracts formerly held by his father, Aaron Sr.: "Sterling's Good Luck" & part of "Frustration," "Sterling's Choice," "Industry," "Cabin Swamp," "HAPHAZARD" (still 70 acres), "BARNET" (still 30 A), "Comicle Joke," "Choice," & "Exchange." (Researches of Philip L. Goldsborough.)

On 10 Feb 1826 Aaron Sterling, for $150, sold 40 A. on Little Annessex Neck to Aaron Jr. In 1826 Aaron Sr. also sold to John H. Sterling for $100 land purchased of Jacob Taylor called "Davises Good Will" in Little Annessex, 30 acres; on 17 Sep 1830 Aaron Sr. sold to Southy Sterling for $20 "part of a tract called Haphazard beginning at a marked post standing in a North East direction from Southy Sterlings house," 4 acres in Little Annessex (Som. Deeds 53:109, 315, 55:385).

In his will, signed 16 Oct 1828 (prob. 25 Aug 1835), Aaron Sterling, Sr., bequeathed to son Southy the land "where I now live," to son Aaron land adj. Job Moore, Richard Summers, Elisha Riggins, except 20 A.; to dau. Easter Summers 10 A. out of land bought of Geo. Davy, adjacent Jonathan Summers; to daughter Milcah Sterling the remainder of land bought of Davy & a negro girl; to dau. Milly Betsworth, the 20 acres excepted earlier, adjoining her husband's land; and he named grandson Richard Summers; residue to Milky Sterling and Milly Betsworth. He named as joint executors his two sons Aaron & Southy. Witnesses: Wm. Roach, Levin Conner, James Johnson of Elijah (Somerset Wills JP4:247-8).

On 20 July 1801 William Cox bought "Long Meadow" in Som. Co., 159 A. In his will, dated 16 Mar 1816, he named son Tubman Cox executor, willed to him landed estate; to son William, "Long Meadow"; and he named daughters Polly Stevenson, Jane Beauchamp. Orphans Court Proceedings 1806/09:395/97.)

In June 1764 James Jones of Worc. Co. and wife Jane sold land on the south side of Indian River and at the head of a branch issuing out of Duck Creek (Worc. Deeds F:164; see also Deeds O:580,3160,6127; P-83,127). By his father's will, dated 29 May 1786, James Jones received the plantation "where he now dwells," part of "Aberdeen." Whittington Jones was original executor for his father's estate, succeeded upon his early death, by Dr. John Stevenson. In Nov. Court 1811 John & Hannah Smith petitioned to divide the real estate of James Jones (d. intestate). The heirs were the two sons of Whittington Jones (Major & Whittington) & other Joneses. On 1 Sep 1812 commissioners, appointed to divide the late James Jones's land, were unable to do so without loss to the heirs, and sold "Aberdeen" at public sale (Worc. Deeds AD:379). Of the 10 children of James Jones, it appears certain only that Whittington was the child of his 2nd wife, Sarah Cox.

In 1800 John was living in Pitts Creek Hundred, near New Town. In his will, dated 26 May 1814, Robert named wife Esther Fountain Marshall co-executor with son Robert Nearn Marshall, to whom he left his plantation "Tamso." He also named grandchildren Robert Henry Marshall, son of Robert N., & Mary Whittington Marshall, daughter Mary Jackson Handy, son-in-law George Parker and his children, Robert & Mary Parker, & "my daughter" Esther Parker, & Miss Anne Wingate (Som. Wills EB23:219).

B-27 SARAH WHITTINGTON, daughter of Southy (B-9) and Esther (Nairne) Whittington, b. "Cedar Hall," Worcester Co., Md. c1760; mar. (c1787) AYRES GILLET, b. c1757; d. Worc. Co. 13 June/ 22 July 1794. In his will he devised a plantation to wife Sarah, another to son John, named son Southy Whittington Gillett, dau. Mary (Worc. Wills JW18:165). Children:

In his will, dated 8 Nov 1802, he named daughters Easter & Elizabeth Selby, & son Levin (under 21), brothers-in-law John Whittington, Selby Parker executors. On 15 Dec 1802 John N. 1. Esther ("Hetty") Selby, b. c1787.

B-29 SOUTHY WHITTINGTON (III), son of Southy (II) (B-9) and Esther (Nairne) Whittington, b. "Cedar Hall," Worcester Co., Md. c1768; d. Somerset Co., Md. by 26 Dec 1843; married 1st (c1794/5) Mary Turpin, b. c1775; died c1803/4; 2nd (lic. Som. 3 July 1804) Mary Coulbourn, dau. of William and Nancy (Brittingham) Coulbourn, b. c1783; d. before 1840. (See Wilson 34 134, 151.)

The only source that mentions Southy's first wife, Mary Turpin, and the daughters Maria and Mary, is William Whittington of Ky. (p. 321), a fact which helps explain the will of Mary Burnett below. William also named 2nd wife as M. Coulbourn, and son Southy Fossett Whittington (a later addition by family: "to New Jersey"), who couldn't have been much more than a year old in 1806, at the time of the visit of Wm. of Ky.

These Whittingtons lived near modern Marion Station. In the 1810 Som. Co. census Southy is shown with four boys and a girl, and 12 slaves, 6 persons engaged in farming. In the 1840 Som. Co. census, next to cousin James Whittington (B-35), Southy is shown aged 70/80, with 7 slaves, 2 persons in farming, 1 in navigation, and a family with all the above enumerated 5 children still at home (except an elder son), plus perhaps the wife (or wives) of son(s) and a girl under 5. Although daughter Hester in every census gave age as born c1824, her age must be understated, for the only girl was b. 1815/20. The daughters Maria and Mary were probably taken & reared by their mother's family, & may even have been alienated from their father, who did not name them in his will; Maria may have already died.

In his will, dated 16 Apr 1842, Southy Whittington made bequests to children Southy F., John, Stephenson, Robert, Hester, Luther A. Whittington, son Robert to serve as executor. Witnesses: John H. Miles, Nathan T. Tull, Robert H. Lankford (Som. Wills JP5:94). First two children by first marriage.

Children (born Somerset Co., Md.):

1. Maria A. Whittington, b. c1795/6; d. 71823/ /1850; mar. (lic. Som. 20 July 1818) LEVI LONG, son of David & Abigail (Lister) Long, b. Som. Co. 24 June 1739 (bapt. Coventry); died Worc. Co. near New Town 5/13 Nov 1823. In his will he named wife Maria (who could be pregnant), daughters Mary A.E. Whittington (?step-daughter) & Margaret Rebecca Long, brother Jesse Long executor (Worc. Wills MH27:64-65).

Children (born Worcester Co., Md.):

- a. ?Maria A. Whittington
 b. Margaret Rebecca Long, b. c1821?
 2. Mary [Turpin] Whittington, b. c1803/4; died Som. Co. 12/29 Oct 1850; mar. (lic. Worc. 20 May 1824) JAMES BURNETT. In her will dated 12 Oct 1850 she named only Stephenson Whittington (executor) & Hester Ann Cottingham, her ?half-brother & -sister, though no relationship is indicated. She did not name presumed son Oliver Burnett (Som. Wills JP5:177-78). In 1850 she was head of HH679, Brinkley's District, Som. Co., with son Oliver 18.

Child (born ?Somerset Co., Md.):

- a. Oliver Burnett, b. 1831/32; mar. 1st (lic. Som. 10 Nov 1852) his distant cousin, Mary Ann Wilson (E-1), born 13 Jan 1839; d. by 1865; 2nd (lic. Som. 21 Nov 1865) Nancy W[ard] Cullen, dau. of John and Martha (Ward) Cullen, b. Hopewell, Som. Co. 17 Aug 1836; they moved away before 1870.
 B-65 3. Southy Fassitt Whittington, b. cApr/May 1805; d. c1848/49.
 B-66 4. John Whittington, b. 23 Apr 1810.
 B-67 5. Stephenson Whittington, b. 19 Dec 1814; d. 2 Feb 1899.
 B-68 6. Robert E. Whittington, b. 1819; d. 11 Oct/ 11 Nov 1890.
 B-69 7. Hester Ann Whittington, b. c1824; d. 1870/80; mar. John T. Cottingham.
 B-70 8. Luther A. Whittington, b. 25 Dec 1825; d. 13 Sep 1892.

B-30 CATHERINE ("CATY") WHITTINGTON, daughter of Southy (II) (B-9) and Esther (Nairne) Whittington, born "Cedar Hall," Worcester Co., Md. c1778; mar. 1st (lic. Worc. 1 June 1799), as his 2nd wife, JESSE POWELL, son of John and Betty (Brittingham) Powell, born Som. Co., Md. c1742; d. Som. Co. by 26 Dec 1811. She mar. 2nd (lic. Som. 18 May 1813) JOHN MILES, living 1822.

By a previous marriage Jesse had had two daughters near his 2nd wife's age, Polly (d. 1826), who (c1795) had already mar. James Davis, and Leah, who mar. (lic. Som. 30 Jan 1799) Thomas Underhill.

Jesse Powell inherited from his father part of "Greenfield" and "Powells Addition"; in 1758 Brittain Powell, who was son of John, who was son of William, who was son of Walter Powell (who had bought the first tract in 1670, patented the second 1683), confirmed a sale of part (Dryden, Som. Land 187). The 1783 tax list shows Jesse Powell in Dividing Creek Hundred with 30 acres of "Powell's Adventure" & 180 acres of "Green Field." On 27 May 1809 Jesse mortgaged "Greenfields" and "Powells Addition," together with 300 A. "Golden Lyon," to Edward Henry of Worc. Co., who on 17 May 1811 released Jesse from the obligations of his note of hand & the mortgaged premises (Som. Deeds T:249, U:118). In his will, dated 18 Sep 1809 (prob. 26 Dec 1811), Jesse bequeathed to

George Washington Powell (not identified as son), under 18, "Powells Addition" & "Greenfields." His will named no wife but made bequests to Polly Davis lands in Morumsco, to her children, & to Leah Underhill's children. Witnesses: Jas. Adams, John and Littleton Dryden (Som. Wills EB23:165). In the guardian bond for George W. Powell, posted 15 Apr 1812, by Catherine Powell, securities were John N. Whittington (her brother) & Elisha Gunby (brother-in-law) (Som. Admin. Bonds EB28:177). In a report on division of the slaves, George W. Powell is identified as son of Jesse. In April an appraisal was made of the real estate of George W. Powell (ibid. 206, 208). On 29 Nov 1814 the estate was distributed by John Miles and wife Catharine, administratrix, son George Washington Powell to have all household furniture, one yoke of steers, all farming utensils, one negro boy Arthur (Som. Adm. Accts. EB27:209).

Catherine Powell was named as daughter in the will of her mother, Esther Whittington (1805), who also named grandson George W. Powell. On 23 Apr 1822, "George W. Powell received of John Miles, who intermarried with Catherine [Powell], my guardian, negro boy Arthur left to me by my father, Jesse Powell, dec'd and $167.63" (Som. Receipt Bk. EB30 [1808-30], p. 5).

The tracts "Greenfields" and "Powells Addition," in the Rehobeth area, passed down in the family to the present day, now owned by C. Wilkins Powell, Jr. (B-569). The tracts passed for a time out of the family when George C. Powell (B-152) on 7 Sep 1890 sold the rights to the Eastern Shore Steamboat Co. of Baltimore (later the Baltimore, Chesapeake & Atlantic RR Co.), which conveyed them 20 Dec 1924 to Edward G. & Adele Savage, who on 17 Jan 1925 conveyed them for $100 to two brothers (B-263), grandsons of George C. Powell, i.e. George H. Powell and Charles S. Powell (Som. Deeds HFL11:374, WJS91:334; see B-569). Children (born Somerset Co., Md.):

- B-71 1. George Washington Powell, b. c1801; d. by 2 Oct 1838.
2. Harriet R. Miles, b. 5 Sep 1816; d. by 7 Aug 1889; mar. (lic. Som. 13 Nov 1833) JAMES DRYDEN, b. 22 Oct 1806; d. Som. Co. 12 Mar 1881; no children. (Dryden Dryden 184)

B-31 WILLIAM WHITTINGTON, presumably eldest son of Isaac (B-11) and Elizabeth (Wishart) Whittington, born. Somerset Co., Md., 14 June 1759; died "Clifton," Woodford Co., Ky. 8 Aug 1824; mar. (Ky. 5 Aug 1791) Lucy Long, daughter of John (Sr.) and Mary (Haynes) Long. b. 2 Apr 1775; d. 1861. Lucy was one of the heroines who at age seven carried water to the men in the fort at Bryan's Station. Three brothers, William, Littleton, and Joshua Whittington, about 1790 migrated from Md. to Woodford Co. & located on farms in the county, where they became highly respected citizens. William in 1795 settled on his farm at Clifton, on the Ky. River. In the winter of 1806 he and his wife Lucy, who was pregnant, rode horseback to Somerset Co., Md., returning the following spring with a new baby, Attalanta. William then began his discerning and well-written "journal," recording autobiographical, family and public events, especially a chart of all the Whittington family he knew or knew of. Most dates are from his "Book." The 1820 census shows him with a family of 13, and 8 slaves. The family were Presbyterians. All the children except fourth & ninth were born Woodford Co. Children (all except ninth born in Kentucky):

- B-72 1. Littleton Whittington, 8 Sep 1792-27 May 1833.
2. Southy Whittington, b. 1793; in 1830 he was serving in the Ky. Legislature.

B-32 LITTLETON WHITTINGTON, son of Isaac (B-11) and Elizabeth (Wishart) Whittington, b. Somerset Co., Md. c1761; mar. (?Woodford Co. 12 Feb 1795) Sarah ("Sally") Hearn, dau. of Jacob Hearn. Though Littleton reportedly accompanied his brothers William & Joshua to Ky. about 1790, he returned east (according to Polk) to start a family, in Sussex Co., Del., then returned to Woodford Co., Ky. (This family is in Polk, p. 236, and in Littleton's brother William's family record, p. 323). In 1850 widow Sarah was living with her son William.

Children (born ?Sussex Co., Del.):

- B-74 1. William Wishart Whittington, c1796; d. c1872.

Child: William Littleton Whittington; mar. Mary Elizabeth Gaines, who in 1920 was a widow in Versailles, Ky.

B-33 THOMAS WISHART WHITTINGTON, son of Isaac (B-11) and Elizabeth (Wishart) Whittington, born Somerset Co., Md. c1763; d. Som. Co. by 7 July 1818; mar. (Cov- entry, 4 Nov 1789) Sarah S. Conner, dau. of Elijah and Isabel (Lankford) Conner, b. 23 Nov 1767 (baptised Coventry); d. Som. Co. by 30 Nov 1839. Sarah's brother Elijah Conner mar. Thomas's sister Anne (B-11).

The 1798 Som. Co. tax list shows Thomas in possession of "Boston," "Mumford," "Cheeseman's Choice," 95 acres, in Great Annesmessex. The 1810 census for Great Annesmessex Hundred shows his family, with 5 slaves; the 1820 census shows Sally Whittington with family & 3 slaves. In his will, dated 28 May 1818, Thomas named only wife Sarah and daughter Nelly Conner Whittington, Sarah to have "all my estate real & personal," except negro boy Henry to Nelly (Som. Wills EB23: 266).

In 1819 Sarah Whittington sold part of "Mumford," in 1823 a negro boy, in 1833 furniture and farm animals, Nelly C. Whittington a witness to the latter deed (Som. Deeds 46:310, 51:146, 56:491). In her will, dated 5 Sep 1838, Sarah Whittington named son William H. Whittington, daughter Elizabeth Wilson, widow of William. Witnesses: Henry C. Conner, Charles C. Green (Som. Wills JP5:47). Thomas's sister Nancy Conner in her 1837 will made bequests to nephew William H. Whittington and to Elizabeth Wilson, relationship not stated.

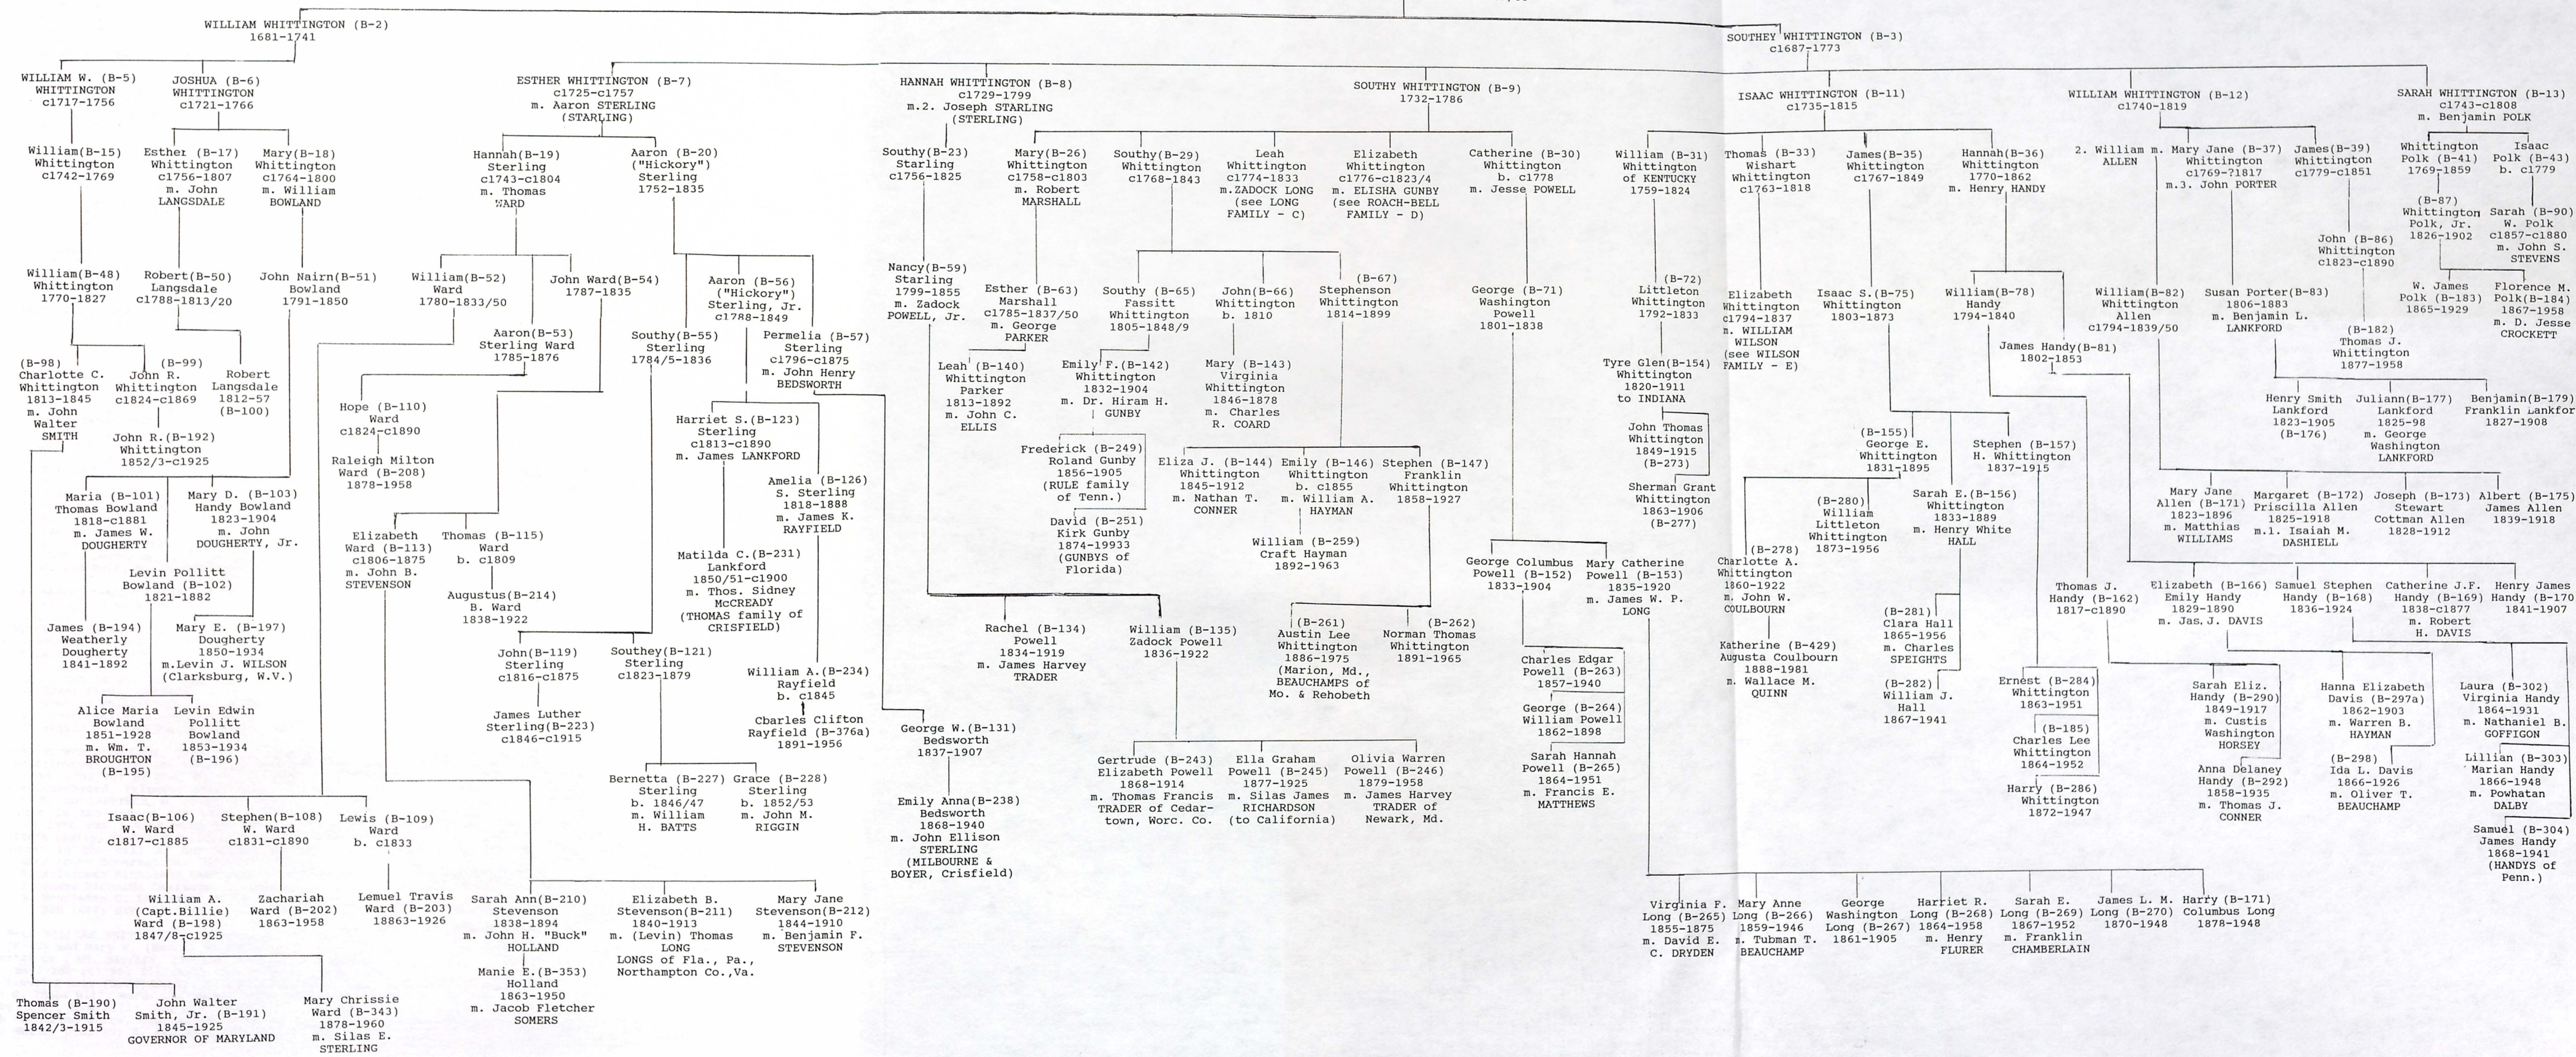

William Whittington of Ky. (p. 322), Thomas's elder brother, provides definitive evidence for this family: Thomas's middle name, his wife's name, and all the following children except Nelly, born after William's visit to the Shore in 1806.

Children (born Somerset Co., Md.):

- Joshua Whittington, b. 11 Oct 1790 (bapt.

THE WHITTINGTON FAMILY

POLK, son of William and Mary (Williams) Polk (Polk 216). There is some contradiction in Polk as to the marriages of Eleanor, Nelly, and Jane Polk. On pp. 216-17 both Jane and Nelly (distinguished from her sister Eleanor, who was unmarried) are said to have married William H. Harper, but here and on p. 222 Jane mar. Dr. John Polk. He removed to Laurel, Del., where he died. He was "a skilled physician and one of the founders of the Delaware Medical Society" (Polk 216). Since Jane's brother James made a bequest in 1807 to sister Jane Hitch, it seems most unlikely that she was the mother of Dr. Polk's children, unless she was already widowed & had remarried, and James was unaware of those developments.

Child (from Polk 222, born ?Somerset Co., Md.):

1. Joshua Whittington Hitch, b. c1798; mar. (lic. Worc. 30 Mar 1825) his cousin, Elizabeth Whittington (B-25); nothing further (Polk 216-17, 222) He was enumerated in 1810 in Dividing Creek with 1 slave, 2 boys (born (1800/10); in 1820 in the Lower District, evidently near modern Shell Town, 1 slave, 3 engaged in agriculture. Child (born Somerset Co., Md.):

He mar. 2nd Elizabeth Williams. He mar. 3rd Margaret Payne; no children. Joshua spent his early life in Caroline Co., Md., after 1821 removed to Ohio, where he died. (Source: Polk 217-220.)

Children (born Caroline Co., Md.):

1. Elizabeth Polk, b. c1810; mar. ---CLOUSER; no children.
2. Joshua Whittington Polk, b. 22 Dec 1812.
3. Mary Collins Polk, 5 Apr - 12 Nov 1814.
4. Malinda Polk, b. 6 Feb 1816; mar. William Leaverton.
5. Maria Louisa Polk, b. 19 Jan 1818; married Thomas Leaverton.
6. Josiah Polk, b. 21 Aug 1821; d. in infancy.

B-46 SARAH ("SALLY") POLK, daughter of Benjamin and Sarah (Whittington) Polk (B-13), b. Somerset Co., Md. b. c1785; married (lic. Som. 14 June 1814) JOHN DRUMMOND WHITTINGTON, b. c1780. (Information from Polk 222-223.) He was undoubtedly a cousin, but his parentage has not been determined; his middle name suggests that he was a son of John N. (B-15) & Elizabeth (Drummond) Whittington, but he was too old, and their son John is otherwise identified. Children:

- B-95 1. Southey Whittington, b. c1815; d. 1840/50.
B-96 2. Edward Whittington, b. c1817.
3. Hester Whittington, b. c1819; unmar.

(lic. Som. 27 Sep 1815) ELIJAH LAWRENCE, b. c1780; d. 1825/50. He does not appear in the census for 1820, 1840. His widow Esther in 1850 was living with her presumed daughter Henrietta's family. Esther's children Elizabeth and James were named in the will of her mother 20 July 1823.

Children (born Somerset Co., Md.):

1. Elizabeth Nicholson Lawrence, b. [c1816].
2. James Richards Lawrence, b. [c1820].
3. Henrietta C. Lawrence, b. 18 July 1825; d. 17 Feb 1864; mar. William J. Brittingham.

B-48 WILLIAM WHITTINGTON, posthumous son of William (B-15) and Mary K. (Henry) Whittington, b. probably Worcester Co., Md. Mar/Apr. 1770; d. Worc. Co. by 19 May 1827; mar. 1st (c1795) Elizabeth Custis Handy, dau. of Col. Samuel & Mary (Gore) Handy, b. Snow Hill, Md. 13 Apr 1777; d. ?Snow Hill, Worc. Co. 30 Nov 1804; bur. Makemie Presby. Cem., Snow Hill; 2nd (lic. Worc. Co. 8 Oct 1811) Sarah Catharine White, dau. of Wm. & Catharine (Rackliff) White, b. c1790; d. Feb 1819 (see N-15). His 1st wife's sister Sarah married William's cousin, Ephraim K. Wilson (Q-12). His 2nd wife's aunt, Sarah Rackliffe, was wife 1st of Williams's cousin Rouse Fassitt (N-10), then another cousin, Thomas S. Fassitt (N-15). In the acct. by William's kinsman, Wm. Whittington of Ky. reported this William's marriage to Betty Handy. The clue that identifies the posthumous William with the husband of Elizabeth Handy is the graves in Makemie Presby. cemetery, especially that of son John Rousby Whittington, identified as son of William, named evidently for William's older brother. This and the fact that he was also the judge, father of Dr. John Gunby's wife (Wilson, 34. p. 312), is confirmed in Handy Annals, 200, which reports the children of Judge Whittington's marriage to Betty Handy, and also names the children by his 2nd marriage to "Miss Sally White."

William appears in the 1800 Worc. Co. census, with 34 slaves; in 1810 evidently in the Snow Hill area, he is William Whittington, Esq., born 1765/94, with 23 slaves; in 1820, born before 1775, 5 engaged in agriculture, with 23 slaves, listed next to Samuel Handy, Sr., 2 doors from cousin Ephraim K. Wilson. In the 1790's he was selling "Timber Grove" (inherited from his late brother John, who had inherited it from Benton Harris): on 23 Oct 1794 William Whittington "son of William" sold 262 acres to Levin Pollitt for "docking"; in 1800 he patented 719 A. "Timber Grove United" (Dryden, Worc. Land, 633). On 5 July 1799 Parker Martin, agent for John Martin, decd. of Northampton Co., Va., sold to Whilliam Whittington, "posthumous son of William Whittington deceased" part of land in dispute, "Double Purchase," "Whittingtons Meadow," "Addition to Double Purchase" (William born four months after father's death); in 1817 James P. Martin sold to Whittington his interest in these tracts to settle dispute (Dryden Worc. Land 633, 187-88). On 2 Oct 1794 Wm. Whittington "docked & entailed" with Levin Pollitt "Ryans Chance" that Robert Martin willed to his daughter Betty Martin, who mar. William's grandfather, Wm. Whittington (Dryden, ibid. 534).

Hon. William Whittington served as Judge of the First Judicial District of Md., one of the pre-eminent Circuit Judges of the Eastern Shore (Handy Annals 201, which also supplies other details, especially for his children).

In Nov 1823 a suit was brought by James Murray and wife Charlotte and Kitturah Rackliffe against Thomas S. Fassitt, Thos. S. R. Fassitt, and William Whittington, Wm. White Whittington, Charlotte C. Whittington, Mary H. H. Whittington, Robert H. A. Whittington, and John R. R. Whittington (Worc. Co. Chancery Docket, Case #9; the case itself has not survived). The four eldest children were by his first marriage.

In 1850 Sally was living with Isaac, together with her Jane, Stephen and Lewis Ward. There was also a dau. Patsy who turned up as "sister" in the 1880 census with Lewis.

c1799; d. 1850/60. He was a farmer, in 1850 head of HH 623, Brinkley's District, his age given as 52 (rather than 65); in 1860 head of HH885, Lawson's Dist., Roachville P.O., his age reportedly 60; in 1870, reportedly aged 73, head of HH93, Lawson's District. There appears to be no public record of his death, but Carl Ward's father, Zachariah, who was 13 when his uncle Aaron died, apparently remembered it for Carl's records.

Children (born Lawson's District, Som. Co., Md.):

1. Isaac J. Ward, b. 1821/22; d. ?1870/80; unmar. At home 1870, a farm laborer.

B-54 JOHN WARD, son of Thomas and Hannah (Sterling) Ward (B-19), b. Little Annemessex, Somerset Co., Md. 19 Aug 1787 (bapt. Coventry); d. Som. Co. by 11 Aug 1835; mar. (c1806, when Som. marriages are missing) wife (name unknown), who d. before 1835. He appears to have become father late in life of a son William by Betsy Dize. In his will, dated 8 June 1835 (prob. 11 Aug 1835) John made bequests to son Thomas (executor) land, and marsh, sons Noah, John, Elisha Ward, daughters Mary S. Ward, Betsy Stevenson, Nancy Howarth, and provided for William Ward "son of Betsey Dize" money for his education and schooling. Witnesses were William Roach, Sr. & Jr., Thos. Ward (Som. Wills JP4:245-46). There may be some question as to whether the John who d. 1835 was the John b. 1787, son of Thomas; the chief evidence is that sons Thomas & Noah (below) were evidently named for their father's brothers. Carl Ward identified only Nancy & Elisha as children of John (of Thomas); it was Thomas, son of Elisha, who had his father's Bible; and Elisha and Nancy are named along with other children in the will of John (above). In the 1850 census John's children were in households that were near each other in Brinkley's Dist.: 260, 262, 271, 284, 291, and 501.

C - THE LONG FAMILY

This branch of the Long family descends from the Littletons through the marriage of Zadock Long (1756-1838) with two wives who were both Littleton descendants. The evidence for the descent from the second (Whittington) marriage is ample; however, proof for the connection between Zadock Long's family and that of William H. Long (C-7) of Lincoln Co., Mo., has not yet been established beyond the shadow of a doubt, but there appears to be a strong case. Mrs. Frank H. (Ann G. Long) Miller of Hannibal, Mo. (C-43) has a lineage chart that was sent to her father, Senator Edward W. Long, by the Library of Congress, which was obviously prepared by the late Col. John Dudley Long of Baltimore, Md., for his name and line are the only Longs on the pedigree besides the line of Senator Long. In addition to the ancestry of Zadock, the chart includes Zadock's three marriages and all his children, for which sources are known. But the chart also includes details not otherwise known to this compiler, e.g. the middle name "Zadock" for Llewellyn Z. Long (C-12).

Col. Long's pedigree chart is clearly the final result of research, but without supporting evidence. A search has been made of the 100 or so folios of papers that Col. Long bequeathed to the Indiana State Library (he was born in Indiana), but no source materials could be found for this lineage. Col. Long, a highly critical and meticulous researcher, had certainly seen satisfactory evidence for the pedigree he prepared. It was evidently the result of his preparation of application papers for Mrs. Ann Miller to enter the D.A.R., for it includes an alternative line through which she did join the D.A.R. As a matter of fact, Zadock Long is not an appropriate ancestor for membership in the D.A.R. or S.A.R. Although his gravestone bears the inscription, "Having devoted the morning of his life to the service of his country" no evidence has been found for his military service. (For other Littleton-Long connections, see O-5).

C-1 ZADOCK LONG, son of Solomon and Margaret (Maddux) Long, born Manokin, Somerset Co., Md. 7 Mar. 1756; died probably at his home, "Catalpa," a farm south of Princess Anne, Somerset Co. 3 Feb. 1838; buried in a private cemetery in front of his home; mar. 1st (5 Feb. 1777-Bible) Cathrine Mitchell Long, widow of his cousin, Josiah Long; she d. 17 Jan. 1778. They had one daughter Nancy, b. 19 Dec. 1777, who mar. (lic. Som. Co. 1797) Francis Ross. Zadock's second and third wives were both LITTLETON descendants. He mar. 2nd (18 Oct. 1778 - Bible) PEGGY KING, daughter of ZOROBABLE KING (see L-4), who was a great-great-grandson of COL. NATHANIEL LITTLETON (A-1), b. 17 Mar. 1756; d. 23 Mar. 1793. He mar. 3rd (20 Oct. 1796 in Bible; St. Martin's Prot. Episcopal Church, 13 Oct. 1796) LEAH WHITTINGTON, 4th cousin of his second wife and daughter of SOUTHEY WHITTINGTON (B-9), who was also a great-great-grandson of COL. NATHANIEL LITTLETON, b. c1774; d. probably at home, "Catalpa," 10 May 1833. (Dates from Zadock Long Bible, 1772, in the possession of his descendant, Paul Long, of Marion Station, Md.)

About 1779/80 Zadock undertook operation of a tavern next to the court house in Princess Anne owned by the Done family, later leased it, & finally in 1797 bought it, operated it until his death. (His early account books are preserved in the Teackle Mansion, where his portrait also hangs.) The tavern survives as the Washington Hotel. (According to family tradition Geo. Washington slept there.) In 1804 Zadock purchased from John Byrd & wife, and from Mary Smith what is now known as "Catalpa Farm," on which he built the present house, to which he did not move until after 1810. He acquired other property and became a prosperous land-owner. In the 1810 Som. Co. census he is listed in Pocomoke District, next to Littleton D. Teackle, therefore living in Princess Anne.

In his will, signed 10 Dec 1835 (prob. 13 Feb 1838) Zadock devised all lands bought from John Byrd & wife & Mary Smith, plus adjoining mill to his son Edward H.C. Long. To son Henry K. Long he devised land purchased from Henry Lankford, if he dies childless the land to go in thirds to son Zadock's children, dau. Leah Pinto (wife of John V. Pinto), son Edward. Son Henry was also to have tavern lot exclusive of offices occupied by Samuel G. Holbrook & by son Edward. Dau. Leah was also to receive land. He bequeathed to [grandsons] William and Zadock Long money due from their father Zadock's estate and $1000. He also named Zadock M. Ross, Tubman & Elizabeth Debonne (children of Anthony Debonne), grandchildren Matilda & John E. Pinto (Som. Wills JP5:17-19).

Long received from guardian John B. Miles negroes Flora, Mida, Priscilla & her 3 children (Som. Receipts etc. JP10:135). Juan Pinto moved as a child from Lisbon to Oporto, Portugal. By an elder brother he was brought to the United States and apprenticed in Philadelphia as a tailor. According to one account he was befriended by Leah's brother. According to another, Zadock Long, who had his clothes made at the shop where Juan (John) was a tailor, liked the young man so much that he invited him to visit his home near Princess Anne, where he met and married Leah, and settled near Princess Anne as a farmer. In 1850 he was head of HH1341, Princess Anne.

In his will, signed 6 Feb 1869 (prob. 19 Mar 1869) John V. ## D - THE ROACH and BELL FAMILIES

When Gunby was originally set up as a separate branch of the Littleton family, it was thought that there would be numerous descendants bearing the Gunby surname, but this family tended to run to females, who brought other surnames into the family. When Elisha Gunby married the Littleton descendant Elizabeth Whittington about 1802, the Gunbys had been established as planters/farmers for well over a century in the Anne-messex section of Somerset County, Md., on the Bay side, near modern Marion Station and north of present-day Crisfield.

William B. Roach, Jr., who in 1823 wed the Gunbys' daughter Eliza (D-2), was descended from the original Roach (Roch) settler who had patented the tract "Makepeace" in 1671 and on which the house was built 1725-50, in which William's ancestors lived, and which still stands in present-day Crisfield, one of the oldest dwellings on the Eastern Shore. Many of this branch of the Littleton family still reside in and around Crisfield and nearby Marion Station, and Princess Anne. In the 1850's Dr. Elisha Roach (D-6) moved to Atlanta, Ga., and his descendants are today scattered about the South, as are those of his nephew Joseph Coulbourn (D-18a), who moved to Birmingham, Ala., in the 1880's. More recently others have moved to Baltimore, Boston, and elsewhere.

The chief basic source for much of this family is Wilson, Thirty-Four Families of Old Somerset, pp. 313-327, substantially supplemented and confirmed by public records and by further information from family members.

D-1 ELISHA GUNBY, son of John and Sarah (Melton) Gunby, b. near modern Crisfield, on his father's farm near Gunby's Creek, Somerset Co., Md. 9 Dec. 1765; d. on the same farm 9 Oct. 1848; buried there with a marker; married as his 2nd wife (1800/3) ELIZABETH ("BETSY") WHITTINGTON, dau. of SOUTHY WHITTINGTON (B-9) & his wife, Esther Nairne, Southy being a great-great-grandson of COL. NATHANIEL LITTLETON (A-1); "Betsy" was born "Cedar Hall," Worcester Co., Md. c1776; died Som. Co. c1823/4. Elisha had reportedly married first Elizabeth Castin [Costen], widow of his brother Kirk Gunby, who died Som. Co. 16 Sep / 11 Oct 1796. In his will Kirk bequeathed to wife Elizabeth lands, to go after her death to brother Elisha Gunby, executor. He also named brother David Gunby, sisters Nancy, Sarah, Betty. A witness was Wm. Whittington (Som. Wills EB17:549-552). Elizabeth Castin Gunby died not long after the marriage.

For the marriage of Elizabeth Whittington to Elisha Gunby, the record of her cousin, William Whittington of Ky. (see headnote before B-1), reports only that she married "E." The year 1800 is from family records, but it was more than likely 1802/3 (a period when Som. Co. marriage records are missing). They were married at least by May 1803: Elizabeth Gunby was named as sister in the will of Jeannet Whittington (B-9), 2 May 1803, & Betsy Gunby was named as daughter in the will of her mother, Esther Whittington (10 Sep 1805), who also named granddaughter Elizabeth Gunby, b. 15 Dec 1804.

Elisha Gunby mar. 3rd (lic. Som. 1 Aug. 1826) Milcah Coulbourn; they had four children: Elisha James Gunby (1827-1908), Sarah Ann Gunby (1829-1855), wife of Henry Scott, then William Cullen; Mary Catherine Gunby (1831-1877), wife of Samuel L. Tull; and Dr. Hiram H. Gunby (1832-1913). Dr. Hiram Gunby married his half-sisters' cousin, Emily F. Whittington, 1832-1904 (see B-142). Their granddaughter, Charlotte Gunby Rule, 1886-1976 (B-396), who was 27 when her grandfather, Dr. Gunby died, left a record of her recollections of the early family, contributed by her son, Dr. William Rule. She reported that Elisha Gunby married first Elizabeth "Castin," widow of his brother Kirk, but Elizabeth Castin Gunby died childless. After her death Elisha married as his 2nd wife Elizabeth Whittington, & third Milcah Coulbourn.

In his will, signed 24 Mar. 1848 (probated 14 Oct. 1848) Elisha Gunby made bequests to his daughter Eliza Roach, $700 and the large family Bible; to grandsons John J. Bell ($78) & Charles Bell ($200); to grandchildren Henry C. Handy, Elizabeth H. Handy, and Eliza J. Handy, children of Henry S. Handy ($600 among them); & he also devised all lands to sons Hiram Gunby, under 21 ("Levin's Hammock" bought of heirs of Wm. Roach) & Elisha J. Gunby (to have "Watkins Point" and pay Hiram $250); wife Milcah, daughters Sarah A. Gunby, Maria C. Gunby. Witnesses were Henry Whittington, John T. Cottingham, and Benjamin Lankford (Som. Wills JP5:149-150). The two children below are by his second marriage to Betsy Whittington.

D-2 ELIZABETH ("ELIZA") GUNBY, daughter of Elisha and Elizabeth (Whittington) Gunby (D-1), born Somerset Co., Md., on family farm on Gunby's Creek near Crisfield, 15 Dec 1804; d. Som. Co. 13 Sep 1861; mar. (lic. Som. 7 Jan 1823) WILLIAM B. ROACH, JR., son of W.B. and Nancy (Miles) Roach, born Hopewell, Som. Co. 1800; died Hopewell 30 Sep 1839; both were removed to Sunnyridge Cem. at Hopewell. (Wilson 34 331).

F - THE SAVAGE FAMILY

Thomas Savage, Jr., whose wife was Esther Littleton, was a great-grandson of "Ensign" Thomas Savage, who arrived at Jamestown, Virginia, in 1608 aboard the John and Francis, commanded by Capt. Christopher Newport; this Thomas, who became a celebrated Indian interpreter, was "probably the earliest permanent settler in any of the thirteen colonies whose descendants are definitely known" and possibly the first permanent white settler on the Eastern Shore (Whitelaw 215, 217; see also Dorman 533-534). Ernest C. Savage, Jr., reports that in 1931, at age 7, "I went with all uncles, aunts, cousins, parents to Jamestown," where he and a cousin unveiled in the chapel a plaque to "Ensign" Thomas Savage, and great-uncle Henry L. Savage gave a "long and scholarly talk on Thomas Savage."

This line of the Savage family remained on the Eastern Shore for over a century and a half; between the 1770's and 1850's they lived on both the Eastern Shore and the Western Shore, but about 1840 William Lyttleton Savage moved permanently to Philadelphia, Pa.

There is a partial history of the Savages by August Burghard, America's First Family: The Savages of Virginia, Philadelphia, Va.: Dorrance, 1974. In a general narrative style he treats the earliest generations down to Thomas L. Savage (F-3), but then skips to a Teackle J. Savage (1838-1916) and his family without any indication of a connection. Descendants of the Savages who are Littleton descendants are very knowledgeable about their lineage. The chief sources herein are Bible and cemetery records, marriage bonds, land records, wills, Burke's American Families, p. 2901, and the generous labors of Ernest C. Savage, Jr., who by means of numerous telephone calls assembled the information on recent generations.

F-1 THOMAS SAVAGE, JR., of "Cherry Stones," son of Thomas (1669-1728) and Alicia (Harmanson) Savage, born Savage's Neck, Northampton Co., Va. c1691; died North. Co. by 12 Apr 1737; married (North. bond 27 Nov. 1722) ESTHER LITTLETON, dau. of NATHANIEL LITTLETON (A-3) & great-granddaughter of COL. NATHANIEL LITTLETON (A-1), b. North Co. 1697; d. North. Co. by 11 Nov. 1764. On the mar. bond securities were James Forse [his uncle by marriage] & Edward Mifflin [2nd husband of her late brother's wife]. (See Burke, Presidential Families, p. 2901.) Thomas Savage in his will identified himself as of "Cherry Stones."

In 1728 Thomas Savage, as successor executor to his brother George of their father's will and also as executor of George, presented both wills to the court for probate, at the same time protesting "the gifts and bequests made by his father [to brother and sisters], on the ground that the land had been entailed and as he was the eldest living male heir he was entitled to it all." The court granted him the land (Whitelaw 222). Thomas was a justice of Northampton Co. (Dorman 536).

In his will, signed 30 May 1736, with codicil 27 Feb 1736/37 (prob. 12 Apr 1737) he devised to John Savage, son to Sophia Costin [his sister] a 100 acre tract adj. Stringer's land. Wife Esther, named executrix, was to have six negroes; and he named Savage Bloxom. The residue of his estate was to be divided among his wife and "all my children when my daughter Sarah comes of age or marries." He declared that all his children should live with their mother until they come of age or marry, his wife to give son Thomas four years of schooling "here" and four in Philadelphia. Witnesses: Hillary Stringer, Henry Harmanson, Rose Harmanson (North. Wills 18:200). Though Thomas in his will mentioned no other land than the 100 acres, all the rest of his vast holdings descended to his son and heir Nathaniel.

Esther Littleton Savage, as eventual sole heir of her father, brother, and sister, inherited extensive land, southwest, south, and southeast of modern Capeville, extending to the seaside. In 1722 Thomas & Esther Savage sold to William Tazewell 400 acres, & another 350 acres in 1728. In 1751 Esther Savage sold 100 acres to John Moore. In 1756 Esther, together with her daughters Hannah Savage, William and Sarah Raisin, and Giles and Margaret Cooke of "George Town of Kent in the Province of Maryland," sold to Thomas Respass 315 1/2 acres of land Thomas and Esther had given the three daughters. In 1757 Esther Savage sold 245 acres to Thomas Bell. In 1760 Esther sold 250 acres to William Jarvis (Whitelaw 80, 82, 83). She died in possession of some 2000 acres in Va. as well as land in Md. She had therefore inherited about 3600 acres in Virginia and 700 in Worcester Co., Md.

In Accomack Co. Court 29 Jan 1760 was heard a case of ejectment proceedings concerning land sold (deeds 1755 and 1759 for 572 acres) to John & Littleton Harmon by Esther Savage, who in her testimony rehearsed the whole Littleton family relationship. She gave her age as 62, stating that her father Nathaniel Littleton was heir at law of the late Southy Littleton the elder, of Accomack Co., who left children: (1) Nathaniel, who d. 1702 leaving several children, all of whom died without issue except Esther Savage; (2) Esther, who mar. Wm. Whittington of Som. Co., Md., and d. before 1702 leaving several children; (3) Sarah, who mar. 1st Adam Michael & 2nd John Custis & d. without issue in 1720; (4) Elizabeth, who mar. Richard Waters of Som. Co. & d. about 1753, leaving several small children; (5) Gertrude, who mar. Henry Harmanson of North. Co. and d. about 1737 leaving issue; (6) Bowman, who d. without issue; and (7) Southy, who died about 1702 and left issue. The land in question was patented by her grandfather Southy Littleton in Oct 1674. Esther Savage had acquired the land, which she had sold, by purchase from widow Elizabeth Waters [her aunt] and as heir at law of [aunt] Sarah Michael Custis (Nottingham, Accomack Land Causes 18-20.) Esther in a deposition of 28 July 1761 again gave her age as 62 - Dorman 79.)

In her will, dated 27 May 1763 (prob. 11 Nov. 1764), Esther Savage devised to daughter Hannah, named executor, 800 acres of land at Maggoty Bay, by Chesapeake Bay; to grandson Giles Cooke a plantation between the forks of old Plantation Creek; to the son and heirs of "brother" Maxfield the land on which he died; to grand-daughter Susanna Rasin, land in Worcester Co. She also named son Nathaniel Savage, grandson Nathaniel, grand-daughters Esther Cooke, Margaret Cooke, and Mary Cooke; "my daughter Rasin," during her widowhood, & the children she had by William Rasin; "my daughter Cooke"; & the five children of "my daughter" Margaret (Northampton Co., Va. Wills 23:329).

The "brother" Maxfield was half-brother Stephen Maxfield. On 7 Sep 1769 his son, Stephen Maxfield of Kent Co., Pa. (Del.), with Josiah Polk and Littleton Dennis, sold 300 A. of "Pharsalia" in Worc. Co., which Esther Savage of Northampton, Va., had willed to her brother Stephen, out of the 700 acres she owned (Dryden Worc. Land 472). All the children were born probably at "Cherrystone."

Wills 33:287-88).

As eldest son and heir Nathaniel inherited 950 acres from his mother, petitioned the General Assembly to "dock the entail, i.e. to gain permission to charge goods and services to the land or otherwise encumber it" (Burghard 72). In Feb 1766 he was a Justice when, with Justices John Bowdoin, Littleton Eyre and others, the court responded to the English Stamp Act of 1764, declaring that the act was not binding on the colony because it was "unconstitutional" (Whitelaw 40).

Nathaniel was a leading citizen of Northampton Co. while he lived there, but since he had large holdings on the Western Shore, he evidently lived across the Bay at times and reportedly moved there in the 1780's. He conducted a thriving mercantile business and other enterprises. His account book (available on microfilm in the Eastern Shore Library, Accomac, Va.) shows his extensive dealings. He served on the Committee of Safety at the outbreak of the American Revolution, was a member of the House of Delegates 1776, served as member from the County to the Convention which framed Virginia's first constitution 1776 (DAR Lineage Bk. 136 (1917), p. 174; Burke's American Families 2901).

Two letters in the Va. State Library (Archives 27569 Savage Notes) to Mrs. Geo. B. (Nancy Shafer) Halstead, Princeton, W. Va., report on the pension claim of Nathaniel Littleton Savage, one letter dated 29 July 1930 from State Sen. Lloyd E. Warren, the other from the Veterans Admin., Bureau of Pensions, Wash., D.C. Nathaniel was Lt. of Cavalry under Major John Nelson in Va. State Troops until they were consolidated with the Legionary Corps under Col. Charles Dabney; Savage was Adjutant May-June 1780. His claim for half-pay for soldier's service was denied since he was an officer for the state, not of the Continental Line. According to this account, he died in the fall of 1800 or 1801 or 1802, his estate administered by Nathaniel L. Savage, Sheriff of New Kent Co.

The reports of the names and number of his children are somewhat conflicting; no source provides a complete list. Burke's Am. Fam. 2901 reports that he had seven sons, two daughters, but Nathaniel's will (see below) suggests that there were ten altogether. The Halstead letters provide two lists of heirs: Nathaniel L., Jr., George, John, Southy, Nancy, and Susanna (only six); and Nancy Savage, Susanna Wilkinson (sister of soldier, mother of Mrs. John W. Royster), George Savage's heirs, Thomas Savage's heirs, John Savage's heirs, Southey Savage's heirs (only 6 again). Their mother's sister also named only 6 in her 1812 will. Dr. Paul K. Cropper of Salt Lake City, who lists nine (all except Margaret) has provided some dates (source unknown).

A deed (provided by Mrs. Nora M. Turman) in Accomack Co. in 1793 (Acco. Co., Va., Deeds, 1793/97, pp. 57-58) establishes an earlier approximate date of death for Nathaniel L. Savage than 1800-2. On 6 Apr 1793 Ann Savage, Thomas Littleton Savage, and Nathaniel Littleton Savage, executrix and executors of the last will of Nathaniel Littleton Savage late of New Kent Co., Va., for £500 sold to Henry Custis, Jr., of Acco. Co., a 512 1/2 acre plantation in Acco. Co., on Muddy Creek, owned in fee simple by the deceased at the time he made his will, 30 July 1783. According to the deed, the will (no longer extant) provided that "All the rest of my estate both Real and Personal wheresoever it be, I desire may be divided into Eleven equal parts (meaning any Land in Accomack to be sold and equally divided also)." Some of the children may have been born at "Cherry Grove" or "Cherry Stone," Northampton Co., Va.

At a meeting of the Vestry of St. Peter's, New Kent Co. 14 May 1794 Nathaniel L. Savage was present (C. G. Chamberlayne, Vestry Book...of St. Peter's Parish, New Kent Co., Richmond, 1889, p. 649). Co. 28 Feb 1778; d. 28 Sep 1846; bur. Cugley. The Virginia Gazette & Weekly Advertiser, Richmond, Va. 18 June 1789, p. 3, announced the first wedding (no mar. date) of "Thomas Littleton Savage Esq. of New Kent Co."

A student at the college of William & Mary in 1779, he was one of the original signers of the charter of Phi Beta Kappa. He became assistant clerk of the Council, but resigned 1783 to go "immediately to the University at Williamsburg," possibly to teach. But he later returned to the Eastern Shore when his father moved to the Western Shore. He served as County Clerk of Northampton Co. Court 1791-1813. In 1799 he bought "Cugley," 300 acres, from his cousin, John Stratton and wife Lucy (Whitelaw, 233, 255).

In his will, signed at Cugley 1 Aug 1812 (prob. 12 July 1813), Thomas Lyttleton Savage "of Cugly" left to son Thomas Lyttleton Savage his library, and his plantation Cugley, "whereon I now live." His wife Margaret was to have a third of Cugley during widowhood, with "my" chariot & horses, plate, wines & other liquors, etc. The residue of the estate was to be divided into nine parts: one each to wife, to daughters Margaret [Maria] Teackle Parker, Leah Lyttleton Savage, Anna Savage, son Thomas Lyttleton Savage, daughters Susanna Savage, Mary Burton Savage, Elizabeth Upshur Savage, Ellen Savage. He named son-in-law Severn Eyre Parker executor, instructed him to sell property in the Borough of Norfolk and stock in the Bank of Va., asked that Parker take "my son" under his care, educate him, make him a useful member of the community, and bring him up in a profession or business by which he could gain a livelihood. In a codicil son William Lyttleton Savage was to have the plantation lately bought of John Brickhouse, and the estate was to be divided into ten parts. There were no witnesses, but Major S. Pitts, John Scott, Harold L. Wilson testified to his signature (North. Wills 34:20-23).

A Court Order of 10 Mar 1828 certified that Leah L. Wilson, widow, Margaret Parker, Thomas L. Savage, Mary B. Savage, Elizabeth U. Savage, William L. Savage, Anne G. Lyon, wife of George A. Lyon, and Susan E. Wilson, wife of Henry P. C. Wilson, are the "only heirs of Thomas L. Savage dec., who was a brother of Nathaniel L. Savage, dec." (North. Co. Court Orders 1826-1831, pp. 178, 209).

Only the first three children are by first marriage; in his will Mary's father had named granddaughters Leah and Maria Savage. (Sources for dates: Bibles of Thomas Lyttleton Savage, Maria T. Parker, BRec 5:11-13, 155-7). The first five children may have been born at "Cherry Grove," six youngest certainly at "Cugley."

RELATIONSHIP OF THE LITTLETONS TO THE RULERS OF ENGLAND

G - THE WATERS FAMILY

The Waters family, in Virginia as early as 1616, settled in Northampton Co., on the Virginia Eastern Shore, about 1637. Richard Waters (c1663-1720), who married Elizabeth Littleton, in 1689 was bequeathed by his father's will "Waters River" in Fairmount, Somerset Co., Md. He and his wife settled there and reared their family; descendants have continued to live in the area for three centuries. Richard's elder brother William (c1660-1721) inherited the home plantation in Northampton Co. and remained there; younger brother John Waters (c1670-1708) joined Richard in Somerset County and settled at Annessex. A granddaughter and a great-granddaughter of Richard and Elizabeth (Littleton) Waters married cousins in the other branches of the Waters family.

During the 18th century some of the family moved across the Bay to Calvert County. In the 1820's some moved to Baltimore, and in the 1850's a Dennis moved to Frederick, Md., but not until the present century did the family begin to scatter in appreciable numbers, many even overseas.

For the early family the best source is Dorman, Adventurers of Purse and Person, pp. 650-55, with notes citing valuable original sources. In a brief note in Virginia Magazine of History & Biography, Vol. IX (1901-2), pp. 210-211, Levin L. Waters (G-60) corrected errors about his forebears in a previous article and especially threw light on the intermarriages in the early family and his own line of descent; he even mentioned that Richard Waters' wife Elizabeth was a daughter of Col. Southey Lyttleton of Virginia. Levin Waters had submitted his note before Jan 1900, the time of his death. Dr. John Custis Crawford (G-89) was able to rehearse his Waters lineage in detail for many generations, substantiated by other records. There are or have been several old family Bibles; various members of the family who possess copies of the records have made them available. These together with wills and other records have produced a clear trail of descent.

G-1 RICHARD WATERS, son of Lt. Col. William (1623-1689) and Sarah (Marriott) Waters, b. Northampton Co., Va. c1663; d. Somerset Co., Maryland, probably at his plantation, "Waters River," in Fairmount, 21 Apr /12 July 1720; mar. (c1691) ELIZABETH LITTLETON, daughter of Col. SOUTHEY LITTLETON (A-2) & granddaughter of Col. NATHANIEL LITTLETON (A-1), born North. Co., Va. c1671; died Somerset Co., probably at "Waters River," by 20 Apr 1754.

In 1689, by the will of his father William Waters, Richard had been devised the tract, "Waters River," in the Fairmount area of Somerset Co., on the north side & near the head of the Great Annessex River, between modern Kingston and Westover, which his father had patented in Sept. 1663 for 1280 acres, already "settled and built upon." This became the seat of the family (Dorman 653). On 10 Sep 1679 Richard and [brother] John Waters, with Charles Hall, patented 375 A. "Partners Desire" in Fairmount. In June 1696 Richard patented 116 acres, "Friends Kindness," on Hall's Creek (which flows into the Great Annessex, near & west of "Waters River"). In Dec. 1701 Richard patented 80 acres, "Convenience," in Fairmount and just north of "Friend's Kindness." In 1710 Thomas Everton willed to Richard Waters and his wife Elizabeth and their heirs 850 acres, "Flatland," which he had patented in 1696 on the lower Great Annessex, together with "Johnsons Ridge." On 25 May 1763 Richard Waters (G-6) traded with John Waters [his cousin, G-8] of Calvert Co., Md., the tract "Envy" for the tract "Partnership," 70 acres, Richard being the grandson of the Richard Waters who had patented "Envy" 10 Oct 1679 (Dryden, Somerset Land Records 409, 504, 327, 170, 504, 96, 504, 161, 503, 327-28).

Richard Waters was generally regarded as a "very wealthy planter." He and his wife "became active members of the Annessex Meeting of Friends [Quakers], organized 1662" (Dorman 653).

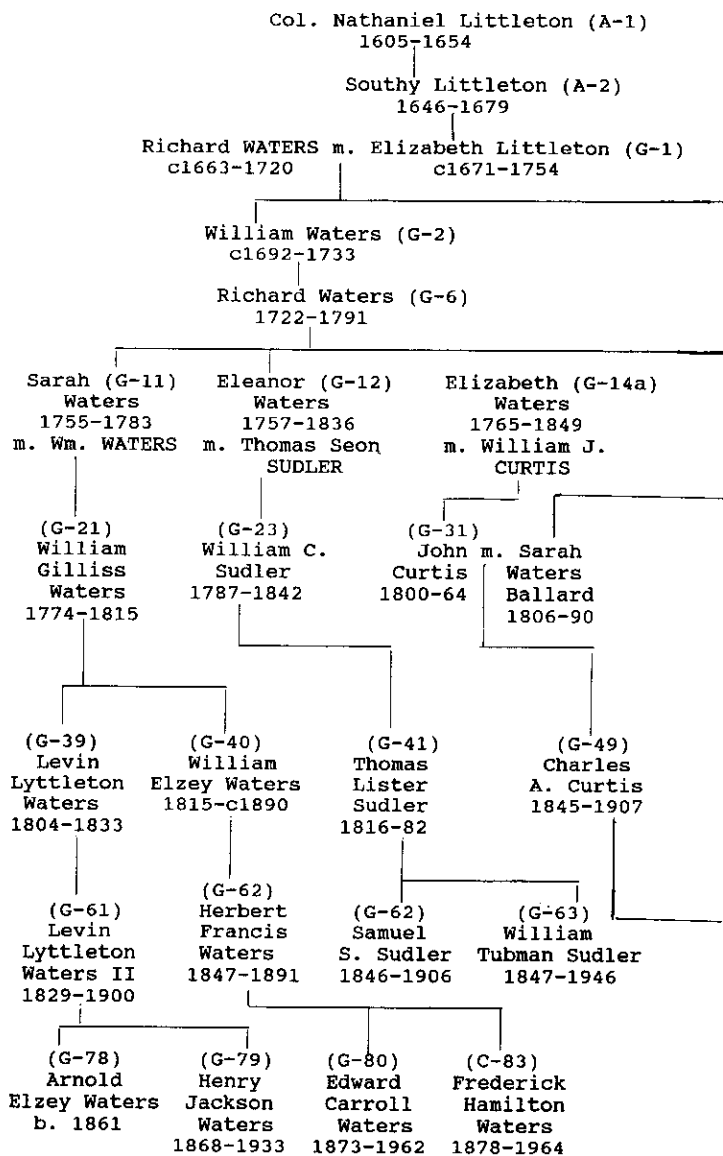

In his will, signed 21 Apr. 1720, Richard Waters named wife Elizabeth executrix, with son William executor, made bequests to son William "Waters River," 620 acres; to sons William, Richard, and Littleton, and to "cousin" [nephew] John Waters he devised "Flatland"; and he named daughters Elizabeth, Esther, Sarah Waters. "Convenience" (not named) went to eldest son. He also made bequests to many others: brothers John Waters (deceased) & William Waters, Charles Hall, William Robins, Richard Hill, Thos. Chalkley, William Cooper. He stipulated that if any of his children should marry without the consent of the West River Monthly [Friends] Meeting, they were to have 5 shillings & no more of his estate. He mentioned certain money "to be paid out of my estate in England, left me by my uncle, William Marriott, late of Worcester, now in the hands of John Hyde, Senior, Merchant of London." Witnesses were John Brown, William Pearson, Thomas Fairclo, Edward Harper (Som. Wills EB9: 35). Although he did not name "Friends Kindness" in his will, it evidently passed by primogeniture to eldest son William.

In her will, signed 20 April 1752 (prob. 20 April 1754), Elizabeth Waters "Sr." devised to son Richard Waters 91 acres "left to me by Thomas Everton," i.e. parts of two tracts "Flat Lands" and "Johnsons Ridge" between the Annessex River and the Manokin; to dau. Sarah she bequeathed the balance of these two tracts and named her executor. She made bequests to her son Littleton Waters' younger children, Elizabeth, Esther, and Dolley (all under age); to grandson Richard Waters; to Esther Lowes, Elizabeth Waters daughter of William, and Elizabeth Hutchens. Witnesses were Ephraim Wilson [her cousin], Henry Landen, Ann Dorman (Som. Wills EB4: 24). The children were probably born at "Waters River," in Fairmount.

H - THE EYRE and TAZEWEEL FAMILIES

The Eyres and Tazewells descend from the Littletons through the Harmanson family. Thomas Harmanson, whose son Henry married Gertrude Littleton, was born 1625 in the dominion of Brandenburg, Germany, and arrived in Northampton Co., Va., before 1665, when William Andrews gave 1000 acres to his daughter Joan and her husband Henry, who two years later secured a patent for 800 acres more; this land lay east south-east of modern Eastville, north of Broad Creek and south of Indiantown. Harmanson was naturalized in 1684 (Whitelaw 206-7, 213).

The first recorded Eyre in Virginia, the immigrant Thomas Eyre (d. 1657), was in Northampton Co. by the very early 1640's, when he acquired his first land, a 200 acre plantation below modern Capeville on the Bayside. The Littletons and Eyres were very well acquainted: Ann Littleton in her 1656 will requested that Susanna Eyre, wife of Thomas, keep Ann's daughter Hester until the age of ten. The son of Thomas and Susanna, Thomas Eyre (II), was father of Severn Eyre, who wed Gertrude Harmanson.

William Tazewell, who married Sophia Harmanson, was born at Lymington Manor, Somersetshire, England, son of James Tazewell of Lymington Manor (b. 20 Feb 1615/51; d. 1683) and his wife, Anne Kingsmill of Andover. He emigrated to Virginia in 1715.

Descendants of the Eyres and especially Tazewells in the 18th century frequently moved back and forth between the Eastern and Western Shores, especially to Williamsburg and the Norfolk-Portsmouth area, and also Richmond; in these locations several of them eventually settled permanently, but in later years many scattered far and wide.

The Eyres and Tazewells and their descendants in families of other surnames kept exceptionally full and fine records. For the Emmerson family (beginning H-8) the information has been provided principally in The Emmersons and Portsmouth 1737-1965, 1966, by John Cloyd Emmerson, Jr.. Emmerson indicates that material for his account of the early Tazewells was taken from a "Discourse on the Life & Character of the Hon. [Gov.] Littleton Waller Tazewell," Norfolk, Va., 1860.

Governor Tazewell himself did research on the family and left an account. Large collections of Tazewell papers are to be found in the Library of Congress, William & Mary College, the Va. State Library, and elsewhere. From these and other sources C. W. Tazewell, Jr., of Virginia Beach, Va. (H-85), has drawn material for several pamphlets, which he has kindly made available to the compiler, and which have been a valuable source for much of the information on the family here: Genealogy of the Tazewell and Allied Families, with Sketches of Tazewell, Bradford and Goode, Virginia Beach, Va.: W. S. Dawson Co., 1990; Meet the Tazewells, 2nd Ed., W. S. Dawson Co., 1990; Waller Scrapbook, W. S. Dawson Co., 1990.

In the Eyre family several Bible records from the 18th and 19th centuries have survived, as well as some gravestones inscribed with revealing details, and numerous lengthy and very detailed wills. All these original sources have been supplemented by material from present-day family members.

H-1 HENRY HARMANSON, fourth son of Thomas and Joan (Andrews) Harmanson, b. Northampton Co., Va. c1665; died North. Co. 15 Apr/ 28 May 1709; married as his 2nd wife (c1695) GERTRUDE LITTLETON, daughter of SOUTHY (A-2) and Sarah (Bowman) LITTLETON, and granddaughter of COL. NATHANIEL LITTLETON (A-1), b. North. Co. c1673; d. North. Co. by 9 Jan. 1738/39. He had mar. 1st (1691) Elizabeth Patrick, by whom he was father of Matthew, Elizabeth, Sarah, Anne, Tabitha. In 1690 Wm. Patrick & Elizabeth bought a tract; in 1692 she and husband Henry Harmanson sold her interest to her brother (Whitelaw 331).

In 1690 Thomas Harmanson gave his son Henry 450 acres of his 1800 acre estate (confirmed in his will of 1702). Gertrude Littleton was bequeathed by her father land in Somerset Co., Md., and with her sisters was residuary legatee of his other lands; as sister she was named executrix and a legatee (with her daughter Sophia) in the will of her sister Sarah Littleton Custis. Littleton Eyre in 1739 of Northampton Co., Va., sold 300 acres "Pharsalia" [in Somerset, now Worcester Co., Md.] that Southy Littleton willed to daughter Gertrude Littleton, who willed it to her grandson Littleton Eyre (Dryden Worc. Land 472).

Henry Harmanson in his will, dated 15 Apr 1709 (prob. 28 May 1709), named his wife Gertrude executrix, bequeathed to her for life the plantation "whereon I live," then to the child she is carrying if a boy. He named son Matthew (land in Church Neck, 1 negro, silver), daughters Elizabeth (land in Nanticoake, negro, silver), Sarah, Esther, Anne, Tabitha and Sophia to share land that was formerly Caesar Godwine's where John Johnson lives. He left his wife to dispose of her "maiden land" in Accomack Co. to "my children" as she pleases, wife & 5 daughters resid. legatees. He named Littleton Robins, brothers John and George Harmanson, (Capt.) Thomas Savage to act as trustees, and he left his coppers [cooper's] and carpenter's tools for the use of his two plantations where "my wife lives" and that in Hungar's Neck. Witnesses were Thomas Savage, Argoll Wilkins, George Hamanson (Marshall 189).

In her will, dated 11 Sept. 1732 (prob. 9 Jan. 1738/9) Gertrude Harmanson bequeathed to son Henry Harmanson "my plantation on the Bayside, ... that I bought of John West," 350 acres, also 500 acres in Savage Neck on the Bay side "I lately bought of John Savage," silver, and the "desk that stands in the doctor's room." Her daughter Sophia Tazewell was to have the 294 acre plantation bought of John Bagwell & William Hopkins, in Maggoty Bay, during her life, to go at Sophia's death to her male heirs; she and her husband William Tazewell were also to have use of eleven negroes during their lives. To grandson Littleton Eyre (under 21) she left land on Hogg Island, 230 acres, also 380 A in Somerset Co., near Swansgutt, "given to me by my deceased father SOUTHEY LITTLETON," plus £100 & 2 negroes. She mentioned former daughter Esther, deceased wife of son-in-law John Stratton, who was left a negro, which would be taken away from him if he claimed any more of the estate. She named son-in-law [step-son] Matthew Harmanson; her grandchildren William Tazewell, Littleton Tazewell, Ann Tazewell, Gertrude Tazewell, all under 21; kinsman Neech Eyre, sister ELIZABETH WATERS; brother-in-law Col. George Harmanson; and Thomas Cable. She named "my sons" Henry Harmanson and William Tazewell executors and friends Col. Geo. Harmanson & Thos. Cable to assist them. Witnesses: John Robins, Elias Roberts, Katherine Robins, Sorrowful Margaret Cable (North. Co., Va. Wills 18:285-87).

- H-2 1. Gertrude Harmanson, born c1698; died before Feb 1727/28; mar. Severn Eyre.

H-2 GERTRUDE HARMANSON, daughter of Henry and Gertrude (Littleton) Harmanson (H-1), b. Northampton Co., Va. c1698; d. before Feb 1727/8; married (c1714) SEVERN EYRE, son of Thomas (II) and Jane (Severn) Eyre, born North. Co. c1690; d. Northampton Co. by 10 Apr. 1728. Though Henry Harmanson named no daughter Gertrude, and his widow Gertrude did not identify by name the mother of her grandson Littleton Eyre, Whitelaw (190) identifies Severn Eyre's wife as Gertrude; whatever her name, she was mother of Littleton Eyre.

The Eyres lived on a plantation at Hungar's, near present-day Machipongo. In his will, signed 10 Feb 1727/28 (prob. 10 Apr 1728) Severn Eyre left to son Littleton Eyre the "plantation whereon I live" and 230 acres on Hog Island (the land bequeathed to Littleton by his grandmother Harmanson); for want of heirs it was to go to son Severn, & for want of heirs to Henry Harmanson, son of Gertrude Harmanson. To son Littleton he left silver punch bowl, silver sugar box, largest silver tankard, 6 silver spoons, silver cup. To son Severn (not yet 18) he left £300, 2 silver tankards, cup, porringer, spoons; the plantation bought of Henry Pike to be sold, the money used for the education of Severn. The two sons were to be of age at 19. Executors were to be Gertrude and Henry Harmanson, his late wife's parents (North. Wills 28:109-110).

Children (born Northampton Co., Va.):

- H-4 1. Littleton Eyre, b. c1715/16; d. by 12 July 1768.
- 2. Severn Eyre, (Jr.), b.c1718; d.s.p. 1728/32.

H-3 SOPHIA HARMANSON, daughter of Henry and Gertrude (Littleton) Harmanson (H-1), b. Northampton Co., Va. c1704; d. North. Co. by 8 Jan 1754; married (North. Co. marriage bond 1 June 1723, Thomas Cable security) WILLIAM TAZEWEEL, son of James & Anne (Kingsmill) Tazewell, b. Lynington Manor, Somersetshire, England, bapt. 17 July 1690 (Tazewell Genealogy 93,99); d. probably at Elkington, North. Co. 6 July 1752; buried at Elkington.

William Tazewell became a very wealthy landowner. He was a lawyer by profession, but he appears to have become a planter as well. In 1722 he bought 400 acres from Thomas & Esther Savage, & in 1728, 35 acres more, bounded on the north by Purgatory Creek and just west of modern Capeville. When sold it was called 800 acres. In 1728 he received a lot in the port of Scarborough, or Onancock Towne, in Accomack Co. In 1738 a tract of 215 acres of escheated land near the head of Dun Branch, north of the earlier tract & a little south of modern Cheriton, was patented to Wm. Tazewell & John Stratton; Tazewell bought out Stratton's interest. In 1748 Tazewell bought a 100 acre tract still farther north, on which Eastville is now located and on which Tazewell's home stood. The house now on the site is known as "Elkington." When Tazewell died in 1752, he held about 2000 acres of land, which he left to his children. Sophia Tazewell and her sister [Gertrude] Eyre, had inherited 30 acres in a neck south of Machipongo; the Tazewells sold their share in 1739 to the Eyres (Whitelaw 80, 906,126,237-38, 194).

William Tazewell in his will, signed 29 Oct 1751 (prob. 19 Sep 1752) devised to his son Littleton his 800 acre seaside plantation at Magotty Bay on condition that Littleton convey to Thos. & Sarah Spady title to 290 A. in their possession, land given by the will of Gertrude Harmanson to "my wife Sophia" during her life, after her death to "my son" Henry, which descended by Henry's death to son William, by William's death to son Littleton. Littleton was also to receive "all my land" on Old Plantation Creek, 4 negroes, "all my law books." To wife Sophia during her life he left land he had bought of Spadys & Halls in Savage's Neck (except 760 A. contracted for with the late Hillary Stringer), then to son John, Sophia also to have 5 negroes, a silver tankard, 6 silver spoons, £50. Son John (under 21) was to have 5 negroes, a silver cup; daughter Gertrude, 4 negroes, 6 silver spoons and £100; daughter Anne (under 21), three negroes, 6 silver spoons, £100. If any of his children should make claim against any of his mother-in-law Gertrude Harmanson's estate, they should lose their share of his personal estate, and if son Littleton should claim more than his equal share of the 11 negroes left by his grandmother Gertrude Harmanson (testator's three children [Anne, Henry, William] having died since she made her will), then all the above bequests to Littleton to go to daughters Gertrude and Anne. Residuary legatees were wife and four children (North. Wills 20:325-333).

In her will, signed 27 Oct 1753, Sophia Tazewell devised to son John Tazewell 1000 acres, 50 of which was "given me by my mother Gertrude Harmanson." She named son Littleton Tazewell executor and requested him to provide for his brother John a "liberal education" according to their father's will; she mentioned that son Littleton "lives so far off." She also made bequests to daughters Gertrude, Ann, and Mary Tazewell, to [half-brother] Matthew Harmanson, and to his nephews Littleton Eyre and John Harmanson; to Adah Harmanson and Sally Eyre, mourning rings; to Elizabeth, wife of John Harmanson; and to Sophia Harmanson (North. Wills 20:482-83).

H-4 LITTLETON EYRE, son of Severn and Gertrude (Harmanson) Eyre (H-2), born Northampton Co., Va. c1715/16; died Northampton Co. by 12 July 1768; married (North Co. marriage bond 15 Jan 1734/5) Bridget Harmanson, dau. of George. William Tazewell was security; consent of the groom's grandmother, Gertrude Harmanson, was granted. Bridget died before 1768. Both lie buried at "Eyre Hall" under a single large stone from which the inscription has weathered away. Seventeen large raised flat stone slabs nearly fill the graveyard, the earliest legible date 1789, the most recent 1987.

When first married, Littleton and Bridget lived on "Broad Creek Plantation" at Hungar's, which in 1735 was given to them by Bridget's father, originally patented 1640 to Col. Obedience Robins, 10 miles north of Eyre Hall. When in 1754 they acquired Eyre Hall (as the tract has ever since been known), part of the present house may already have been there, & Littleton may have started construction on the present house, the major section of which was completed by his son & grandson by c1776 (see photos & description in Whitelaw 190-98).

In 1733 Littleton was Sheriff of Northampton Co. In 1739 he sold the 300 acres in Somerset (now Worcester) Co. willed to him by grandmother Harmanson, "Pharsalia" (Dryden Worc. Land 472). In Feb 1766 Littleton Eyre was one of the Justices when, with Justices John Bowdoin, Nathaniel Savage, & others, the court responded to the English Stamp Act of 1764 by declaring that the act was not binding on the colony because it was "unconstitutional" (Whitelaw 40).

Littleton appears to have been a merchant. In his will, signed 7 May 1768 (prob. 12 July 1768) Littleton Eyre, "afflicted with the gout," started by providing that Mr. John Bowdoin of North Co. & Mr. Isaac Smith of Accomack Co., with whom he had for many years been partners (his share being three-eighths) and of whom he had had the "care and tuition," should collect & settle the many debts due, within at most 2 years. He provided that £2000 then be invested (in £500 segments) for the bene-fit of grandson Preeson Bowdoin, not yet 21, son of his daughter Sarah, Preeson also to receive a negro boy. He named son-in-law Preeson Bowdoin of Philadelphia, who had already received negro boy & cash. Grandchildren Littleton, Severn, Peggy & John, all under 21, children of son Severn Eyre, were to receive £500 each. He left "my chariot" to his daughter-in-law Margaret Eyre, she & Grace Bowdoin to have a diamond ring of £10 cost; to Miss Anne Holbrooke "my single riding chair"; to friend John Bowdoin 12 acres in Galts or Bridgetown for "his trouble in acting my Executor"; & to John Harmanson "my Store house & lot of Land at the Court-house which his father Kendall Harmanson gave to me." By the will "my only [surviving] child" Severn Eyre was to inherit all else: the plantation "whereon I now live" (760 A. bought of Armistead); 300 acres bought of Gawton Hunt; 228 acres purchased of William & Rachel Widgeon [i.e. "Eyre Hall" - Whitelaw 190]; "my Hungars Plantation," 743 A.; also a plantation purchased of John Harreman and John Wingate, 315 acres; 126 acre plantation purchased of Obedience Robins & Munk, & he confirmed the land already given to Severn "whereon he now lives," 486 acres (but the bounds containing 555 acres); and the seaside plantation, 600 acres, all these tracts amounting to 3909 acres, also the land leased of Secretary Nelson. He gave to Severn "all my Slaves," with those already in his possession amounting to 105. He named as executors Severn and friend John Bowdoin (North. Wills 24:174-5).

Children (born Northampton Co., Va.):

- H-9 1. Severn Eyre, b. ?Nov/Dec 1735; d. 25 Jan 1773.

2. Sarah Eyre, born 1738; died North. Co. 19 Dec 1760; bur. Eyre Hall; married (North. Bond 19 Feb 1759) PREESON BOWDOIN, son of Peter and Susanna (Preeson) Bowdoin (in mar. bond Sarah is identified as dau. of Littleton Eyre, Esq.) In 1760 Preeson and wife Sarah sold 3 tracts, 360, 200 and 190 acres, inherited from his father (Whitelaw 160, 153, 156) & he shortly moved to Philadelphia.

Child: Preeson Bowdoin, Jr., b. June 1760

H-5 LITTLETON TAZEWEEL, son of William and Sophia (Harmanson) Tazewell (H-3), b. Northampton Co., Va. 1728; d. Brunswick Co., Va. 1761; mar. (1752) Mary Gray, dau. of Joseph and Martha (Simmonds) Gray of Southampton Co., Va., b. [c1735]; d. 1807.

To be near his wife's family Littleton sold his land in North. Co. and moved to Brunswick Co., where he was a prosperous lawyer, wealthy landowner, clerk of the Court (Tazewell, Genealogy, 35, 44, 99; Tazewell, Meet the Taze wells 35). In North. Co. on 16 May 1754 he witnessed the will of Kendall Harmanson, but he had apparently moved by Oct 1753 when his mother, in her will named as executor son Littleton ("who lives so far off"), & requested her [half]-brother Matthew & nephew Littleton Eyre to take care of her children and her estate "until my son Littleton comes over and takes charge." In 1750 Littleton sold 86 acres inherited from his mother near modern Keller. In 1752 he sold 240 acres he had inherited indirectly from his grandmother and mother through the deaths of brothers Henry and William, also the 800 acres on Purgatory Creek near modern Capeville as well as the 215 A. on Dun Branch near modern Cheriton that had been bequeathed to him by his father (Whitelaw, 744, 72, 80).

Children (born probably Brunswick Co., Va.):

- H-10 1. Henry Tazewell, b. 27 Nov 1753; d. 24 Jan 1799.
2. Sarah Tazewell, b. c1759; d. as a child.

H-6 GERTRUDE TAZEWEEL, daughter of William and Sophia (Harmanson) Tazewell (H-3), b. Northampton Co., Va. 1731; d. North. Co., probably at "Elkington," Apr 1777; married (North. Co. marriage bond, 19 Feb. 1754, John Harmanson security) JOHN STRATTON, son of John & Susannah Stratton, b. ?Northampton Co., Va. [c1725]; d. North. Co. 26 Mar./14 Apr. 1795; both bur. King's Creek Plantation, North. Co.

In 1754 for £600 Stratton bought 615 acres just west of modern Capeville formerly bequeathed by William Tazewell to son Littleton; John and wife Gertrude sold it in 1771 for £1,845. The house on the tract today, known as the "J.B. Wilkins House," was probably built by John for his new bride soon after he bought the tract (Whitelaw, 103, 80-82; provides a description of the house). In 1765 Stratton bought 699 and 498 acres of the same tract; this latter on Elliott's Creek he deeded to son John in 1790. In 1777 he bought a 1000 A. plantation later known as "Eastfield," in Savage's Neck on Cherrystone Creek. In 1791 he bought most of the 1000 A. tract later known as "Elkington," formerly owned by the Tazewells, part of which became modern Eastville. These were only a part of his lands (Whitelaw, 86-87, 147, 236, 238, 241). (Some details from Tazewell chart compiled June 1958 by E. Bradford Tazewell, Sr.)

John Stratton, Sr., "of Hungar's Parish," in his will, signed 20 Mar 1795 (prob. 14 Apr 1795) bequeathed to son John land purchased of ("Col.) Isaac Avery, formerly property of Hillary Stringer, "Town Fields," purchased of Henry Guy, if son John conveys 498 acres in Maggoty Bay to "my daughter" Sarah Nivison and her husband John for their lives, then to grandson William Tazewell Nivison. Dau. Sarah to receive land purchased of John Goffigon, Jr., & cash. Son John Stratton was to receive "all my other lands" in Northampton Co., to remove rail timber from Kings Creek plantation to Town Fields "as usual." Grandchildren Anne Stratton Nivison, Wm. Tazewell Nivison, Sarah Stratton Nivison were to have 9 slaves, Anne & Sarah also to have money due him. Dau. and son-in-law John Nivison were to receive "all my lands" in the Town of Portsmouth. Executors: son John & son-in-law John Nivison. Witnesses: Sally Digges, Wm. Willis Plantation (North. Wills 29:377).

Children (born Northampton Co., Va.):

- H-13 1. Sarah Stratton, b. 30 Aug 1756; d. 3 May 1830; mar. her first cousin, JOHN NIVISON.
2. Ann Stratton, b. Sep 1757; d. Nov 1778; bur. King's Creek; mar. (North. bond 24 June 1778) GRIFFIN STITH, JR. (1753-94); no children.

H-11 3. John Stratton, Jr., b. 16 Aug 1769; d. 10 May 1804.

H-7 JOHN TAZEWEEL, son of William and Sophia (Harmanson) Tazewell (H-3), b. Northampton Co., Va. c1736; d. 7 Apr 1781, probably at "Tazewell Hall" in Williamsburg, Va.; mar. ?1st (c1766) ---, who d. by 1769; 2nd (Chesterfield Co., Va., 1770) Sarah Bolling, daughter of Major John & Elizabeth (Blair) Bolling, & a descendant of Pocahontas, b. 16 June 1748; d. ?Williamsburg, ?1825. If sons William & Littleton were baptised in 1767 and 1768, then Sarah Bolling was not their mother.

As a young man John was paralyzed in a duel and spent most of his life in a wheelchair. He attended Princeton Univ. & became a prominent, respected, & prosperous attorney in Williamsburg. Elected to the House of Burgesses, he succeeded Geo. Wythe as Clerk of the House, served as Clerk of the Revolutionary conventions of 1775-76 (Tazewell, Meet the Tazewells, p. 35; see also Wyndham Robertson and R.A. Brock, Pocahontas and her Descendants, 1887, p. 26). His name, as Clerk of the Convention, is signed to the Virginia Resolutions for Independence, 15 May 1776, to instruct the Virginia delegates to the "General Congress" to assent to declaring the "United Colonies" free from Great Britain, & resolving to appoint a committee to prepare a Declaration of Rights. He eventually became Judge of the General Court.

In 1773 John Tazewell petitioned the Va. Assembly to the effect that he "was seized in Fee Tail of a tract of Land in the county of Northampton containing about 1000 acres, in one corner of which the courthouse of the said county is erected; that the Land near the sd Courthouse is at present of little or no value to the Petitioner, but that it would be of considerable advantage to him, as well as to the Inhabitants of the said county, that the intail of a few acres thereof should be docked, and [the land] laid off in Lots for a Town"; thus began the town of Eastville (Whitelaw 238).

Tazewell's executors, including John & Henry Harmanson, qualified 9 Apr 1781; an inventory was filed 9 Sep 1782. (For this & details of children, especially baptisms, & son William, Calvert W. Tazewell, Jr., cites George Southall Papers, Tazewell Hall, Folder #146, Wm. & Mary Library & Williamsburg Foundation Library.)

In 1790 he sold to his cousin John Stratton 356 acres of the land he had inherited from his father, and later in 1790 he & his mother Sarah sold the "home place," 550 acres; in '98 it was resold to John Stratton. On the property is now located a house known as "Cessford," on the "Mill Quarter" part of "Elkington" (Whitelaw 238; see Pocahontas, p. 45). Some sources cite & others deny the following marriage.

He threw his considerable weight to Andrew Jackson in his first presidential campaign, 1828, declined Jackson's offer of the Secretaryship of War, then the Ambassadorship to England. Closely associated with John C. Calhoun in the Senate, he supported Calhoun in the nullification controversy, 1832-33; late in 1832 the South Carolina delegation to the Electoral College cast all their votes for Littleton Tazewell as vice-president. Disappointed in Pres. Jackson, he left the Democratic Party and led in the formation of the Whig Party after the 1832 election. He was appointed to a committee of 7 to draw a new Va. Constitution in 1829-30. Retiring from the Senate to a private life (he hoped) with his family, he was "drafted" to run for governor (1833), won without conducting any campaign.

However, after about two years as governor (1834-36), he found himself faced with a dilemma in a political crisis. As Senator, Tazewell had voted for a resolution critical of Pres. Jackson. Recently elected pro-Jackson legislatures in Va. & elsewhere encouraged the Senate to introduce an "Expunging Resolution," to expunge from Senate records the previous resolution. Its introduction produced a furor. The Va. legislature passed a resolution instructing Gov. Tazewell to direct the Va. Senators to vote in favor of the "Expunging Resolution." Tazewell, opposed to the principle of expunging resolutions, felt it was illegal, yet he felt that the duly elected Va. assembly was obeying orders from the people. Faced with the irreconcilable dilemma of disobeying the Va. assembly or violating his principles, he resigned and resumed his law practice. In retirement (1836-60) he was honored as Virginia's first citizen (Tazewell, Genealogy, 11-13, 100-101; Who Was Who in America, 522; see Appleton's Cyclopedia of American Biography), 1889, VI:56-57; D.A.B. 18:354-57 offers an appraisal of his character).

RELATIONSHIP OF THE LITTLETONS TO THE RULERS OF ENGLAND

J - THE ROBINS FAMILY

Major John Robins, who wed Esther Littleton, was a son of Col. Obedience Robins, "chirurgion" (1601-62) from Long Buckby, Northamptonshire, England, and his wife, Grace O'Neil (1600-83). Grace had arrived in Virginia in 1618 in the Diana, with Sir George Yeardley (to serve as Colonial Governor); she first married Lt. Edward Waters (d. England 1630); their only son William Waters (1623-1689), half-brother of John Robins, was father of Richard Waters, who married Esther Littleton Waters' niece, Elizabeth Littleton (G-1); i.e. John's nephew married Esther's niece. Col. Obedience Robins, in Virginia by 1628, was appointed one of the first commissioners (justices) of Accomack Co. in 1632, was six times a member of the House of Burgesses, and a member of the Council (see Dorman pp. 461-62, 650-52). According to tradition, the name of Accomack County was changed in 1642 to Northampton in honor of his native shire in England.

Col. Robins settled on a 950 acre tract known as "Salt Grove" or "Cherrystone," on Cherrystone Creek, northwest of modern Cheriton in Northampton Co., which passed to his son, Major John Robins, and continued in the family until 1866. The family grew and flourished. For over three centuries, unlike the other Littleton branches, descendants in large numbers have been remarkably steadfast in remaining on the Virginia Eastern Shore. The first, and for over five decades the only, family member to move away was Thomas (J-4), third son of Major John, who in 1709 bequeathed to Thomas a sizable tract of land on Chincoteague Island in Somerset

(now Worcester) Co., Md., on which Thomas had no doubt already settled. Thomas's descendants have likewise remained well-established in Worcester Co., except a few who were attracted to Philadelphia, especially Thomas (J-90), who in 1815 moved there and started the "Philadelphia" branch. His descendants have scattered to New York and many other parts of the country and to England. A great-niece of Thomas Robins (J-4), Anne Kendall (J-42) in 1759 married John Scarborough already settled in Worcester Co., but many of their descendants have disappeared from the Shore. In the past century those who remained in Virginia also finally began to disperse, to the Norfolk area, Richmond, Baltimore, and farther afield, but a great many Robins descendants still reside on the Eastern Shore of both Virginia and Maryland.

As for sources, family members very early began to collect and preserve information. Edward Robins (1706-79, J-8), who lived close to the early events and could question knowledgeable relatives, probably about the 1760's compiled a "family manuscript," on which Doctor. Robert Patterson Robins (1857-1905, J-201) partly based an article, including his own updated additions; "The Robins Family" appeared in The Richmond Standard, 4 Sep 1880 (referred to herein as RPR). He also dealt briefly with the Robins family in "A Tentative Pedigree of the Littleton Family of Virginia," in the New England Historical and Genealogical Register, Oct 1887. Another compilation is a pedigree chart, "The American Branch of the Robins Family" by Edward Robins of South Point (1769-1857, J-51), and an expanded and updated version, based on this and on R.P. Robins, both in the Snow Hill (Md.) Public Library (referred to here as Am. Branch). The most substantial account is by Thomas Robins (1868-1952, J-207), who, drawing upon earlier accounts and his own knowledge and research, produced "Facts of a Family," New York, May 1939 (referred to herein as TR); on pp. 69-73 appears a Robins-Littleton lineage back through the Greys to Henry III of England. Some errors are to be found in both the RPR and TR accounts; there are a few discrepancies in dates among sources and with dates in public records. There is some confusion in that different accounts number the many Thomas Robinses differently. The first five Robins generations are well treated by Dorman in Adventurers of Purse and Person (pp. 461-467).

Another very useful smaller source has been "Genealogy of the Kendall and Robins Families," manuscript compiled from the "Northampton Co. Records, Private papers belonging to Severn Eyre, 'The Littleton Family of Virginia,' a manuscript copy of the Genealogies contained in the old Teackle Bible of Craddock, & the old Robins Bible of Salt Grove, which copy was made by Maria Robins [J-21 & J-81] in 1800, original in possession of Emily S. Robins [J-97] of Eastville, Va.," signed Nannie Teackle Floyd [J-130], 1898 (referred to here as Kendall MS), made available by Mrs. Jarvis C. Orr. Other Bible records have also survived to provide evidence.

The source for the Gibb family (starting at J-109) is Lester & Valena Gibb, The William Gibb Family in America, Baltimore, 1988. Other substantial contributors throughout have been William R. Bishop, Jr., William B. Wilkins, Alf J. Mapp, Jr., and the late E. Spencer Wise.

J-1 (MAJOR) JOHN ROBINS, son of Col. Obedience and Grace (O'Neill) Robins, born Northampton Co., Va., at "Salt Grove" or "Cherrystone," 6 July 1636; died same place by 28 May 1709; mar. (North. 9 Jan 1662/63 [RPR]) ESTHER LITTLETON, only daughter of Col. NATHANIEL (A-1) and ANN (SOUTHEY) LITTLETON, born North. Co. 1648; died ? "Salt Grove" before Dec 1707.

For his education John was sent to his uncle Richard Robins in England, where he reportedly attended Oxford. As the "heir apparent" of his father, on 25 June 1663 he consented to a sale of land made by his father in 1653; Grace Robins his mother joined with her consent. On 28 Feb 1676/7 he was appointed Sheriff of Northampton Co. for the "great and good services...[at] his owne great expense & cost [he] hath done his Sacred Majesty in the late horrid rebellion" (Dorman 463). In Oct 1675 he patented 1550 acres on Jingateague (Chincoteague) Island in Somerset (later Worcester Co.), Md. He had inherited all his father's land (his elder brother Obedience having died in 1683): in 1704 he owned 1180 acres in Northampton Co., 2700 acres in Accomack Co. (Dorman 463). In 1702 and 1703 he was a justice of the Northampton Co. Court.

In his lengthy and detailed will, dated 5 Dec 1707 (prob. 28 May 1709) John bequeathed to his eldest son Obedience "my plantation that I now live on," by patent 950 acres, also 2 negroes, plus animals, feather bed, etc., for his maintenance, with reversion to [next] son John, who was to look after Obedience and have management of his property. Son Edward was to have 680 acres for "which I took a patent for him," plus 390 acres, 3 negroes, silver bowl. To son Littleton he confirmed 1000 acres formerly given to him, and reversion of 300 acres more, also left him 53 acres "Fiddlers" Island, plus a negro, a silver salt, and horses etc. To son Thomas he bequeathed 1110 acres at "ye head of his brother Edwards land," by patent (the land on Chincoteague Island in Md.), plus such "moveables that I have heretofore given him," & 250 gals. of "cyder casques."

To daughter Esther, wife of Arthur Denwood of Somerset Co., Md., Major Robins bequeathed cattle & horses on "my part" of Jingoteague, and to his six grandchildren (of Esther and Arthur), i.e. Esther, Levin, John, Pressila, Arthur & Betty Denwood - 6 yearling heifers & 6 silver spoons. He confirmed to son-in-law Hillary Stringer & Grace his wife "my daughter" what he had already given them, & bequeathed to them 2 negroes, 6 silver spoons, 6 cain chairs (one broken), "looking glass in the little chamber next the garden," cattle, feather bed and fine Holland sheets, & he discharged Hillary of any debts due him. Daughter Elizabeth was to have "leadern box which was her grandmother Littletons," 2 negroes, several head of cattle, several feather beds and bed-ding, a trunk, 40 lbs. of pewter, etc. Son John was to have 20 head of cattle, sheep, feather bed and bedding, pine chest "in the porch chamber," a trunk, a dozen cain chairs "that came from Mr. Wise marchant in London," couch, cupboard, table, and many other items of furniture in hall, hall chamber, kitchen, parlor, etc. His five sons, to receive land on Jingoteague Island purchased from Wm. Kendall (where a negro couple look after the stock), were all named executors, to be advised by "my friends" (Col.) William Waters [half-brother], (Capt.) Thos. Savage, Geo. Harmanson, Hillary Stringer. Witnesses were Nathaniel Willkins, Thos. & John Savage, Francis Steel. In a codicil of 1 Feb 1704/5 he left a 15 acre tract in Somerset Co. to Nathaniel Littleton (brother of "my kinsman" Bowman Littleton dec'd) & to Richard Waters (brother-in-law of Bowman Littleton), land lying along Bowman Littleton's tract to the line of William Whittington's land, which came to him by his wife "Mrs." Esther Littleton, for want of heirs to Southy Littleton brother of Bowman. In a 2nd codicil of 25 Mar 1709 he and son John both being very ill, if son John should predecease him he left to John's son Peleg 200 acrs adj. "Town Fields" & on Cherry Stones Creek, also 200 acres more, to be John's if he live, John also to have 150 acres more. If John predecease him, the 650 acres left to son Obedience was to go to John's wife Katherine (North. Deeds, Wills, etc. 19:23-32).

J-2 JOHN ROBINS, JR., son of Major John and Esther (Littleton Robins, b. Northampton Co., Va., at "Salt Grove," 29 Apr 1669; d. probably at "Salt Grove" by 7 July 1740; married (?North. 16 Jan 1703/4) Katherine Teackle, daughter of Rev. Thomas & Margaret (Nelson) Teackle, and sister of his brother Littleton's wife, b. c1685; d. North. Co. 23 Feb/ 8 Apr 1754 (RPR).

In his very detailed will, signed 13 Dec 1739 (prob. 8 July 1740) John Robins, Sr., "Gent.," bequeathed to son Edward Robins that part of "my plantation I now live on" where Matthew Welch lives, and water mill & plantation where "son Edward now lives," all part of bay side land "I now live on" [i.e. "Salt Grove"], brother Obedience to have Welch's rents. Remainder of plantation was to go to his "loving wife" Katherine during her life, then the whole 950 A. to son Edward. Edward was also left 130 acres where John Richards lives, and grandson John Robins (under 18) was to have all remaining land in the seaside patent, also reversion of John Daniel's lease for 300 A. (out of 1400). Edward was to have "my part" of Gingo-teague given by "my father," also half the Gingo-teague negroes and animals "given by my brother Littleton to brother Obedience and me."

Grandson John Robins was to have the part of Gingo-teague Island given by father to Obedience. If son Edward & grandson John Robins should die without heirs, then lands in North. Co. to go to daughters Margaret & Esther, "my" Gincoteague lands to granddaughter Sarah Robins (under 18, sister to John). To brother Obedience he left "a reasonable maintenance during his life to take care of him." He then proceeded to distribute nine negroes, to grandchildren John Robins, William Waters, Sarah Robins, & Margaret Burton, to daughters Margaret Burton (also a silver beaker), Esther Pugh (also silver spoons), & wife. To wife & son Edward he left his "Petty:Auger" with all its rigging, appointed son Edward & William Burton to oversee grandson John Robins' estate (North. Co. Wills 18:360-363).

In her will, dated 23 Feb 1754, Katharine Robins bequeathed to son [i.e. son-in-law] William Burton f5, appointed him executor with grandson John Robins. She also named son Edward Robins, daughters Esther Pugh & Margaret Robins [i.e. daughter-in-law], and the three children of "my daughter" Margaret Burton dec'd., vizt. William Waters, Margaret Burton & Mary Burton (North. Co. Wills 20:516-17). Littleton Robins, namesake of John's brother Littleton, who named the boy as "nephew" in his will (Mar 1718/19), was probably a son of John.

Children (born "Salt Grove," Northampton Co., Va.):

- J-7 1. John Robins [III], b. 9 Mar 1704/5; d. by 14 Jan 1734/35.
- J-8 2. Edward Robins, b. 1706; d. 4 Sep/13 Oct 1779.

J-3 EDWARD ROBINS, son of Major John and Esther (Littleton) Robins, b. "Salt Grove," Northampton Co., Va. c1671; d. Accomack Co., Va., possibly on Chincoteague Island, by 6 Aug 1728; mar. Elizabeth ---.

By his will, dated 13 Feb 1720/21, he devised to his wife Elizabeth half the benefit of a parcel of land and marsh adjacent "my dwelling plantation," called "Little Pasture," and half "my dwelling plantation for life." To his daughter Barbara he left the cattle her grandfather John Robins gave her, to son John "all my land in Virginia or Maryland" given to me by "my father" John Robins and Mr. Bowman Littleton, part being "my dwelling plantation"; for want of heirs, this to go to his 3 daughters Barbara, Easter Littleton Robins, Elizabeth Robins. If all daughters die without issue, half the land was to go to "my nephew" Bodon Robins, son of Thomas Robins, the other half to "my nephew" Edward Robins, son of John Robins. To his three daughters he left "all my land & marsh on Gingoteague Island & all creatures according to my father's will." His wife and four children were residuary legatees. J-4 THOMAS ROBINS, of "Salt Grove," son of Major John and Esther (Littleton) Robins (J-1), born "Salt Grove," Northampton Co., Va. 1677; d. Somerset (later Worcester Co., Md., by 22 Mar 1731/2, probably on Chincoteague Island, at his estate called "Gengoligus"; mar. (Boston, Mass. c1699) Elizabeth Bowdoin, dau. of Pierre and Elizabeth Bowdoin of Boston (Dorman 465).

Thomas Robins paid taxes until 1723 on 1550 acres, "Jingoteague," in Md., patented in 1675 by John Robins. On 2 Sep 1728 John Mackuitt of Cecil Co. Md. with wife Dorothy and Thomas Robins, attorney, of Somerset Co. sold 133 acres "Strand" to Francis Mercer, that Walter Taylor and wife Sarah had sold to John; on 21 Aug 1739 Thomas Robins with wife Elizabeth sold 112 acres more to Francis Mercer (Dryden Worc. Land 332, 613). Thomas Robins was principally a merchant.

In his will, signed 15 Feb 1730/31, Thomas Robins of Somerset Co., Md., devised to son John Robins the plantation where Samuel Hudson lived, with land between the line of Nehemiah Hallon and William Cord, said line to pass through Little Swamp to Col. Littleton's line. To son James he devised a tract on the Blackwater River, Dorchester Co., Md., to son Thomas Robins, a tract on Sarah's Creek, in Gloucester Co., York River, Virginia. Should son Thomas inherit his brother Bowdin's land, then this land should go to his brother James. Son Bowdin Robins was to receive all the rest of "lands called Gingoteague lying...in Sumersett County and on where I dwell." His part of land and marsh on Gingoteague Island in Accomack Co. was to go equally to his four sons in common, Bowdin, Thomas, James & John, provided that Bowdin confirm the gift of land already made to his bro. John, otherwise his part of land on Gingoteague Island in Md. to go to John; Thomas desired that if the brothers sell any Gingoteague Island land, it go only to each other or to other Robinses who own land on the island. He named daus. Mary (negro boy, large silver poringer, 3 silver spoons & 1 silver fork, a black walnut table), Elizabeth (negro girl, one large silver porringer, 3 silver spoons, 1 silver fork, a Dutch table, 1 mare), Easter (silver quart pot, 3 silver spoons, a walnut table, a young mare), Susannah (large silver tankard, 3 silver spoons, a large oval table, 1 feather bed & furniture, one young mare), the latter two daughters under 18. To his "loving wife" he left the use of a negro woman, and her issue, after wife's death all to be divided between two youngest daughters. He bequeathed to wife a third of personal estate not already disposed of, and appointed her and sons Thomas and Bowdin executors, and loving Kinsman John Robins overseer of his will. Three of witnesses were John Purnell, Cuthbert Russell, John Patrick (Md. Archives, Prerogative Court Wills 20:512-15).

The final account for his estate is undated, but the immediately preceding account was submitted to the court 23 June 1737. Elizabeth Robins, Bowdoin & Thomas Robins were executors. Payments were made to creditors, among others, John Scarborough, James Bowdoin (acct. in New England money), David Wilson, and finally to the heirs: "John Fossitt in Legacys left [to] his Wife," to "Rouse Fossitt in Legacies left his wife," to Elizabeth Robins "the third part of the Estate coming to her," to Bowdoin Robins, Thos. Robins, to "John Fossitt the Bal. of his Wifes portion," to Rouse Fassitt, and to Susanna Robins "part of her portion" (Md. Archives, Prerogative Court Accts. 14:340-342).

Dorman (465, footnote 46) suggests that the dates provided by R. P. Robins may be erroneous, for Bowdoin Robins declared in a deposition about 1740 that he was aged 34 (in Pennsylvania Archives, 2nd series, XVI [Harrisburg 1890], p. 691). Children were all born on Chincoteague Island, in present Worcester Co.

J-5 GRACE ROBINS, daughter of Major John and Esther (Littleton) Robins, b. "Salt Grove," Northampton Co., Va. c1681; d. North Co. between 19 Jan 1718/19 and 18 Mar 1721/22; married (c1699) HILLARY STRINGER [II], son of Hillary (who was son of John Stringer), born c1670; died North. Co. by 1 July 1722.

In 1689 Hillary's grandfather Col. John Stringer had devised to son Hillary 400 acres in North. Co., "where I now live"; and 1600 acres in Accomack Co., Va., purchased from Wm. Taylor, to his grandsons, sons of Hillary (I): John (600 acres at head of Ochohanock Creek), Hillary II (600 acres), and Thomas (400 acres)(North. Wills XVII, No. 13:7-16). Hillary (II) inherited his brother John's 600, in 1704 purchased his brother Thomas's 400, thus reuniting the entire 1600 acres (Whitelaw 595).

Grace's father John Robins, in his will, dated 5 Dec 1707, made bequests of slaves, cattle, and furniture to son-in-law Hillary Stringer and his wife Grace "my daughter." Grace's brother Littleton Robins in his will dated 19 Jan 1718/19 named "nephew" John Stringer, son to Hillary Stringer; Grace and Hillary witnessed the will, but when Hillary made his will three years later he referred to "side saddle that was my wife's."

Hillary Stringer was County Clerk for North. Co. in 1721-22, presumably at the time of his death.

In his will, dated 18 Mar 1721/22 (prob. 10 July 1722) he bequeathed to son Hillary 270 acre plantation "whereon I now live" [subsequently known as "Cugley" - Whitelaw 230], also the reversion of the two plantations (700 acres) where Richard Davis & Abraham Collins live, and a large silver tankard; to son John, under 21, "my 1000 acres" in Acco. Co. To daughter Anne Stringer he left 6 silver spoons marked "IRE," 20s, the side saddle "that was my wife's," etc.; to dau. Esther Stringer 5 silver spoons, etc., the two to share his wife's clothes. He named his two sons as executors, appointed friends Col. George Harmanson, John Robins [brother-in-law], Jacob Stringer [brother], Thomas Harmanson [brother-in-law] to act as overseers, and requested that Mrs. Katherine Robins [brother-in-law's wife] and Mrs. Elizabeth Harmanson [sister-in-law] bring up his two daughters (North. Wills XXIII-R [1718-25]:149).

Whitelaw (595) was in error in stating that son John died without issue. And according to Whitelaw (98) Anne Stringer, Hillary's daughter, mar. William Willett, and d. 18 Oct 1739/ 11 Mar 1739/40. However, Willett's wife was the sister, not daughter, of this Hillary. Much of the Stringer family history and the descent of the Acco. Co. land for 5 generations is found in a 1769 Chancery suit (see Stratton Nottingham, Accomack Land Causes 1718-1825, Heritage Books, 1990, pp. 27-29).

Children (born Northampton Co., Va.):

- J-14 1. Hillary Stringer, (III), b. c1700; d. by 10 July 1744.
 2. Anne Stringer, b. c1706. She witnessed the will of her Uncle Obedience Robins May 1731.
 J-15 3. John Stringer, b. c1708; d. by 9 Apr 1751.

4. Esther Stringer, b. c1710; d. North. Co. by 10 Jan 1737, intestate; unmar. "Elder brother" Hillary Stringer was administrator (Marshall 279).

J-6 ELIZABETH ROBINS, daughter of Major John and Esther (Littleton) Robins (J-1), b. "Salt Grove," Northampton Co., Va. c1687; d. North. Co. 3 Aug/ 13 Sep 1757; mar. (c1710) THOMAS HARMANSON III, son of Thomas Harmanson II and his wife Grace Andrews, b. c1680; died North. Co. by 14 Sep 1725.

In his will, signed 30 Apr 1723, Thomas bequeathed to "loving wife Elizabeth" four negroes, all his cattle on Gingoteague Island, best bed & furniture, etc., also "all my Tobacco corn and Wheat Debt for and towards schooling my children." She was to have half of his land during widowhood; if she should remarry, in lieu of her thirds he gave her during her life 100 acres on Hogg Island & the plantation where Joseph Tolman was then living, 150 acres. Other negroes were to be equally divided among his children (except William) when son William reaches 18 or dau. Catherine marries. Son William was to have bridle, saddle, pistols and holsters, sword, best gun, wearing apparel, and a horse left to him by his cousin John Robins, and he made other bequests to daughters Catherine, Esther, Elishe, all the rest to be equally divided among wife & children. He left a ring to Wm. Tazewell, "the posey [motto] being a friends Gift," & to Mathew Harmanson, "the posey being remember your Uncle J. H." and left money to Severn Eyre and John Harmanson to buy rings. His wife was to keep all the [girls] until lawful age or marriage, William to remain under her custody until 18, but he was not at liberty to sell or alter his estate until 21, without the license of the overseers. As overseers he named "loving friends" William Tazewell, Severn Eyre, Mathew Harmanson, John Harmanson, and appointed his wife as executrix. Witnesses: Gertrude Harmanson, Sophia Harmanson, Jonathan Stephens (North. Wills & Deeds No. 26: 16-17). The 908 acres of land which descended to his son William lay southeast of Eastville (Whitelaw 209).

Elizabeth Harmanson, widow, in her will, signed 3 Aug 1757 (prob. 13 Sep 1757), bequeathed to dau. Katherine Justice a horse & mare; to daughters Elishe Kendall & Elizabeth Kendall negroes. Residuary legatees were Elizabeth Harmanson [daughter-in-law], Margaret Ker [dau. of sister Katherine], the children of "my daughter" Esther Respass dec'd, dau. Elishe Kendall & dau. Elizabeth Kendall; executors to be daughter Elishe Kendall, son [-in-law] John Kendall, grandson [-in-law] John Harmanson (Marshall 372). Since Elizabeth's only son William had died without issue, the John Harmanson in her will must be the husband of her daughter Katherine's daughter. Children (born Northampton Co., Va.):

1. William Harmanson, b. c1711; d. North. Co. 28 Mar/ 10 Apr 1733; mar. Elizabeth ---; no children. He was named as "cousin" in the will of John Robins, Jr. (son of Littleton, J-1), 7 May 1720. In his will he left to his mother use of his lands after death of his wife, after mother's death most of the lands to sisters Katherine, Esther, & Elishe, to sister Elizabeth 100 acres on Hogg Island, (Marshall 283). In 1756-58 two suits were brought in the Court of Chancery in North. Co. to divide William's land among his sisters or their heirs; the suits spell out the family relationships (Nottingham, Virginia Land Causes: North. Co. 60-64).

In his will, signed 28 Nov. 1734 (prob. 14 Jan 1734/ 1735) [Col.] John Robins, Sr., left son John Robins 8 negroes, wife Susannah & daughter Sarah 5 negroes. He declared that "my honoured father John Robins may take my son John" until he comes of age, "loving brother" Edward Robins & William Burton [brother-in-law] to be guardians if father dies; executors to be wife, father. Witnesses were Jacob Batson, Mary Godwin, Jane Floyd (North. Wills 18:68). Children by the first marriage.

J-8 EDWARD ROBINS, son of John (J-2) and Katherine (Teackle) Robins, born Northampton Co., Va. 1706; died North. Co. 4 Sep / 13 Oct 1779; married (?North. 9 Nov 1739) Margaret Teackle, dau. of John & Susanna (Upshur) Teackle of Craddock, b. 14 Mar 1720/21; d. 8 Oct 1794. His father bequeathed to him "Cherrystone" (i.e. "Salt Grove") and the old family mansion. He was a justice of North. Co. (Dorman 464).

In his will, dated 4 Sep 1779, Edward Robins, Sr., bequeathed to wife Margaret use of one-third of the plantation "I now live on," 950 acres by patent [i.e. "Salt Grove"], including houses, half an apple & peach orchard, also to include 100 acres "where formerly I lived," which will be left to son Edward, wife also to have 11 negroes, after her death or marriage four to go to son John, the rest to son Nelson. To daughter Susanna he left three negroes, two to daughter Esther. Son Edward was to have part of plantation "I formerly lived on" after wife takes her 100 acres during widowhood, also to have 6 negroes, son John to have remainder of plantation with 6 negroes (& silver hilted sword). Son Nelson was to have plantation where David Barret, Anne Stoytle and Grace Wheeler live, also two negroes, and he named daughter-in-law Elizabeth Robins. Witnesses: Elizabeth Robins, Leah Savage, Littleton Savage (North. Wills No. 26:297).

It was Edward who authored the "family manuscript." In his account of his family he omitted his own birth date but reported all other family dates, notably of his children who died early. (Was he actually married two months after his first child was born? Or was his memory faulty?)

Margaret Robins made her will 21 Mar 1790, signed with an X (prob. 9 Dec 1794), naming daughters Esther Boinsard and Susanna, and daughter-in-law Elizabeth Robins. The remainder of her estate, along with her part of her son Nelson's estate (not yet allotted to her) to go to her daughters Susanna & Esther. J-35 GRACE STRINGER, daughter of Hillary (III)(J-14) and Elishe (Harmanson) Stringer, b. Northampton Co., Va. c1731; d. North. Co. by 11 Sept 1792 (bond); mar. (North. bond 10 Jan 1754) JOHN BOWDOIN, son of Peter & Adah (Harmanson) Bowdoin, b. c1725; d. North. Co. by 14 Nov 1775.

John Bowdoin was a Justice in Feb 1766/7, together with Justices Littleton Eyre & Nathaniel Savage, when the North. Co. Court responded to the English Stamp Act (1764), declaring that the act was not binding on the colony because it was "unconstitutional" (Turman 125).

About 1772 Bowdoin 1772 bought a plantation from Severn & Margaret Eyre, which he called Bowdoin Hunger's Plantation, just north of Eastville and south of Machipongo. He appears to have been a merchant: in his will he mentions a storehouse lately occupied by Bowdoin, Eyre, and Smith and his partnerships with Littleton Eyre, dec'd, & Isaac Smith, and now Severn Eyre and Smith, and requests that his surviving partners settle his accounts as soon as possible and that his brother, Preeson Bowdoin, arrange for John's sons to be properly educated and then bound out to merchants.

He signed his will 27 Oct 1770 (prob. 14 Nov 1775), indicating that all his children were under 21. To eldest son John he devised his 486 acre plantation in Hungar's Parish where "I now live" purchased of Severn Eyre, & 16 negroes; to son Peter 808 acre plantation in Hungar's Parish, given by his late father, where Wm. Biggs lives, plus 66 adj. acres. & 7 negroes; to son James the 84 acre plantation bought of Geo. Jordan, the 102 acre plantation bought of Wm. Downs, the 300 acre Church plantation, 12 acres & houses at Hungar's Bridge given by Littleton Eyre, plus 6 negroes and £500. He made bequests to daughters Elizabeth, Margaret, Hannah, Mary, Sarah, each a negro & £1000, his "loving wife" Grace to have 5 negroes & £1000. Three negroes were to be sold. He requested that the family graveyard at "my seaside plantation" be enclosed by a brick wall. Executors named were brother Preeson & friends Isaac Smith & Thorowgood Smith. Witnesses were Margaret Eyre, John Stoughton Harmanson, Wm. Floyd, John Ball, Richard Hewett, John Stringer. In a codicil 20 Apr 1773 he bequeathed to dau. Susanna a negro & £1000, left to son James £500 in lieu of house & lot sold, plus negro, to son Peter 2 negroes, to son John a negro, wife Grace to retain use of the house "I now live in" during widowhood. In another codicil 24 Sep 1775 he gave son John 176 acres purchased of John Stoughton Harmanson if he pay son Peter £1000 (North. Wills & Inventories, XXXIII-R, No.25: 455-467. Grace died intestate in 1792; administrator was Peter Bowdoin, appraisers John Winder, John Martin, Nathaniel Holland, Jas. Lyon (Marshall 508). (This line was developed by William B. Wilkins.)

A suit was brought in Acco. Co. Chancery Court by Anne Stringer, widow of Thomas, with daughters Sarah and Margaret (with husband Custis), vs. Wm. F. Stringer, for equal partition of inherited land. In 1792 Thos. Stringer had conveyed to John Floyd Stringer a tract of 105 A. On 5 May 1804 Anne, with John F., Sarah, Wm. F., and James Stringer, deeded 21 acres (part of the 105) to John Stringer, son of Hillary. On 24 May 1804 John F. Stringer conveyed the balance of the land to William F. Stringer, which he on 4 Feb 1806 deeded to sister Peggy Smart Custis. The outcome was that Wm. F. Stringer gave bond to convey 1/4 of land to each of the parties (Nottingham, Acco. Land Causes 96-97). According to Whitelaw (595) John F. Stringer had joined Thos. in the 1792 sale of Thos's home place to Berry Floyd.

J-37 ELIZABETH SHEPHERD, daughter of John and

Katherine (Harmanson) Shepherd (J-16), b. Northampton Co., Va. c1734; married (c1755) JOHN HARMANSON, son of Matthew & Rachel (Roberts) Harmanson, b. c1730; d. North. Co. by 13 Feb 1787. John was a Burgess in 1765 when the General Assembly expressed indignation over the Stamp Act, was present when Patrick Henry, in a celebrated impassioned speech, offered resolutions against taxation without representation, which the Assembly adopted to send in a petition to Parliament (Turman 125). Probably John was a merchant, for at the end of his will he asked Edward Kerr [his wife's brother-in-law] to "do my business in England."

In his will, signed 9 Feb 1784 (prob. 13 Feb 1787), John Harmanson, Sr., Gent., bequeathed to "loving wife" (unnamed) use of the plantation "whereon I now live" for life. His three daughters Catherine, Susanna, Peggy Harmanson were to have 500 A. in Isle of Wight Co., to be divided after son Matthew comes of age. Son Matthew was to have the remainder of the Isle of Wight plantation (about 760 A.), or the 538 A. plantation "whereon I now live," son Thomas to have what is left after Matthew makes his choice. His wife was to have the use of the children's estates until they reach lawful age, the two boys to remain in their schools. The son who takes the Isle of Wight land was to receive 4 negroes (3 already there), the other son and three daughters 4 negroes each, & 1 to his wife. To granddaughter Molly Darby he left a negro girl & £100, would have given her more but for the negroes already given to son-in-law John Darby. He named as executors his wife, brothers Henry and Wm. Harmanson, & John Darby (Marshall 489-90).

(Since John did not name his wife, it is not certain that Elizabeth was the mother of his children, though his naming Edward Kerr appears to support the fact that Elizabeth was still his wife when he died.)

J-38 MARGARET SHEPHERD, daughter of John and Katherine (Harmanson) Shepherd (J-16), b. Northampton Co., Va. c1735; mar. (c1753) EDWARD KER, of Cessford, Scotland, b. c1725; d. Accomack Co., Va. by 18 Oct 1790.

Edward Ker was evidently a merchant as well as a planter. In 1755 he bought the 350 acre tract in Acco. Co. (on the Bayside southeast of modern Pungoteague) from his wife's sister & her husband, the Harmansons, her sister's interest in their father's land (Whitelaw 664). In 1784 he bought 200 acres near Occohannock Creek in North. Co., 109 A. near his Acco. Co. land, & 400 acres east of modern Painter. In 1785 he bought 179 acres on "Great Nuswattocks River" in Acco. Co. near the 1755 plantation, 100 acres of which he & wife deeded to son George in 1787, & bequeathed to him the balance (Whitelaw 664, 675, 536, 663), and he bought other tracts. In the will of his wife's brother-in-law, John Harmanson, Edward was asked to handle John's business in England. In Feb 1765 it was Edward Ker who introduced a resolution in the Acco. Co. Court not to enforce the Stamp Act.

In his will, dated 17 May 1786, he bequeathed to wife the plantation "where I live," 350 acres, for life, then to son George. He bequeathed to son George, plantation bought of Thos. H. Parker, 157 acres; to son John Shepard Ker, 300 acres of land bought of James Cox, the line dividing him & his brother Hugh to be the branch running into the head of Pungoteague; to son Hugh, all land purchased of Jas. Broughton, 109 acres, 98 acres, & plantation bought of Michael R. Tatham. To son Edward he left all land in North, Co. and lands in Accomack Co. bought of Harmons & Ed. Polson. To daus. Jean Scarborough, Catharine Christian, & Ann Revell he left 243 acres in Gloucester Co., to daus. Elizabeth & Isabel, £500 to be paid in slaves, etc. In a codicil dated 28 Sep 1788 he modified bequests, Hugh to have all the land & plantation near the Court House & several lots; Edward to have the land and plantation bought of Michael R. Tatham on north side of Andua [?Nandua Creek]; John to have the remainder of land purchased of John Cox, 98 A. etc.; daughter Margaret to have her board with one of her brothers with an annual stipend; deceased daughter Ann Revell's representatives to have share equal with her sisters (Nottingham 309-310).

A suit was instituted in Accomack Co. Chancery Court in Mar 1801 by John S. Ker and others vs. a committee for Hugh Ker, "an insane person," to divide lands that their father Edward Ker had left to brother Edward, Jr., who had died intestate without issue. When sale of the land was ordered, John purchased Edward's part. All the heirs were listed: Sarah widow of George Ker, dec'd, & his children Nancy, John, Margaret; surviving brothers & sisters, John S. Ker, Hugh Ker, Elizabeth Seymour and Isabella Bowman; Edmund Scarborough, Jr., Margaret Coward, Alice Bayly and Edward, William & Elizabeth Scarborough, children of dec'd sister Jane Scarborough; William, John, & George Edward Christian, children of dec'd sister Catherine Christian; John & Margaret Revell, children of dec'd sister Ann Revell; Smith Snead, only child of dec'd sister Margaret Snead. "Her second son was lost at sea & she left living three sons & two daughters." (Some details from Wm. B. Wilkins.)

To daughter Esther he left his Magotty Bay plantation, "Golden Quarter, 692 acres. In 1761 John Guy purchased from Nathaniel L. & Anne Savage 550 acres, part of the original patent to Southy Littleton (1674), i.e. part of the original Harmar land, near present-day Capeville (Whitelaw 79, 86-87).

J-42 ANNE KENDALL, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Harmanson) Kendall (J-19), born Northampton Co., Va. c1742; d. by 1792; mar. (North. bond 26 June 1759) JOHN SCARBURGH (SCARBOROUGH), JR., son of John and Mary Cade (Wise) Scarborough, and brother of her sister Peggy's husband (J-26), b. c1725; d. Worc. Co., Md. 1800/10. Her father John Kendall Gent. gave consent to her marriage.

John's father John Scarborough in his will (7/19 Sep 1775) devised to him a plantation, 300 A of "Mardike." On 4 Oct 1777 John Scarborough of John with wife Ann, in a division of land, sold to his brother Samuel 400 acres "Scarboroughs Castle"; on 1 Mar 1792 John Scarborough Sr. sold 1100 acres of "Scarboroughs Castle." On 24 May 1770 John Scarborough, Jr., and wife Ann bought from Bowdoin and Joyce Robins 141 acres, per agreement of recovery, part of Jingleague Island, on the dividing line between Worc. Co., Md. & Accomack Co., Va. (Dryden Worc. Land 546, 332).

On 24 Jan 1797 John Scarborough gave to son Edward

Scarborough 500 acres "Scarboroughs Castle." On 27 Feb 1797 John and McKimma Scarborough, Edward [?Arthur] Rowley & wife Betsy, sold 440 acres of "Jingoteague" (on Worc.- Acco. Co. line) to Henry Scarborough of Acco. Co., Va. On 3 Mar 1797 John Scarborough gave to his son McKimma part of Lot #8, Snow Hill, part of which in 1799 McKimma & wife Deborah Scarborough sold (Dryden Worc Land 546,332,581). In 1800 he was in Mattaponi Hundred, Worc. Co., with 3 slaves. The children were probably born on the "Scarborough Castle" estate (originally part of "Durham House"). Children (born Worcester Co., Md.):

1. John Scarborough, (Jr.), b. c1760. In 1800 he was in Boquetenorton Hundred, with son under 10, and 3 slaves.
- J-77 2. McKimma Scarborough, b. c1762; d. 1802/10.
3. ?Henry Scarborough, b. c1764. (of Acco. Co.)
4. Edward Scarborough, b. c1766; d. Worc. Co. 18 Sep 1832 (Md. Original Research Bulletin 3:25); mar. (lic. Worc. 2 May 1797) Ann (Nancy) Selby (d. 1773). His will (4 Aug 1832; 1 Oct 1832) left lands to wife Ann, who had to sell the estate to pay debts (Worc. WillsMH27: 532-3; Worc. Court Proceedings LPS7:5615,573; LLPS11:10; from Wm. R. Bishop, Jr.
- J-78 5. Elizabeth Scarborough, b. c1768; d. 10 Aug / 3 Sep 1830; mar. Arthur Rowley.

J-43 JOHN KENDALL, JR., son John and Elizabeth (Harmanson) Kendall (J-19), b. Northampton Co., Va. c1744; d. North. 1811; mar. (North. bond 22 Jan 1768) Sarah ("Sally") Satchell, dau. of Southey and Sarah (Kendall) Satchell (his first cousin), b. c1751. She married 2nd (North. bond 21 Feb 1816) John Adams, b. Carlisle, Mass. 12 Dec 1785; d. North. Co. 20 Apr 1849; bur. Holly Brook. They had four children, buried at Holly Brook: Stephen Keys Adams (1816-1817), Virginia Simpkins Adams (1819-24), Jack Adams (1823-25), Samuel Henry Adams (1827-45).

Southey Satchell in his will in North. Co. (18 Jan/10 Apr 1759) named wife Sarah [nee Kendall, sister of John Sr.], son William (plantation bought of [Col.] Littleton Eyre), named executor with wife Sarah; daughter Sarah Satchell, under age (Marshall 375). Son William was evidently "kinsman William Satchell," i.e. nephew, named executor in the 1763 will of John Kendall, Sr. Sarah Satchell in her will (23 Nov 1781/ 9 Nov 1784) named son William Satchell, daughter Sarah Kendall (Marshall 478).

John Kendall, Jr., inherited his father's seaside plantation. In 1788 he and wife Sarah sold two pieces to Wm. Satchell: 195 acres east of the seaside road, & Pond Island as 163 acres. In 1788 John & Sarah Kendall sold 90 acres to John Scott, land west of the seaside road, & north of the Machipongo crossroad. In 1789 John & Sarah Kendall sold 18 A. (Whitelaw 340-41).

Whitelaw (210) appears to have confused two John Kendalls. He identifies the John son of John and Elizabeth (Harmanson) Kendall (J-19) as the John who died in 1794, leaving wife Lucresha (see will in Marshall 518). This John mar. (North. bond 1779) Lucretia Guy; he had brother Custis Kendall, half-brother William Kendall, Sr., sister Sorrowful Margaret Kendall.

John son of John & Elizabeth (Harmanson) Kendall appears to be the John Kendall who died in 1811, when according to Whitelaw (266) Major S. Pitts bought 2 acres of Duff land in Eastville, a half acre of which in 1823 he and wife Margaret deeded to Sarah Adams, widow of John Kendall, "in lieu of her dower interest in other Kendall lands." Child (born Northampton Co., Va.):

- J-79 1. Margaret C. Kendall, b. 11 Feb 1776; d. 5 Jan 1827; mar. 1st General Major S. Pitts; 2nd Edward R. Tatem.

Thomas Kendall was a merchant. In his will signed 24 Jan 1799, he decreed that all his lands be rented out until son Littleton should reach 22, the rent money to be equally divided among sons & daughters. When Littleton came of age, he was to receive the plantation "I formerly lived on" and the lands purchased from Nelson Robins & Henry Guy; son John W. Kendall was to have plantation called "Townfields." If either son should die, then these lands should be divided equally among surviving son and his three daughters, Elizabeth H. Floyd, Susanna Kendall, Ann Kendall, the daughters to be residual legatees. His nephews John [K.] and Mathew Floyd and son John W. Kendall were named executors. In a codicil he requested that the store be kept up until 1 Jan 1800 (North. Wills 31:56-61).

In North. Order Book 1822-26 it was certified on 10 June 1824 that one of the only heirs at law of Nathaniel Wilkins, Revolutionary War soldier, was his sister Ann Kendall, late Wilkins, who had died leaving three children her only heirs: Littleton Kendall, John W. Kendall & Elizabeth Floyd, all also being dead, Littleton Kendall leaving children Susan Ann & Thomas Littleton Kendall (wards of Temple N. Robins), Elizabeth leaving Thomas K., Samuel L., & Elizabeth Ann Floyd her only children and heirs, John W. leaving no children, only a widow Susanna (Nottingham, Soldiers 12,20).

He named 2nd son Matthew Floyd, 3rd son William Floyd. All the rest of his estate and the plantation near Hungar's Church, 400 acres, and slaves, were to be rented out until son William reach 21, the rent money for the support and education of the three sons. When William reaches 21, Hungar's plantation to be divided equally between Matthew and William. As executors he named wife and friends John Kendall, Sr., and William Satchell (North. Wills 27:306-309).

Jonathan Elligood in his will, signed 9 Nov 1791 (prob. 11 Dec 1792), appointed wife Esther executrix, requested that she dispose of estate articles as she should think proper, retain during widowhood all the remainder of estate, which at her death or marriage to be divided between "my two children" Elizabeth and Susannah Elligood. In his will, signed 26 May 1806, he stated that whereas his brother Thomas Stringer (will 14 Oct 1791) had devised to "my son Hilry" his land at the head of Occohannock Creek, and Hillary is thus well provided for, he would bequeath to Hillary only a negro man. To his wife he left use of his silver, beds, etc., & use of "my lands whereon I now live" for support of "my children," all under 20, specifying four daughters; Sally, Archaball Goddin, Mary Ann, Margaret Teackle Kendal, Elizabeth Teackle, division to take place when son comes of age. If son Hillary gives up the land from his uncle for the land "whereon I live," he can have it if he will support his sisters; otherwise it should go to son Archabald. To dau. Sally Stringer he left 21 acres bought from John Stringer. Executor was to be "friend" Peter Bowdoin, with the request that he take Stringer's two sons, both under 21, under his care. Witnesses: J.A.C. Lewis, Smith Stringer, Peggy L. Avery, Isma Wyatt (Acco. Peter Bowdoin had a franchise for the ferry from Hungar's (?to Hampton), which he kept operating even after business fell off when the capital was moved from Williamsburg to Richmond (1780), "although others tried to get it from him through political maneuvers." He sold his ferries in 1824 (Turman 155, 165).

In 1785, 1790, 1793 Peter & Margaret Bowdoin sold land [on the seaboard northeast of modern Capeville] inherited from his father, which had been in the family since 1705 (Whitelaw 101, 102). Peter inherited from his father 808 acres in Old Town Neck southeast of Machipongo. In 1801 Peter "followed his father to the bayside" and sold the mill and the original family land (Whitelaw 132). Whitelaw (297) quotes from 4 letters written by Peter at "Hungar's" to his sister Margaret Prentis in 1807, 1808,

Executor of his estate was son Peter S. Bowdoin, who sold to his step-mother, Leah, 494 acres his father had inherited from his father. In 1833 Leah sold 301 acres to Susan E. Wilson, wife of Henry P.C. Wilson (her late husband's cousin); a house & 6 acres to John H. Winder (another cousin), the house known as "Ferry House." In 1793 Agnes inherited from her father his 364 acre "plantation at Onancock." The Kers deeded it to John's cousin & future nephew-in-law, Thomas M. Bayly, who deeded it to Ker alone. On this tract, between 1799 & 1806, John built the handsome mansion known now as Kerr Place in Onancock. (c1780) WILLIAM CHRISTIAN (II), son of William (I) and Kasiah (Blair) Christian, b. c1750; died North. Co. Jan 1800. In 1773 William inherited from his father the plantation called "Locust Grove," 446 acres in Granger's Neck, Northampton Co., on which a house stands, part built in late 1600's (Whitelaw 505). William served in the Revolutionary War as a Lt. in the Va. State Navy. On 11 July 1831 (Court Order Bk. 1826-31) it was "ordered to be certified ...that William Christian...left at his death...children...William A. Christian, Margaret, the wife of Richard [sic] Ames, George E. Christian, & John Christian," George and John having "died unmarried...& without issue" (Nottingham, Soldiers, p. 14).

In his will, signed 9 Nov 1799 (prob. 10 Feb 1800) William Christian loaned the use of his plantation to son William Christian forever, dau. He mar. 2nd & was father of Edward Revell, Jr. The family make-up is made clear in two suits in Chancery Court of Acco. Co. In Mar 1801 in a suit brought by John S. Ker (J-63) for partition of land, his sister Ann Revell was reported to be mother of John & Margaret Revell. Another suit was brought in Chancery in Mar 1803 by John Revell, Jr. against Margaret & Edward Revell, his sister & brother, for partition of their father's land, consisting of 1200 acres in St. George's Parish and half of a water grist mill on Pungoteague Creek in the same parish. John, Margaret, and Leah were children of Edward Revell by one marriage, Edward by another, but Leah had died in 1793 (Nottingham, Accomack Land Causes 50 & 51). A survey for the division of the land of the late Edward Revell in 1803 showed 1,685 acres on Pungoteague Creek; 625 east of the Bayside road went to John K. Revell, 560 to Margaret Revell, and the home part to Edward A. Revell (Whitelaw 802).

Sarah Parker, dau. of Geo. and Sarah Parker, b. 5 Nov 1765; d. 19 Oct 1822 (Bible); bur. Sylvan Retreat near Pungoteague. (Dates from John Ker Bible, BRec 7:172-173). In 1797 George bought 179 waterfront acres on the present Nandua Wharf Road, southeast of Pungoteague, augmenting the home plantation inherited from his mother (Whitelaw 663,664). He may have been a merchant (Ker & Seymour) in partnership with his bro. John & brother-in-law, Rev. William Seymour. First three children were by first marriage.

Children (born presumably Accomack Co., Va.):

1. Ann Revell Ker, b. 13 Feb 1789; d. Acco. Co. 10 Apr/30 June 1807; unmar. Seymour bought up considerable land in Onancock, on one part of which he built a large house, since known as Wesley House. He was evidently in the mercantile business with a brother of his wife, perhaps ?George (Ker & Seymour), importing such products as rum. The economic collapse of 1819 left him at his death heavily in debt, so that his wife had to sell his land; in 1823 son William bought the house and 430 A. of it, which he sold in 1839 (Whitelaw 940).

Children (born ?Onancock, Accomack Co., Va.):

In his will, signed 10 Jan 1821 (prob. 29 Jan 1821) General Cropper left to wife Catherine "Bowman's Folly" where I now reside, plus all "my slaves" in lieu of her dower, after her death executors to sell "Bowman's Folly" and slaves, the money to be divided amongst his children or descendants. His three sons were bequeathed guns, pistols, swords, & he ordered executors to sell disposable property except "my military lands" in Ky. & Ohio. The six "friends" named executors included Wm. N. Custis & Richard D. Bayly (Acco. Wills 1819-21:336-7).

Since Catherine disliked some provisions of the will, she renounced it, and all property was sold to settle his estate. In the sale she bought "Edghill Farm," also known as "Latin House" (Whitelaw 1044, 1050). In 1850 Catherine was living with son Covington. She made her will 11 Dec 1850 (prob. 26 Feb 1855), bequeathing (among other things) to dau. Ann C.
